

HEALTH and beauty are the glories of perfect womanhood.

Women who suffer constantly with weakness peculiar to their sex cannot retain their beauty. Preservation of pretty features and rounded form is a duty women owe to themselves.

THE MARKS OF SUFFERING

Don't wait, young women, until your good looks are gone past recall. Consult Mrs. Pinkham at the out-start. Write to her at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Edna Ellis, Higginsport, Ohio, writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I am a school teacher and had suffered untold agony during my menstrual periods for ten years. My nervous system was almost a wreck. I suffered with pain in my side and had almost every ill human flesh is heir to. I had taken treatment from a number of physicians who gave me no relief. In fact one eminent specialist said no medicine could help me, I must submit to an operation. At my mother's request, I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham stating my case in every particular and received a prompt reply. I followed the advice given me and now I suffer no more during menses. If anyone cares to know more about my case, I will cheerfully answer all letters."

Miss Kate Cook, 16 Addison St., Mt. Jackson, Ind., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I am by occupation a school teacher, and for a long while suffered with painful menstruation and nervousness. I have received more benefit from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound than from all remedies that I have ever tried."

Gifts For Five Million Ladies

Most Remarkable Offer Ever Made by a Reliable Concern.

EDITOR HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN: Please announce that for a limited time we will give, absolutely free, an elegant sterling silver plated sugar shell—choice of any of our 40c patterns—to every married lady in the United States who will write us a letter stating that it is her first request for one of our souvenir gifts. We will promptly send illustrations from which selection may be made. There is nothing to pay. The gift is absolute.

Our object in making this sensational offer is to get a sample of Quaker Valley Silverware into every home in the land. We believe it to be the most effective advertising that we can do. We will not send these sugar shells to lists of names. This is too expensive a gift to persons who don't ask for it themselves. Therefore, each lady will please send her own name only. But one to a family and none to children. Ladies, please write to day, giving full postoffice address.

PHILETUS SAWYER.

Gave More Money To Politics Than Any Other Man.

The late Philetus Sawyer undoubtedly contributed more money for political purposes than any other man in the United States, if not in the world. While he never used money corruptly, he was a great believer in the political efficacy of "stirring things up," and when a political campaign was coming on he would want things "stirred up" from one end of Wisconsin to the other, which cost a great deal of money, and he usually preferred to pay the bills himself rather than carry around a subscription paper. Very naturally the other republicans in the state would allow him to do so.

Mr. Sawyer was the most liberal contributor in Wisconsin to the republican committee of that state. He also contributed liberally to the national committee every political campaign. In addition to these he often made personal contributions toward the campaign expenses of friends who were not well off in different parts of the country, while in Wisconsin comparatively few republicans ever made a campaign for congress or the legislature or for any state office without direct personal assistance from Mr. Sawyer. Usually he sent it without solicitation. He knew almost every man in the state and was familiar with the pecuniary circumstances of the leading republicans in every town. Hence, when he heard that this man or that had been nominated for office he would not wait for an application but write a pleasant letter inclosing a check for an amount which he thought sufficient to cover the requirements of the campaign.

In this way his total expenditures for political purposes ran up into thousands of dollars every year.—Record.

EDWARD FENNELL

Elected Chairman of the State Board of Prison Commissioners.

Frankfort, Ky., April 3.—The State Prison Commissioners held a formal meeting at their office in the penitentiary here this afternoon for the purpose of re-organizing. Commissioner Edward Fennell, of Harrison county, was elected chairman to succeed the Hon. Henry George, whose place on the board was taken by the Hon. George V. Green, of Christian county. No changes were made in the officials of the prison, and Commissioner Richardson announces that none will be made.

The commission will meet tomorrow to make arrangements for the erection of the buildings inside the prison here provided for in the $25,000 legislative appropriation. The idle convicts in the prison will be employed on the work.

CORN PLANTING

The Order of the Day Among Farmers.

Farmers took advantage of the fine weather the first part of the week and considerable corn was put in the ground. Many acres were also planted the week before. Tobacco plants have come up nicely and the beds are nearly all covered with canvas. From present prospects there will be plenty of plants in most parts of the county, and in fact all over this district.

She Took The Hint.

The other day the wife of a senator, who thinks she is a linguist, but whose friends have doubts, started a conversation with Herr Von Holleben, the German ambassador, in his native tongue. He listened patiently for a few moments, and then gallantly remarked: "Madam, you will do me a great favor if you will speak English. I do not understand German very well."

Mrs. Senator looked surprised, but took the hint.

Charges False Imprisonment.

J. W. Lee, who lives near Paducah, the young man who eloped to Clarksville, Tenn., with his cousin, Miss Lucy Lee, has filed suit against Chief of Police Robinson, of Clarksville, for $5,000 damages for false imprisonment. The young people were arrested on suspicion upon their arrival at Clarksville, and Lee was imprisoned.

TOBACCO MARKET.

(Reported by J. H. Eggleston, of Lumping & Eggleston Co., (Incorporated), buyer on order of dealer in and handler of leaf tobacco.)

April 4, 1900.—The market opened irregular and lower; especially on lugs which showed a decline of 1/4c from last week. While the market showed less animation prices were the best of the year going up as high as 11 1/4. About one cent higher than any time this year.

The offerings as a whole were the best we have had. There was comparatively a very fine line sold at the New Enterprise Warehouse from 9 1/2c to 11c with very little competition on this grade. Common and medium grades of leaf were firm at last weeks prices. The Bremen buyers showed a little more life this week. The loose market continues very quiet as the farmers are about through delivering.

The cold chilly weather is holding the plants back and the farmers report them very backward; while they have had time to be showing by this time. However there is ample time for them to get large enough to set by the latter part of May.

WHEELER DECIDES

He Will Not Demand Recognition As a Representative in Congress.

Washington, April 3.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler will not demand his seat in Congress. This is what he told a personal friend in Congress today.

The General related to his friend the result of a conference which he had with President McKinley and Secretary Root soon after the Secretary returned from Cuba. The President suggested that Gen. Wheeler see Speaker Henderson and ascertain whether he would be allowed to retain his seat. The Speaker told the General that while he had the highest personal regard for him, it would be a violation of the Constitution for him to take his seat; that he knew who would object should he present himself to be sworn in, and the objection would be sustained.

Gen. Wheeler reported to the President the result of the conference, and the President suggested that if he still desired to remain in Congress that he should go back to his district and stand for re-election. It is understood that Gen. Wheeler said he did not desire to run again and had decided not to try to get in Congress again.

Yet there are some who claim that the General is already soliciting for re-election.

"DISTINCTIVE" PAPER.

Will be Used to Print National Bank Notes.

It will cost the Government about $15,000 to purchase the paper with which to manufacture the extra money provided for by the currency law in the way of additional national bank circulation. It is estimated that 2,500,000 sheets of paper will be required to print the national bank notes authorized in the gold currency law. This is what is known as "distinctive" paper, and will cost more than 50 cents a sheet.

OWNED 10,000 ACRES.

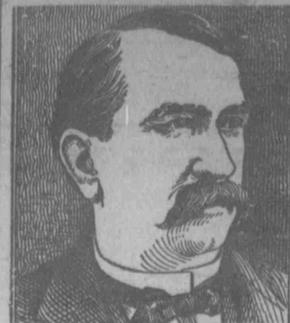

Dan Rice, The Veteran Clown, Land Rich.

The will of Dan Rice, the veteran clown, who died on Washington's birthday, has been probated in New Jersey.

He left 10,000 acres of land in Tennessee and Texas. The Tennessee land is said to be rich in coal and iron ore. He left an only daughter, Mrs. Catherine Wurbach, who is to receive a life annuity of $1,000 from his estate.

TWO VERY PROMINENT PUBLIC MEN

Owe Health and Happiness to Pe-ru-na.

Hon. Wm. Youngblood, Auditor for the Interior.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 10, 1898. Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—I've often heard of your great medicine and have persuaded my wife, who has been much of a sufferer from catarrh, to try Pe-ru-na, and after using one bottle she has wonderfully improved. It has proved all you have claimed for it, and I take pleasure in recommending it to anyone who is afflicted with catarrh. Yours, Wm. Youngblood, Auditor for the Interior.

Congressman Howard from Alabama.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4th, 1899. Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—I have taken Pe-ru-na now for two weeks, and find I am very much relieved. I feel that my cure will be permanent. I have also taken it for la grippe, and I take pleasure in recommending Pe-ru-na as an excellent remedy to all fellow sufferers. Very Respectfully, M. W. Howard, Congressman Howard's home address is Port Payne, Ala.

Any man who wishes perfect health must be entirely free from catarrh. Catarrh is well-nigh universal; almost omnipresent. Pe-ru-na is the only absolute safeguard known. A cold is the beginning of catarrh. To prevent colds, to cure colds, is to cheat catarrh out of its victims. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., for a free catarrh book.
