PLATFORM WILL CONTAIN SPECIFIC DECLARATION FOR SILVER AT OLD RATIO.

STEPHENSON MAY BE THE RUNNING MATE.

Kansas City, Mo., July 5.—The convention held an unimportant session to-day, but it was devoted mostly to speeches and the body finally adjourned until 3:30 p. m. (4:30 by Kentucky time) this afternoon. Among those who made short speeches was Gov. Beckham, of Kentucky, who predicted that Kentucky would go Democratic by 50,000.

There is a widespread feeling that Hill would be the best man for Vice President, but as he has refused to enter the race it begins to look now like Adlai E. Stephenson, of Illinois, would be the man. He has anpointment of the various committees and the detail of committees for the various work yet in store.

The Danforth boom, which had snuffed that of Towne, was in its turn rudely jostled yesterday by the movement for Stevenson, of Illinois. An attempt to restore Shively to the race was checked by a positive refusal of Mr. Shively to be a candidate. The Towne men are still hopeful. Enthusiastic friends of David B. Hill continue to keep the New Yorker to the front in spite of his protests. A decided ovation was tendered Hill on the nounced that he will be governed by the wishes of the Illinois delegation.

Bryan had his way and the platform will be reported without dissent. It will declare for a reaffirmation of the old platform including silver at 16 to 1.

Bryan will be nominated at the evening session and the plan is to have him here to-morrow to accept the nomination.

Kansas City, July 4.—Amid scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm fitting such an event and such a day, the Democratic National convention began its session to-day. But after sitting until a late hour to-night, the expected climax of the day—the nomination of William J. Bryan as the Democratic candidate for President—has failed of realization, and all of the larger business of the convention awaits the completion of the platform.

As a spectacular event however, the convention has fulfilled the hopes of the most fervid party man, for the vast assemblage of delegates and spectators has twice been swept with whirlwind demonstrations, first for the leader who is about to be placed in nomination, and then for that other champion of Democracy, David B. Hill. But in actual accomplishment the day's work is confined to organization, with the speeches of the temporary chairman, Gov. Thomas, of Colorado, and permanent chairman, the Hon. James D. Richardson, the ap-floer of the convention.

The Silver Issue Raised.

The contest over the question of the monetary ratio, which has been brewing ever since the delegates to the convention began to assemble, found expression in the Committee on Resolutions when it assembled to-day. The committee was called together soon after the first adjournment of the convention, but it only elected its officers, adjourning to meet again at 3:40 p. m. Senator Jones, of Arkansas, was unanimously chosen chairman, and R. L. Metcalf, of Nebraska, secretary.

When the committee reassembled Mr. Metcalf presented the draft of a platform covering all questions of public interest, which draft all the members accepted as Mr. Bryan's expression upon this question. Mr. Garrard, of Georgia, also presented a platform, as did Mr. Van Wyck, of New York. All these documents took practically the same ground upon all questions except finances. Mr. Metcalf's declaration was for the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform in letter and spirit and it emphasized and reiterated specifically the declaration for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1. Both the other drafts simply reaffirmed the Chicago platform without reference to the ratio.

The reading of Mr. Van Wyck's document brought, Mr. Ball, of Texas, to his feet with the suggestion that the financial question should be immediately taken up and passed upon. He said it was apparent to all that there was no division upon any other platform question and that with the financial plank disposed of the preparation of the remainder of the platform would be merely a matter of clerical work.

This suggestion was adopted, and the committee immediately entered upon the effort to settle the question of ratio.

GARRETT TALKS.

Does Not Expect To Be Named For Governor.

Hon. Jas. B. Garrett was in the city yesterday and in an interview explained his position in the race for Governor.

"I am not," said he a candidate for Governor, nor any other office, in the sense that I am seeking the office.

If nominated I would accept, just as five hundred other men in the State in all probability would do.

I am doing nothing in the race and have about as much expectation of securing the nomination as I have of being called to the supreme command of the Boxers' army in China."

Mrs. H. D. Wallace went over to Dawson Springs yesterday to spend a few days.

A SISTER

Of Mr. J. R. Caudle Dies in Clarksville.

Mrs. C. A. Young, wife of the late Col. W. F. Young, of Clarksville, and sister of Mr. J. R. Caudle, of Julien, this county, died at the home of her son, W. B. Young, Mayor of Clarksville, Sunday, after a long illness. Concerning her demise the Clarksville Times-Journal says:

"Her death removes a prominent member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, a devoted mother and a devout Christian. She was born in Dinwiddie county, Virginia, in 1836, and was quite a belle in her younger days. She removed to Clarksville after her marriage, where she has resided ever since."

LITTLE SON'S

Remains Interred By Side of Its Mother.

The little six-months-old son of Mr. Robert Ford died in the city Monday night of cholera infantum. The remains were interred in Hope-well Tuesday beside those of its mother who died about three weeks ago.

Mr. Ford has the sympathy of a host of friends in his double bereavement.

WILL PROBATED.

Estate of Late H. H. Lunderman

The will of the late Henry H. Lunderman was probated yesterday. He left all his estate to his nephew, John N. Lunderman, and named the latter as executor without security. The will was written Feb. 25, 1898, and was witnessed by Messrs. J. B. Pearson and J. W. Cross.

Prof. C. T. Kirkpatrick, formerly Vice-Principal of the City High School, is visiting friends in the city. He has recently been unanimously elected to a position in the City Schools of Nashville.
