BECKHAM LEADS.

Has 363 Instructed Votes In 32 Counties.

Black Second With Seventeen Counties and One Hundred And Fifteen Votes.

Lexington, Ky., July 15.—The Democratic State Convention meets here on Thursday, and the present indications are that there will be a lively contest among the Democrats here for a successor to the late William Goebel. Gov. Beckham is strongly in the lead, according to the returns from the county conventions of yesterday, but it is denied that he has a majority, and it is stated that the field will combine against him.

Sunday's Returns. Louisville, Ky., July 14.—Returns from 68 of the 110 counties of Kentucky indicate the following strength of the respective Democratic candidates for governor in the Lexington convention on July 19:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate, Votes. Includes rows for Beckham (363), Black (115), Lewis (75), Smith (14), uninstructed (187), and unheard from (343).

There are contests from Kenton and Campbell counties, the regular delegations being uninstructed and the contestants being for Tarvin. There was a bitter fight in the Kenton county between Tarvin and the Goebel forces.

Many of the delegates from Louisville and Jefferson county, who are uninstructed, are known to be friendly to Beckham. It appears that Beckham has decidedly the best of it, though his nomination, from the returns that are in, is by no means certain.

It is significant that of the counties reporting from the Fourth congressional district, where Beckham lives and is best known, four went for him and five against him.

The counties reported are as follows: For Beckham—Muhlenberg, Caldwell, Ohio, Union, Todd, Nelson, Graves, Greenup, Lee, Pendleton, Fayette, Shelby, Hopkins, Marshall, Boyd, Bath, Larue, Harrison, Warren, Hardin, Monroe, Breckenridge, Henderson, Boone, Nicholas, Jessamine, Mason, Lyon, Ballard, Franklin, Christian, Livingston.

For Black—Wayne, Marion, Whitley, Clark, Anderson, Knox, Washington, Taylor, Rockcastle, Bell, Grayson, Garrard, Pulaski, Laurel, Lincoln, Montgomery, Carlisle.

For Lewis—Green, Woodford, Simpson, Metcalfe, Barren, Adair, Russell, Logan, Allen.

For Smith—Madison. Uninstructed—Robertson, McLean, Crittenden, Daviess, Hancock, Jefferson, Kenton, Campbell.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Christians 16 Votes Instructed for Beckham.

The county convention was held yesterday afternoon and the Beckham men were in complete control. Black carried three precincts, Hopkinsville No. 3, Casky and Dogwood, having 6 votes. The other 25 precincts with 58 votes went for Beckham.

The convention was quiet and free from excitement.

The following resolutions were adopted:

- 1.—Resolved, by the Democrats of Christian county, assembled in convention, that we heartily and unequivocally endorse the platform adopted and the ticket, Bryan and Stevenson, nominated at Kansas City. 2.—Resolved, that we recognize in Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, a true Democrat and endorse his wise and conservative administration. 3.—That the following delegates and alternates are hereby appointed to represent the county of Christian in the Democratic State Convention to be held in Lexington on July 19th:

Table with 2 columns: DELEGATES, ALTERNATES. Lists names like S. A. Edmunds, W. C. Cook, Geo. F. Campbell, T. P. Dunning, etc.

The delegates are instructed to vote as a unite for Beckham, and on all question coming up, and a majority of the delegates shall decide how said vote shall be cast.

It was further resolved that a modification of the election law is favored, giving the dominant parties representation on the election boards, and also favoring a return to the viva voca system of voting and the enactment of a general registration law.

The following table shows the vote by precincts and also the number present as far as could be secured:

Table with 4 columns: Precinct, Present, Delegates. Lists precincts like Hopkinsville No. 1, 2, 3, 4, Palmyra, Concord, Longview, etc.

PRESENT INDICATIONS.

Point to Very Large Crowd For Old Point.

Notwithstanding the fact the date of departure of the Old Point Comfort excursion is nearly a month off there is every assurance that the party this year will be as large, if not larger, than any previous occasion. Besides the large number of persons from this city that will go, there will be a good delegation from Cadiz, several from Gracey, a half dozen or more from Adams, Tenn., about the same number from each of the neighborhoods of Casky, Pembroke, Trenton, Elkton, Church Hill, Julien, Longview, Fairview, Princeton and Dawson. Henderson, Owensboro and Paducah will each have a full representation and Clarksville promises the largest crowd ever sent from that point.

Sleeping car diagrams will be sent out in a few days, when those desiring reservations can secure them by application to the proper authorities. It would be well for those desiring to take advantage of this most pleasant of all trips to make application for sleeping car space as early as practicable, in order that there may be no rush at the last moment.

ROYAL The Absolutely Pure BAKING-POWDER is the baking powder of general use, its sale exceeding that of all other baking powders combined.

Royal Baking Powder has not its counterpart at home or abroad. Its qualities, which make the bread more healthful and the cake of finer appearance and flavor, are peculiar to itself and are not constituent in other leavening agents.

Great efforts are made to sell alum baking powders under the plea that they are so many cents a pound cheaper than Royal. The admission that they are cheaper made is an admission that they are inferior.

REV. E. P. CROWE.

After a Protracted Spree Quits The Ministry.

Rev. E. P. Crowe of the Main street Methodist Church, South, of Owensboro, Ky., was in Evansville three days on a protracted spree last week.

Returning home Saturday, he published the following card:

"I want to make a full and concise statement in connection with the report from Evansville. I have used whisky medicinally and upon the advice and prescription of several physicians for four or five years, and up to the time of my residence in Owensboro last October discontinued it, substituting bitters of various sorts. Since the investigation last winter I have abandoned the use of it altogether, until recently while in Evansville I stopped at the Acme Hotel, and after eating, feeling that I needed whisky the dining room and bar-room being contiguous, I went into the bar-room and purchased some. I am sorry I have caused such a condition of things to be published in the daily press. My physical condition has been such in the past that whisky has brought me into questionable circumstances. I want to be honest in all my transactions with my church and mankind in general. I purpose to surrender my credentials as a minister of the gospel, and therefore no trial will be necessary. I do this with an honest purpose. I am not posing as a candidate for public sympathy, but will say that if everything I have endured since my residence in Owensboro were known there might be a tempering of the public verdict. I only ask from all time to retrieve every inch of ground I have lost. E. P. Crowe."

ALL SAFE.

Not a Single Missionary Killed in the Tien Tsin District.

All Sorts of Hairbreadth Escapes and Grand Stand Heroism.

New York, July 13.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Chefoo July 9 says:

Great joy reigns in Chefoo, inspired by the safe arrival of every white missionary and every native preacher in the Tien Tsin district hitherto unaccounted for.

The steamer Shinfing, of Chinese registry, but officered by Americans and English, brought in the refugees to the number of more than 200. They report that more than 15,000 refugees to Tien Tsin and Taku have been rescued from certain death by the allied forces of the Powers.

The missionaries who arrived by the Shinfing are: Perkins, Crawford, Lewis, Blalock, Crawford, Hudson, Dawes, Tedder, Parth, Burnham, Fitch, Farles, Parker, Hayes, Horton, Moon (Boon,) Lowe, Thompson, Luce, Irwin, Mateer, Hartwell, Print, Stephen, Dutton, Owen, Neal and Cooper.

Every missionary in Shantung province and every native preacher of the Methodist, Tien Tsin district is now accounted for.

The steamer sailed from an obscure coastwise port, with her destination secret. The Rev. P. D. Bergen, one of the refugees, made a gallant rescue of foreign miners near his station at Tsin Tao, 160 miles southwest of Chefoo. Mrs. Bergen and Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Neal are among the refugees arriving on the Shinfing. At Feng Tsz three Chinese converts were killed.

Mrs. Crosetti, of Wei Hein, brought on with her party Davies and Johnson. Fleming also escaped, Watts and Fenton made a gallant ride to Taku to bring the news of the critical conditions in outlying Shantung villages. They swam the Pei Ho river twice and were fired upon by the natives at every village they passed. Hopkins, Parth, Luce and Ewing left for Japan by to-day's steamer. The Rev. Cornwall, of Chefoo, has greatly distinguished himself by making three trips into the interior to rescue missionaries.

The English mission at Cheng Chown has been looted and burned.
