The Democratic State Campaign Committee decided to open headquarters at once in Louisville. Percy Haley was chosen secretary.

Lord Kitchener's threat to shoot Boer prisoners of war after the 15th inst. has probably not been carried out. On the 17th the plucky Boers captured several hundred of the British and are prepared to do a little shooting themselves when the massacre of prisoners begins.

The President has appointed Col. James M. Bell, Eighth cavalry, and president of the Military Board of Review, to be a Brigadier General, vice Brig. Gen. Ludlow, deceased. Gen. Bell will retire about October 1, thus leaving a vacancy for another appointment.

The Schley court of inquiry resumed its sittings at Washington Saturday and several witnesses were heard. Admiral Higginson expressed an opinion unfavorable to Schley in response to a question from the court and a lively argument ensued, the court withdrawing the question.

The Paducah News was on Saturday consolidated with the Paducah Democrat. The paper will hereafter be known as the News-Democrat, and the consolidated paper will be issued from the Democrat office. The News office will be operated only as a job office. Urey Weedon will own a controlling interest in the new company, with David M. Flournoy another large stockholder. The Visitor, the Sunday edition of the News, will be discontinued. The deal will make

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. K. T. Snyder, Troy, Ohio.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills will rid you of it, locally and permanently, as they have rid thousands.

the News-Democrat: one of the strongest dailies in the State outside of Louisville. The daily will still be an afternoon paper.

Gov. Beckham is being severely censured for commuting the death sentence of a murderer named Holly Strutton. The Louisville Critic closes a strong editorial with these words: "When the knife ceases to be the arbiter of every petty dispute; when the pistol ceases to be the court of last resort; when the professional assassin ceases to be regarded as a hero, and when the pistol ceases to be the court of last resort; when the professional assassin ceases to be regarded as a hero, and when judges, juries and governors will be found brave enough to do their duty, then, and not until then, will Kentucky take its place among civilized communities."

The coming season of The Century Magazine will be "A Year of American Humor." Contributions have already been engaged from the best known American writers of humorous stories and sketches, including Mark Twain, F. P. Dunne ("Mr. Dooley"), Frank R. Stockton, Oliver Herford, George Ade, Edward W. Townsend ("Chimmie Fadden"), Ruth McEnery Stuart, Gelett Burgess, Tudor Jenks, Charles Battell Loomis, Joel Chandler Harris and others. Attention will be paid during the year to American humor of the past. In the November Century Professor W. P. Trent of Columbia University will write "A Retrospect of American Humor," for the illustration of which The Century has procured portraits of nearly two score of the best known of the older humorists, including "Petroleum V. Nasby," John G. Saxe, "O. K. Philander Doesticks," "Sam Slick," and "Artemus Ward." There will be during the year a number of contributions from new humorous writers, and articles reminiscent of those of the past.

BACHELOR MAIDS

Will Surrender Their Charter and Quit Business.

The two principal social organizations of the city, the "As You Like Its" and the "Bachelor Maids," have been consolidated. The difficulty of keeping the members of the latter organization eligible to remain, had a good deal to do with the move.

There were sixteen members of the As You Like It Club, nearly all married. The Bachelor Maids had twelve members, but several of them were unwilling to pledge themselves to remain "bachelors"

Let it Alone.

Scott's Emulsion is not a good medicine for fat folks. We have never tried giving it to a real fat person. We don't dare. You see Scott's Emulsion builds new flesh. Fat people don't want it. Strong people don't need it.

But if you are thin Scott's Emulsion is the medicine for you. It doesn't tire you out. There is no strain. The work is all natural and easy. You just take the medicine and that's all there is to it.

The next thing you know you feel better—you eat better—and you weigh more. It is a quiet worker.

He Owes His Life to the Forethought of a Companion.

While on a camping trip in Webster county, Mr. S. I. Stump, of Normantown, W. Va., had a severe attack of bloody flux. He says, "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the forethought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Moral.—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamship, and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home on a journey without it. For sale by all druggists.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Hallway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by all druggists.
