

Does Your Head Ache?
Are your nerves weak? Can't you sleep well? Pain in your back? Lack energy? Appetite poor? Digestion bad? Bolls or pimples? These are but some of the results of constipation. If the contents of the bowels are not removed from the body each day, as nature intended, poisonous substances are sure to be absorbed into the blood, always causing suffering and frequently causing severe disease. There is a common-sense cure.

In Spite of the Rain Enthusiasm Unbounded At Evansville.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 11.—President McKinley and his Cabinet came from Chicago this morning to attend the national reunion of the Blue and the Gray. A heavy rain was falling, but despite this ten thousand veterans and visitors thronged about the railroad station, and the veterans in gray vied with the veterans in blue in tendering a tremendous ovation when the presidential party arrived. They swarmed about the President and Cabinet officers, cheering and extending their hands for a grasp of welcome.

FINE PROGRAM RENDERED.

The Literary Society Starts Out With a Good Meeting.

The Hopkinsville Literary Society, composed of 30 of the leading young men of the city, held its first meeting for business at Mr. John Feland's handsome home Tuesday evening. Papers were read by Mr. W. T. Tandy on the Duke of Monmouth, by Dr. Frank M. Stites on Liquid Air, and by Mr. Frank Bell on Walt Whitman. Mr. Ira L. Smith read an extract from David Harum and Mr. T. C. Underwood read a paper reviewing the book. The entire program was interesting and instructive. The scientific article by Dr. Stites showed much research and was worthy a place in any of the leading magazines.

The literary program was concluded at 10 o'clock, when a delightful repast provided by the hospitable hostess, Mrs. Feland, was served.

COLORED DEMOCRAT

Speaks to the Negroes on Live Political Issues.

A colored Democratic orator spoke at the Court House Tuesday night to a crowd of 200 negroes and about 50 white people. He came from Owensboro and his name was Watts. He proved to be a lively talker and made one of the best speeches heard here so far. He addressed himself to his own race and presented some telling facts in very pointed language. He was treated coldly at first but warmed his audience up to a point where the applause was unstinted. He went from here to Greenville.

Scribner's For October contains the first part of Mrs. John Drew's Autobiographical Sketch, — the charming summary of her career which she prepared a few months before her death for her children and grandchildren. Her stage reminiscences cover almost three-quarters of a century and she was associated with most of the interesting characters in the theatrical history of this country. This memoir is full of anecdotes and incidents of them. It is also enriched with a remarkable selection of portraits, old play bills and other memorabilia from the collections of Peter Gilsey, John Drew and Douglass Taylor (who have made interesting biographical notes to accompany the illustrations). The whole memoir is prefixed with an introduction by John Drew, the son of Mrs. Drew. The reminiscences will be completed in the November.

James Reed Injured.
Mr. James Reed, struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated.
