MRS. BECKHAM

Stricken With Septic Fever Tuesday.

Louisville Specialists Summoned By Special Train—Child Doing Well.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 22.—The wife of Gov. Beckham lies near to death in the Executive Mansion. She was stricken with complications resulting from the birth of a daughter last week. Specialists have been summoned from Louisville, and they, with members of her immediate family and relatives, are at her bedside.

The Change for the Worse.

The change for the worse in Mrs. Beckham's condition took place Tuesday afternoon, when a rise in her temperature and slight fever was noticed by the trained nurses in attendance at the bedside.

The attending physicians are Drs. E. E. Hume, of this city, and C. C. Owens, of Maysville, and those called in for consultation are Drs. A. M. Cartledge and Frank C. Simpson, of Louisville. The Louisville physicians arrived shortly after noon and remained constantly in the sick room during the day. Dr. Simpson left on a late night train for Louisville because of other engagements, but Dr. Cartledge will remain until there is a change in the condition of the patient.

The child is doing well.

Better Yesterday.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 22.—Mrs. Beckham is better this afternoon.

ELECTION COMMISSIONERS.

State Board Will Name County Boards Monday.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 21.—The State Election Commission meets on Monday next to name the County Commissioners in the counties of the State. In twenty-four counties the Democratic Committees have failed as yet to send their recommendations. The counties are Bourbon, Breathitt, Carlisle, Carroll, Christian, Cumberland, Elliott, Fulton, Grant, Jackson, Jefferson, Kenton, Knott, Logan, Magoffin, Martin, Meade, Metcalfe, Morgan, Rockcastle, Shelby, Taylor, Washington and Wayne.

The recommendations from all but two counties on the Republican side were sent here by the party machine operators at Louisville. Letters urging that action be taken immediately in the delinquent counties are being sent out this morning.

RIVER HORROR.

Boat Goes Down And 18 Lives Lost Near Paducah.

Several People Well Known Here Among the List of Dead.

The steamer City of Golconda, plying between Paducah and Elizabethtown, Ill., was struck by a squall during a storm about 7 o'clock Monday night as she was en route to Paducah and turned over in ten feet of water, six miles above the city, as she was going into Crowell's Landing.

The disaster occurred as supper was being served, and many of the seventy-five passengers were in the cabin. The wind struck the boat without warning and there was no time for those on the inside to escape. Captain Jesse Bauer and Pilot A. A. Peck were the last to leave the boat and swim to shore. They saved several of those struggling in the water.

THE DEATH LIST.

Miss Lizzie Graham, of Grahamville, Ky.

Miss Trixie Grimes, of Grahamville, Ky.

Mrs. W. A. Hogan and three children, Ira, Wallace and Lucile, 2300 Broadway, Paducah.

Mrs. David Adams, Smithland, Ky.

Miss Lacy Barnett, Livingston county, Ky.

John Meacham, Paducah, Ky.

Watts Davis, farmer, Livingston county, Ky.

Clarence Slayden, white, Lolo, Ky.

Wallace Bennett, white, Tulu, Ky.

D. Jackson, colored, deck passenger, Paducah.

Will Woods, rouster, colored, Golconda, Ill.

George Washington, rouster, colored, Golconda, Ill.

Horace Rondeau, rouster, Golconda, Ill.

George Sansbury, colored rouster, Golconda, Ill.

One unknown white man and one negro man.

Miss Lizzie Graham was a sister of Charley Graham, county clerk of Livingston, and Miss Grimes was her pretty little niece 16 years old.

Miss Lacy Barnett was a pretty and bright young schoolgirl who was being educated at Bethel Female College. She had left home to make a visit before coming here Sept. 2 to enter school. She was an orphan, 17 years old, a tall and slender blonde with curly hair and blue eyes. She was worth $200,000 in her own name. Her body was one of the first to be taken from the wreck.

The first rumor to reach Paducah was that Hon. Jno. K. Hendrick was on board and among the lost, but this proved to be untrue.

PHIL BOULWARE A SURVIVOR.

Mr. Philip Boulware, traveling man for George Rock & Son, was on the steamer at the time of the wreck. "I was talking to Mrs. Hogan on the guards of the boat when the storm came up," said Mr. Boulware to a Paducah Democrat reporter.

"When the rain began I went into the cabin with Mrs. Hogan, but in a short while went out again with Mr. Archibald Lewis, a traveling man for Geo. D. Barnes & Company, of St. Lewis. The wind did not seem unusually high, nor the clouds particularly threatening, but when we went to the side of the boat and looked over I discovered that it was leaning quite a good deal to that side. I called Mr. Lewis' attention to the fact, but before I knew anything else the steamer had capsized and I found myself struggling in the water. I swam around and caught hold of the post of the stairway, which gave away with me and another post proved no more secure. The next I knew I was on top of the hull of the boat, with the pilot and one

BUSINESS DEAL.

Two Hardware Stores Consolidated By A. J. Meadow.

Messrs. Thompson & Bassett yesterday sold their stock of hardware to Mr. A. J. Meadow, who has been in business in the same line for eighteen months next door to Clark & Twyman. Mr. Meadow is to-day engaged in moving his stock from this stand to the Thompson & Bassett store further up the street and both stocks will be consolidated.

Mr. C. A. Thompson will retire from business after a successful career covering more than 30 years. His partner and son-in-law, Mr. Frank H. Bassett, the Democratic Fusion nominee for representative, will put in his time prosecuting his canvass from now until November and expects to spend next winter in Frankfort.

other man, a farmer. Singular to say, the farmer was perfectly dry, and even in the excitement of the movement I noticed it and asked him how it happened. 'Well,' he said, 'I just kept climbing.' "I looked over the side of the boat and saw a man struggling in the water, and reached down and caught hold of him. Others came to my assistance and when we rescued him we discovered that he was paralyzed. I saw no one else in the water; those in the cabin had gone down, never to rise again. "Most of the survivors, including myself, were carried to the Illinois shore in skiffs and brought Paducah on the steamer Mary N., arriving here about 11 o'clock."

I can sell farmers coal cheaper than they can haul it from the mines. Come in and see me about it.
