OUT OF TOWN

Are all the Smallpox Cases
But the Council

Will Co-operate With the County
in Stamping Out the Disease at Once.

Dr. J. N. McCormack, Secretary of the State Board of Health, was in the city Wednesday night again and conferred with the committee appointed by the council to co-operate with the county Board of Health in the matter of the smallpox visitation.

There are now five cases in the county, two at Jas. W. Carlross', one at R. H. Huggins' and two at Wm. Coburn's, all in the same neighborhood, about five to seven miles southwest of town.

Four are grown people and one a child, and all are colored. The disease is a mild form and is traceable to the case at Schmidt's farm last April. One other case, a negro man named Dawson, who was exposed last April, had the disease the latter part of May and was treated for chicken pox, without a regular physician being called in. The present cases all resulted from contact with Dawson.

The county and city authorities together have taken charge and provided every means for preventing a further spread of the disease.

Dr. J. W. Harned has been detailed to treat all of the cases. A pest house, consisting of several tents, will be at once established in a field half way between J. C. Moore's and R. H. Huggins' farms. All of the patients will be taken there and a strict quarantine will be established. Armed guards—W. H. Ryan and J. B. Littlefield—will enforce the regulations and keep all those who have been exposed confined to their premises.

The Council has ordered everybody who is not immune to be vaccinated at once and the druggists have already laid in a fresh supply of vaccine points. Vaccination will be strictly enforced in all schools under the state law covering the matter.

It is not believed the disease can gain any further foothold and that it will soon be stamped out altogether.

LEG BROKEN.

Casky Farmer Hurt By a Fractious Young Horse.

James Bronaugh, who lives near Casky, had his leg broken a day or two ago while trying to ride a young horse. The animal began to rear and plunge and the saddle-girth broke loose and horse and rider fell in a heap about the same time. Mr. Bronaugh's leg was caught under the horse and fractured. The breaking of the girth kept him from being dragged and perhaps killed.

GRACEY FARMER

Alarmed Over a Wound Made By a Mad Cow.

George L. Owen, of Gracey, went to Paducah this week and had Capt. Joe Fowler's madstone applied to a wound on his hand made by the tooth of a cow believed to be mad. The stone stuck. Mr. Owen's cow was bitten by a dog several weeks ago. The dog was killed, but no one knew the cow was mad and in attempting to doctor the animal Mr. Owen scratched his hand and got some of the saliva in it. He became alarmed and went to Paducah to try the mad stone.

Dangerously Ill.

Mrs. Wallace West, of Beverly, is dangerously ill at the home of Mr. W. W. West, near Church Hill. She is suffering from inflammation of the bowels and her condition is precarious. Dr. J. F. S. Miller, of Princeton, has been attending her for several days.

THE WORST YET.

Bloody Battle Between Clay
County Feudists.

Five Men Killed and Others May
Die of Their Wounds—
More Trouble Feared.

Louisville, Ky., July 20.—A special to the Times from London, Ky., says: The situation in Clay county has not improved. Monday's slaughter is believed to be the beginning of a series of such battles. After the fight runners were sent out to inform friends on both sides. The Philpots came to the support of their kinsmen in squads of ten and fifteen from distant parts of the country. Two of their horses fell dead from the heat, so eager were their riders to get to the scene of battle. The Philpots are reported to number 100, in arms, ready for another attack from the Morrises, Griffins and Chadwells, who are reported two miles away with fifty armed men. Excitement is high.

The bodies of Aaron Morris, Harve Griffin and Hugh Griffin, the three men who were killed Monday, were placed in one wagon and hauled to the graveyard, near Manchester, where they were buried to-day. It was some hours after the battle occurred until enough of the Griffins' friends could be rallied to remove the dead and wounded from the battle ground. Ed Fisher, who fell with many holes through his body, has died of his injuries. He will be buried at the Philpot graveyard.

Robt. Philpot was reported dying last night, but this morning's report says he is yet alive. Green Griffin is at Chadwell's, where the Griffin side is assembled. Both of his legs were shot off and he will die. Both Geo. Philpot and Alexander Fisher will probably recover.

The correspondent saw the bond which Robt. Philpot was filling at the time of the attack. The bond is smeared with blood and the top cut off with buck shot. The Griffins made their assault on horseback and were among the Philpots before they knew it. Aaron Morris announced the Griffin side's appearance by firing into Robert Philpot with a Winchester. Ed Fisher and Aaron fought a hand-to-hand battle with Colts revolvers.

DASTARDLY DEED.

Fruit Vender Knocked Senseless and Robbed of Cash.

Mr. Geo. W. Carney, a well-known Guthrie fruit vender, was knocked senseless and robbed last Sunday night. For years he has been engaged in selling fruit on the platform at Guthrie and was out with a basket of apples Sunday night, when he was set upon by a thief, or thieves, who knocked him down. He was then robbed of all the cash in his pockets. The Marshal of the town made several arrests on suspicion Tuesday, but at last accounts the guilty party or parties had not been located. Mr. Carney was very badly used up, but will recover from his injuries.

FARMER DROPS DEAD

While Sitting in a Chair the Sudden Summons Came.

Mr. Rash Ridcock, an Allegree farmer, dropped dead of heart disease. He was apparently in the best of health and was sitting in a chair when the sudden summons came. He was about 60 years old.

Colored Victims.

Tony Buckner, aged 34, died in the city Monday of consumption. An infant of Wm. Orndoff died in the city Tuesday of bowel trouble. A year-old child of Sam Bostick died in the city Wednesday from the effects of teething.

Had Been Engaged in Ministerial Work For Years.

Mr. Preston L. Holden has received intelligence of the death of his father, Rev. L. J. Holden, which occurred at Snow Hill, N. C., last Saturday. No particulars were given in the message, but the supposition is that his death was sudden, as he had been troubled with heart disease for several years.

He was a member of the Methodist Conference of North Carolina and had been in active ministerial work for about twenty-five years. He leaves a wife and ten children. He was 58 years old.

A frame residence on Fourteenth street, owned by Judge Polk Candler and occupied by Jack Boyd, was discovered in flames at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning and was badly damaged before the fire was extinguished. Loss small, covered by insurance. Mr. Boyd's loss was several hundred dollars; no insurance. The fire caught from a defective flue. The fire department responded with the usual promptness and soon checked the flames.

RUBBER NECK

Caused a Mail Clerk's Sudden
Taking off.

Fred A. McCormick, a railway mail clerk, whose home was at Fulton, Ky., was killed at Caneyville, Ky., Tuesday afternoon. He was struck on the head, as he leaned too far out the mail car door, by a crane which is used to hang a mail bag on for the train to grab as it whizzes by at full speed.
