COLLEGE RECEPTION.

Novel Way to Replenish The Society Library.

Each Guest Will Represent a Book and Take the Book Represented.

There will be a reception at Bethel Female College this evening, the object of which is to secure books for the college library. The plan is to have each guest bring a book and dress in such a way as to suggest the name of the book.

The following poetical invitation sets forth the idea more plainly:

To The Patrons and Friends of Bethel Female College:

In Society Hall, next Friday Eve,
Twenty-Third November, I Believe,
The Patrons and Friends of B. F. C.
Will pass the Time right Merrily.
For the Girls of the Kalozetic Society
Have contrived a Plan, by way of Variety,
To secure, in Spite of Surly Looks,
A Library Stocked with Useful Books.
So Now, Dear Friends, let each one Come,
And kindly Bring a Book from Home,
If possible, too—to add to the Fun,
Please make an Effort, every One,
Either by Dress, or Word, or Look,
To represent the Name of a Book.
Judges wise will Then agree,
To Whom belong the Prizes, Three.

These receptions at the college are always greatly enjoyed by the younger set, since the party of forty or fifty pretty girls act as the hostesses, and this the first of the present session will undoubtedly be largely attended.

As each guest is expected to take a book, the library will be greatly replenished.

The young people are now taxing their wits to decide what books to represent and how to represent them.

Kentucky Hog Men.

The Kentucky Swine Breeders' Association will be held in Louisville, Dec. 11. An interesting program has been arranged, and the meeting promises to be one of great interest to all concerned in hog raising.

If the desire to see the Pan-American Exposition is proportionate to that of exhibitors to be seen in its exhibits, many millions of people will be put off at Buffalo between the 1st of May and the 1st of November, 1901.

SIMPLE DEVICE

For Telephoning Without Wires Tried in Minnesota.

Inventor of the Scheme a Switch-board Operator in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Minn., 18.—An experiment in wireless telephoning, which was tried at Powderhorn Lake Sunday afternoon, proved a decided success, and May take the place of the old system of wires. The originator of the idea is J. C. Kelsey, who is in charge of the switch-board at the Northwestern Telephone Exchange Company's building, and with him were five other employees of the company.

The method is a very simple one. On either side of the lake they strung a wire about 100 feet in length, the two being parallel. They were above the ground and fastened with grounding pins to insure better induction. An ordinary local telephone transmitter and receiver were attached to either wire.

When the transmitting circuit is cut in, it induces the current into the receiving circuit, this cut induces the circuit into the transmitting circuit. In this way the advantage of both circuits is secured without the use of wire, and, as a result, the conversation can be carried on much more easily and with better results.

The wires to which the instruments were attached run parallel, and there were two currents in operation all the time. The one going from one end of the wire to the other, and the second flowing to its affinity, as it were, that is, the parallel wire.

The use of the system is not confined to water. It is available on land if good grounding facilities can be secured. The experimenters say that they could easily converse a distance of twenty miles, even with the crude instruments used to-day.

A Great Medicine.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by all Druggists.

KLONDIKE GOLD OUTPUT

For 1900, It is Estimated at $20,000,000, an Increase Over '99.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 21.—Defferin Patuelle, chief clerk of the gold commissioner's office at Dawson, estimates the past season's Klondike output of gold at $20,000,000, as against $17,000,000 for 1899. Next year's gold output of the Klondike, he thinks, will reach $25,000,000.

Of this year's shipments of gold, United States Consul McCook has records of $14,400,000.

MAY SURRENDER.

Story That Absconder Brown Is Near-By.

Rumor That He Has Agreed To Give Himself Up and Make a Clean Breast.

Newport, Ky., Nov. 21.—Frank Brown, the defaulting bookkeeper of the German National Bank, is expected to surrender. The expectation took the form of preparation to-night. At the Brown home, on Third street, no statement of the rumored surrender could be obtained, but lights were kept burning and members of the family were awaiting something.

United States Commissioner Leonard kept himself in telephonic communication and was in readiness for any development in the local cause celebre.

According to the rumors that arise here Brown has consented to return and pay the penalty of his default. The expectancy is acute, as it is expected that should Brown make a full confession he would perhaps implicate others of guilty knowledge of his stealings if not actual particeps criminis.

Steps toward a reorganization of the German National Bank of Newport are under way, with a prospect of new blood all round. The stockholders met yesterday. They expressed confidence in the directors, and a committee was appointed to ascertain what amount of money would be required to enable resumption, and upon what conditions depositors and patrons will continue, and what proportion of the deposits they will leave with the bank.

STOLE $201,000.

Assistant Cashier of Newport Bank Steals On a Large Scale.

Newport, Ky., Nov. 19.—United States Bank examiner Tucker has announced officially that Frank M. Brown, the assistant cashier of the German National Bank, is missing and that a partial examination shows that Brown is short about $201,000.

Mr. Tucker on Sunday took possession of the bank and posted a notice that it would remain closed pending an examination.

Brown has been with the bank 18 years, and it is stated by the experts that his speculations extended back as far as 10 years ago. The capital stock of the bank is only $100,000. Brown's shortage is double that amount and more than the reserve fund and all the assets, including the real estate.

The First National Bank of Newport was wrecked two years ago by cashier Youtsey, and now with the German National Bank closed, Newport has only one bank left.

For two weeks there have been rumors that Brown was short, and some depositors withdrew their accounts. Three weeks ago the bank examiners made a good statement of the bank's condition, and the officers and directors allayed suspicion by referring to the report of this examination and to their statement.

DECLINES

To Surrender The Little Gant Boy.

Mother of the Child Seems to Have the Best of a Peculiar Legal Situation.

T. L. Gant, of Hopkinsville, came here yesterday to get possession of his six-year-old boy, in accordance with the award of Special Judge Morrison in the habeas corpus proceeding. The court's decision was that beginning November 20 the father should have custody of the child for six weeks, to be returned to the mother, Mrs. Mabel Young-Gant-Davidson, for eight weeks, and so on alternately. This decision was apparently acceptable to both sides and there was no apprehension of trouble over it until Gant came and claimed the child for his turn. Mrs. Davidson declined to let the child go, and under a peculiar state of legal circumstances there seems no way of enforcing the order of the court in the habeas corpus proceedings by means of a rule for contempt. Judge Morrison, who tried the case, was acting as special judge, and his functions have ceased. Circuit court has adjourned and there is no tribunal at present which could issue a rule for contempt. Mrs. Davidson's attorney claims that the order in the habeas corpus proceeding is void and cannot be enforced.

Mrs. Davidson, it is claimed, is ill at the home of her uncle, Mr. Isaac Spillman.

Mr. Gant declines to state what further steps he will take in the matter, but says it has not ended and that he will yet gain possession of his boy, now held by his former wife. He stated at Hopkinsville the other day he would bring a suit in equity and produce such evidence as would take the child away from the mother.—Owensboro Messenger.

NO QUORUM ELECTED.

Less Than Half of the 28 Precincts Choose Committeeman.

There are still very incomplete returns from the election of Democratic precinct committeemen last Monday. In more than half of the precincts no meetings have been reported and at no place was there more than a dozen people present. So far as heard from the following committeemen were chosen:

- Hopkinsville No. 1—Frank Rives, re-elected.
 - Hopkinsville, No. 2—Hunter Wood, Jr.
 - Hopkinsville, No. 3—Geo. E. Gary, re-elected.
 - Hopkinsville, No. 4—F. H. Bassett.
 - Palmyra—G. V. Green.
 - South Pembroke—B. J. Garnett.
 - North Pembroke—Jno. B. Chilton, re-elected.
 - Lafayette—Walter E. Garner, re-elected.
 - West Crofton—W. H. Martin, re-elected.
 - Casky—Thomas Green.
 - Brent's Shop—Chas. L. Dade.
 - Newstead—E. M. Jones.
- The Committee will meet Monday and attempt to organize if a quorum is present. Fifteen members constitute a quorum.

William McKinley Defeated.

William McKinley was defeated in Delaware county. He is only one of the President's cousins that live in this vicinity.

This William McKinley is a Democrat unlike his distinguished relative, but he has political ambitions. One of these was to be assessor of the Washington township, Delaware county. He was defeated by ten votes. His successful opponent was oddly named Lincoln—Lincoln Larrue.

William McKinley, Democrat, is popular and many Republicans voted for him.

He voted for Mr. Bryan and is sorry that McKinley won. He says that the president is about the only original Republican in the family.

The State Election commission will meet Dec. 3 to officially canvass the returns of the November election. Charles B. Poyntz and John A. Fulton are the members, with a vacancy to be filled when the Board meets. Judge James Breathitt, of this city, is tipped as the third member.

"Pull up!" That's the counsel very often given by a well meaning person to a friend who is slipping down the road of alcoholism.

And when the answer comes "I can't stop," the man is perhaps reproached for the cowardice of that phrase, "I can't."

But intemperance is only a form of disease, and there may come a time in the progress of any disease when it can't be stopped. That's what we mean when we talk of "galloping consumption." It's like a horse running away with us. We can't stop it.

Strength will stop the wildest horse. Strength is the great necessity in the stopping of disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured thousands who had obstinate cough, bronchitis, weak lungs, spitting of blood, emaciation, and similar ailments which if neglected or unskillfully treated lead to consumption. It cures by strengthening the lungs and giving them power to throw off disease.

"I had been troubled with bronchitis and catarrh of the head for eight years; had severe cough and at times great difficulty in breathing," writes J. W. Howerton, Esq., of Bigfall, Hancock Co., Tenn. "A portion of the time my appetite was poor and part of the time I was unable to do anything. I had been treated by our best country physicians for several years but with little benefit. I had been reading about your medicine for several years but hadn't much faith in it. Last spring I concluded that I would try it and before I had taken one-third of a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' I began to mend. I continued taking it until I had taken seven bottles. Now I feel like a new man and can do as hard a day's work as any man. I advise all of my friends who are diseased to take Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

IT'S A GEM.

Out a Dull Sentence in the Whole Lecture.

In commenting on Hon. Alf Taylor's lecture, which will be delivered at Holland's Opera House next Thursday evening, the editor of the Greenville, South Carolina, Daily News says:

"Poetry and Pearls is a gem, a masterpiece, a work of art, adounding in lofty sentiment, noble thought, chaste language, glorious imagery and soul stirring oratory. It is elevating in its tone, pure in its ideals, sublime in its conception, and ennobling in its influence. Alf Taylor is a logician, a philosopher, an orator and a poet. On the lecture platform he has no superior."

The Dublin, Georgia, Courier Dispatch says:

"From the beginning to the close of his lecture, 'Poetry and Pearls,' Mr. Taylor demonstrated that what he does not know about poetry and metaphor, allegory and simile is not worth knowing. There was not a dull sentence in the whole lecture and not a word of it but was more than eloquently spoken."
