

MEN WHO RIDE.

A Trio of Star Equestrians With the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Circus.

"A round dozen of equestrians, and all men who ride," is the plain, unvarnished, matter-of-fact manner in which the management of the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' combined shows introduce a reference to their riders in a courier announcing the coming of their tented aggregation to this city, Wednesday, October 25. Youth has been made a desideratum in the equestrian department of the circus, and riders who depend upon the greatness of former days will not be among the number. Never before has there been presented such a talented assemblage of young blood.

As stellar lights of the constellation, Messrs. Oscar Lowande, William DeMott and "Stiek" Davenport are singled out for especial consideration. All are youthful, agile, ambitious and extraordinarily proficient. Each will be seen vying with the other to gain a people's plaudits and a management's commendation. All three are at the very zenith of their careers, and during the present season are engaged in an international contest for the world's equestrian supremacy.

Lowande is the star of the Southern hemisphere, fresh from arenic conquests in Rio Janeiro and Buenos Ayers. William DeMott represents the land of Victoria. Though an American by birth, he is the descendant of a family of famous English bareback riders, and his laurels have been gained on the continent. Davenport is the Yankee of the trio, but a few years out of his teens, and even now acknowledged the premier of American riders. Their riding is not confined to any particular style or school. They are bareback riders in every sense of the word. Somersaulting, forward and backward and from horse to horse, which the riders of yore olden time would have considered miraculous feats, are as child's play for these young horsemen of the present generation of riders. All three are originators, and their performances will be found to be marked deviations from the stereotyped riding acts of their equestrian predecessors. Added zest is given their work by the intense personal rivalry between them.

FROM THE ORIENT.

A Kentucky Soldier Boy Has More to say of the Philippines.

City of Cebu, P. I., Aug. 26, '99. EDITOR KENTUCKIAN: When the U. S. troops came here the natives were thought to be friendly but it looks otherwise now. One day last week as Co. M of 23rd regulars were scouting out in the country they were fired on by the insurgents from ambush and one man killed; in return the regulars killed 35 insurgents. Yesterday morning (Aug. 25) four soldiers from Co. M, 23rd regulars, were coming to Cebu from El Parado (about 4 1/2 miles from Cebu) to reenlist, and when about one and a half miles from Cebu they were attacked from ambush by insurgents with bolos and spears, and three of the soldiers were killed, the other man being twenty yards ahead ran to a stone bridge; after being severely wounded he shot 45 rounds with his Krag and killed five of the insurgents; he was rescued in a short time by a squad of our men. The bodies of those killed were mutilated in a horrible manner. When the squad came back and reported what they had done the call to arms was sounded and three companies were sent out and scouted the country where those boys were killed; they killed every native man they saw but one and they brought him in as a prisoner.

Our company was stationed at Saint Nicholas a suburb of Cebu last night; we put out two out-posts, one at the bridge where those boys were killed. I was in charge of this squad, and here we had six privates and a corporal at each post. About 4 o'clock one of our boys saw a native with a bolo. Three of the boys went after him and brought him back to the bridge. When they came in with him he began to beg saying me mucho amigo (good friend) but that did not go with us, so I told one of the boys to take him to headquarters; he (the native) began to get uneasy and broke to run when I ordered the boys to fire and the cebuano fell with a Springfield bullet through his heart.

The boys who were chopped to pieces by the natives lay near this bridge where we could see them and of course we were not very peaceably inclined toward any native on that evening; we left the native lying where he fell except to put some pieces of bamboo over him when we were relieved from the post. The natives got three Krag rifles and took the hats and shoes from the dead soldiers.

We expect to fight more or less every day we stay here.

Respectfully
L. H. HUGGINS,
Co. K, 1st Tenn., U. S. A.

A Poor Worker.

No man or woman can work well, mentally or physically, nor perform effective service of any kind who is burdened with a torpid liver. Constipation and deficient secretion of bile have clogged up the organs of the body so that they cannot keep up the energy to the proper standard, hence, weariness, headaches, depression, fickle appetite—result. All this can be changed with a few doses of PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. It cleanses the system thoroughly, flushes the excretory canals, drives out impurities, imparts new life to the vital organs and re-establishes healthy functional activity, which brings with it energy, strength, vigor of body and brain and cheerful spirits.

GREATEST FOE TO LIFE.

Consumption Holds the Record—Many Cases Are Preventable.

Of all the foes to human life, consumption has the most terrible record. It is claimed that one death among adults out of every seven is due to this disease, and that one person in every three is afflicted with it at some period of life. But, though the cure of consumption in its advanced stage is still doubtful, if not impossible, its ravages can be checked and perhaps ultimately controlled by wisely-directed efforts on the part of individuals and society as a whole. In this connection Mr. Miles Menander Dawson, a consulting actuary and author of standard works on life insurance, says in an interview: "From one-fifth to one-half of the deaths that occur in youth and middle age could be prevented by a decent regard for sanitary conditions and by common action of society for the benefit of all. It is not enough that a man should take care of himself; disease is communicable, and protecting man against it is a social function. Fully one-fifth of the total number of deaths are caused by zymotic diseases which are as purely accidental as falling and breaking a leg. And one-fourth of the deaths, in addition, are from digestive and respiratory diseases, almost all of which are preventable. About 17 per cent. of the deaths among insured lives is from consumption, and five per cent. from nervous diseases, all of which are now believed to be preventable. This means that fully one-half of the deaths among young and middle-aged persons could be prevented, and the proportion could no doubt be greatly increased if parents paid a proper respect to the laws of heredity. It would certainly be a most important achievement for the human race if united action could be taken to secure that a larger proportion of persons would attain old age than at present."—Ainslee's Magazine.

THE NEW YORK WORLD, THIRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

ALMOST A DAILY—AT THE PRICE OF A WEEKLY.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week edition of The New York World, and with the presidential campaign now at hand you cannot do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in dollar a year journalism.

It is issued every other day, and is to all purposes a daily.

Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week.

The price is only $1.00 per year. It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly.

Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service.

The Thrice-a-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed—The New York World.

Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the Presidential campaign coming on.

The best of current fiction is found in its columns. These are only some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and the KENTUCKIAN together one year for $2.50.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

YOU ARE A DEMOCRAT.

and, of course, want a Democratic newspaper. THE CHICAGO DISPATCH is the Great Democratic Newspaper of the Country. It advocates the re-adoption of the platform and the renomination of William Jennings Bryan.

There has never been a political campaign that will equal in importance that of the one to be fought next year. The Republican party, backed by the money power of this country and Europe, is alert and aggressive. Flushed with the victory of three years ago it will seek by every means in its power to maintain its supremacy.

Democrats must be up and doing. They must wage an unceasing war upon their enemies. In no better and more effective way can this be done than by the circulation of good, sound Democratic newspapers.

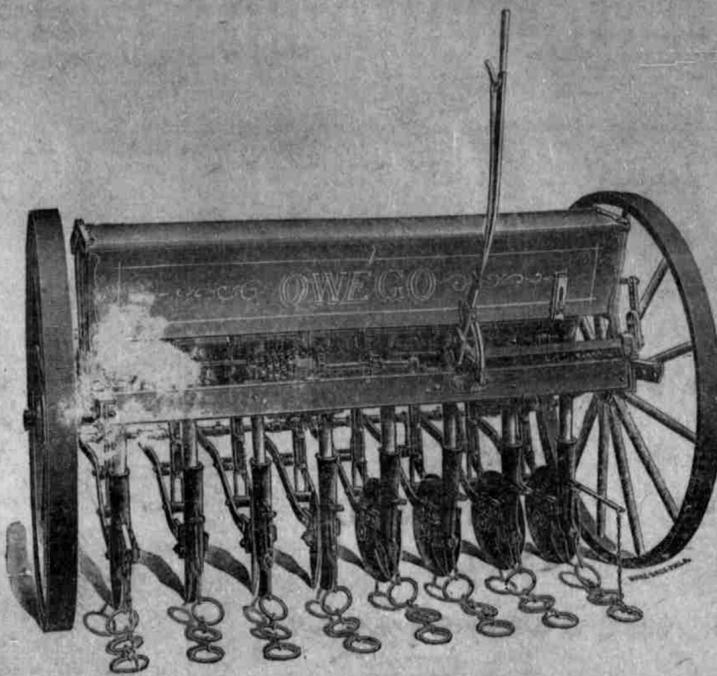

The publisher of THE CHICAGO DISPATCH, will send to every new subscriber for three months a copy of THE CHICAGO DISPATCH for ten cents. If you are not already taking this great political weekly, send in ten cents at once. You should not only do this yourself, but you should induce all your friends to join with you. By a little effort you can easily raise a club of ten or twenty subscribers.

THE CHICAGO DISPATCH is endorsed by William Jennings Bryan and other Democratic leaders. Address THE CHICAGO DISPATCH, 120 and 122 Fifth Avenue, Chicago, Ill.
