

WE FIT
The Hard To Fit
 IN Clothing & Shoes.

It's one of our hobbies to fit people that can't be fitted anywhere else. In order to do this, we are forced to carry a very large stock, by far the largest in this part of the country. It's a great satisfaction and a pleasure to go to a store where you can

Find What You Want

and then get a fit in it. And more than all to be able to see the price in plain figures, and to KNOW that it is the lowest price to anybody. And still further to know that if you are dissatisfied with your purchase after you get home, your money will be refunded as cheerfully as it was received.

Such a Store is Ours.

J. H. Anderson & Co.

...LADIES...

If you want up-to-date
FOOT WEAR
 Come to us and get the proper kind.

BURNETT & QUARLES,
 (SUCCESSORS TO PETREE & CO.)

BRADLEY AND FINLEY

Both In Indianapolis and a Friend of Finley Talks.

Says Finley Did not Murder Goebel But Eight of His Mob Gambled For the Shot.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 28.—The report published in the Sentinel yesterday to the effect that Charles Finley, ex-Secretary of State of Kentucky, is in hiding in Indianapolis, has been confirmed.

Finley was joined here yesterday by ex-Governor Bradley, of Kentucky, and the two are awaiting the arrival of another prominent Republican of the same State. The name of the third man who is expected to arrive to-day is not given.

That he is safe here, was confirmed yesterday by the Governor's office, it being announced officially that the Governor would not recognize a requisition from Governor Beckham, of Kentucky, for the return to that State of Finley or any of his associates.

A. B. Voiles, a former Louisville newspaper man, is in the city to join Finley, whose friend he is.

"Finley is the man they are after in Kentucky," said he last night. "They would kill him in a minute." Let a Kentucky jury, now in the heat of public feeling, say that any man is guilty of the murder of Goebel and that prisoner's life would not be worth the time it would take to lynch him. For that would certainly be his fate.

"Finley had nothing to do with the murder of Goebel. He is a grand fellow. Goebel was shot by a man who has been shooting revenue officers for twenty years. There were eight of them in a crowd who shook dice to see who would do it, and the man who lost fired the shot. I have nothing further to say."

COLONEL JACK CHINN

Will Give Lectures to Help the Goebel Monument Fund.

Frankfort, Ky., March 26.—Colonel Jack Chinn, the devoted friend of Governor Goebel, who was with him when he was shot, announced to-night that he would shortly take the lecture platform. His subject will be the political situation in Kentucky, beginning with the campaign for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination and covering details of the regular campaign, the contest, assassination, trials of suspects and all other occurrences relating to it. Colonel Chinn says he will visit all the leading cities, and will devote the entire proceeds to the Goebel monument fund. He has, he says, received offers from a number of theatrical organizations, asking him to go on the stage, and this suggested the lecture tour.

BROKE AN ARM.

Will Cavanah Victim of Bad Accident at Princeton.

Mr. Will Cavanah, of West Nineteenth street, had the misfortune to break his right arm above the elbow last Saturday. He had been engaged at blacksmithing in Princeton for several weeks and while shoeing a mule the animal lunged and Mr. Cavanah was thrown to the ground. He fell on the limb, breaking the bone in two. He was able to return home the next day and his condition is now as favorable as the accident permits.

Taylor's Sister Dying.

Frankfort, Ky., March 28.—W. S. Taylor received a telegram last night, stating that his sister, Mrs. Mary Roach, is dying at her home in Butler county. Mrs. Roach is a widow with one child. She is younger than W. S. Taylor. His elder brother, Alonzo, died only three weeks ago of typhoid fever.

COILS TIGHTENING.

More Confessions and all Roads Lead to Rome.

Taylor Sweating Blood and Many Knees Knocking Together as the Truth Comes Out.

Frankfort, Ky., March 29.—Caleb Powers and W. H. Culton were held without bail, to await the action of the grand jury, on the charge of being accessories to the assassination of William Goebel. John Davis was admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000. The defense introduced no witnesses in the case of Powers, but offered to file a document purporting to be a pardon signed by W. S. Taylor and attested by Powers himself as Secretary of State. The court refused to recognize the pardon. Culton and Davis waived examining trial.

After the cases had been disposed of by the examining court Culton made to the attorneys for the prosecution, and in the presence of his own attorney and brother-in-law, a full statement of all facts known to him in connection with the assassination. His confession corroborates that of Wharton Golden and brings out clearly some additional points.

H. E. Youtsey, whom the statements of Wharton Golden identified as the man who received the key to Caleb Powers' private office the day before the assassination, was arrested Tuesday. He admits receiving the key. Culton says the steel bullets used by the assassin were purchased by Youtsey.

According to Culton's statement the murder was postponed from Monday to Tuesday on account of the failure of the assassin to arrive. Berry Howard is said to have been on guard in the room or out in the hall, with a full knowledge of what was going on. Directly after the shot was fired Youtsey fled by way of the basement. It is charged that the money was paid to the assassin by Youtsey, having been demanded in advance. The money is said to have come from one of the highest Republican officials in the State.

As a result of developments there will be several additional arrests, including Berry Howard, Dick Combs and another man in the mountains.

W. S. Taylor is quoted as saying that he will act upon the advice of his attorneys after the discussion of the court of appeals. His lawyers, it is understood, will advise him to vacate. One of them has already asked for terms for his client.

The court of appeals will take up the case next Monday, sitting in Louisville. A decision will be given as soon as possible.

The grand jury will meet Monday.

The latest development in the Goebel assassination is that H. E. Youtsey owned the rifle from which the assassin fired the fatal shot. Youtsey is said to have purchased the steel bullet cartridges and to have exhibited after the tragedy an empty shell with the remark: "The bullet that was in this shell killed Goebel." Directly after the shooting Youtsey is said to have fled with the rifle in his trousers leg to the basement and then to Taylor's office. After the tragedy Taylor is said to have urged Youtsey to leave Frankfort. Other startling evidence has also been adduced as a result of the confessions. The militia which had been secretly assembled in the arsenal was provided with overcoats and cartridges an hour before the shooting, and was in full marching order. Capt. John Davis and Holland Whittaker were the messengers who rushed from Taylor's office to that of the Adjutant General as soon as Youtsey arrived and reported what had been done.

Davis has been unable to give bond and is still in confinement.

W. S. Taylor has left Frankfort for Butler county, owing to the illness of his sister. He spent the night in Louisville.

..SPECIAL SERVICES..

First Presbyterian Church

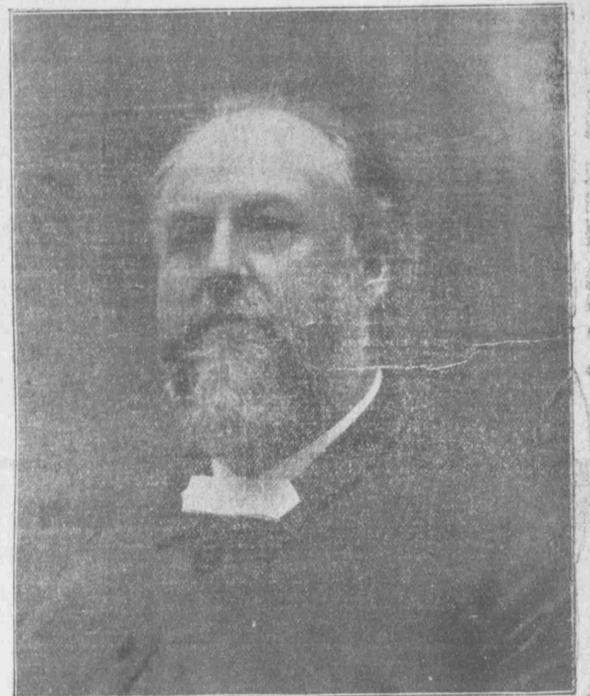

ORGANIZED 1813.

CORNER SEVENTH AND LIBERTY STREETS.

Rev. Francis Lee Goff, Pastor.

MEETINGS CONDUCTED BY THE PASTOR,

ASSISTED BY

THE REV. H. H. WELLS, D. D.

Subjects for Evening Services the First Week:

SABBATH.—The Divine Government—It's Claims Upon us.

MONDAY.—Is Morality ALONE, Sufficient to Save?

TUESDAY.—How Can a Sinner be Justified?

WEDNESDAY.—The Doctrine of Regeneration.

THURSDAY.—The Christians' STATE and the Christians' WALK.

FRIDAY.—The Gospel Provision—For Whom Made.

COME.

The space for this announcement is furnished by BASSETT & CO., and J. T. WALL & CO., who have kindly set aside their own advertising in this issue of the "KENTUCKIAN."

PEERLESS THRESHING MACHINE Y.

These machines have been used in this county for the past 15 years, and have given

Unqualified Satisfaction.

Are guaranteed to be better built, to do more and better work and last

No Staves or Riddles Used in This Machine—longer than any other machine built for like purposes in the United States.

THE GEISER MFG. CO.

WAYNESBORO, PA. or

J. B. WALKER, Hopkinsville, Ky.

WITH

The above cut represents the Peerless Traction Engine, which is regarded as the Standard of Perfection.

THE OSBORNE PEOPLE.