

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."
J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Three sizes: 25c, enough for an ordinary cold; 50c, just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard colds, etc.; $1, most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand.
J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

THE ATHENAEUM

Met. in Monthly Meeting Last Night—Good Program.

The program at the Athenaeum last evening was as follows:
Rev. Edmund Harrison, paper on "The Sanctity of the Home, the Stability of the Government."
H. H. Abernathy paper on "The Smart Set."
J. T. Hanbery, paper "The Law as a Profession."
An interesting general discussion followed the reading of the papers, all of which showed careful preparation.

Of Interest to Women.

Women who have themselves suffered from the evil effects of constipation and indigestion will be interested in the following letter from a father whose daughter was given up to die by two physicians:
"My daughter has suffered from indigestion for the past five years and has tried nearly everything that she could hear of for such trouble. She was confined to her bed when she began taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and after taking one 50 cent bottle she is able to walk a mile at a time and during the day yesterday walked 3 1/2 miles. I feel like praising Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin because two doctors told me my daughter could not get well and I feel that she is on a fair road to permanent relief.—Respectfully, J. H. M. Crocker, Nixon, Tenn., Aug. 6, 1900.
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in fifty cent and $1.00 bottles, under a positive guarantee, by all druggists.

GREAT SUCCESS.

Guthrie Fair in Full Blast With Good Attendance.

The Guthrie Fair began Wednesday and will continue four days, closing tomorrow evening. Large crowds are attending and the various features are being greatly enjoyed. A special train leaves Hopkinsville at 9 o'clock each day. One fare round trip. The largest crowd of the week will be on hand tomorrow.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Saved His Boy's Life.

"I believe I saved my (nine year old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis. "He was so choked up with croup that he could not speak. I gave it to him freely until he vomited and in a short time he was all right." For sale by C. K. Wyly.

Mr. Shanklin's Announcement.

Mr. W. H. Shanklin, the Hopkinsville monument dealer, inserts an advertisement in this issue of the Kentuckian and attention is called to same. Mr. Shanklin announces that he can save the purchaser 25 per cent, agents' commission, over foreign competitors, and invites an inspection of his stock. He has some beautiful designs and carries in stock a full line of monumental goods. He also calls attention to the matter of freight, quite an item, which can be saved by making purchases of him. Read his ad. for full particulars.

Strayed or Stolen

SPEAKING MONDAY.

Col. Hendrick Will Open Gubernatorial Campaign.

Only Announced Candidate in the Race Up to This Time. Be Sure to Hear Him.

Col. John K. Hendrick will speak at the Court House at 1:30 p. m. next Monday, opening what he promises will be an energetic campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor, which election comes off next year.

Col. Hendrick is easily one of the ablest lawyers in Kentucky and abundantly qualified to uphold the banner of his party on the stump no matter how hard the fight may be. He is honest, upright and clean and if elected Governor he would give the people a model administration.

Let everybody hear him who can possibly do so.

A new remedy for biliousness is now for sale at R. C. Hardwick's drug store. It is called Chamberlain's stomach and liver Tablets. It gives quick relief and will prevent the attack if given as soon as the first indication of the disease appears. Price 25c per box. Samples free. R. C. Hardwick.

NATURAL RESOURCES

Plus Outside Capital the Key to Our Future Success.

A New Era Has Dawned and Will Mean Much For Our Future Prosperity. Business Men a Unit in Promoting a New Enterprise.

The future prosperity of Hopkinsville and its people depend upon the natural resources at the people's command and the amount of ginger they are able to inject into its enterprises. No matter how resourceful its natural advantages are, the fact remains that unless advantage is taken of them, success cannot be achieved. If all the wealth of the world were buried at your feet, what would it avail if you did not stop to uncover it and apply the same to your own advantage or to the natural welfare of your fellow men.

"Man's race is short," but in that brief span are consummated the many ups and downs that go to constitute success or failure. Every man is the creator of his own destiny, predestination is no longer classed among the accepted theories of either religion, politics or business. Men who succeed do so by force of their own individual efforts and not by the skillful use of the talisman called "luck." Opportunity grasped at the proper moment is what can be considered the logical reason for every man's success. Some grasp it blindly, others systematically and methodically, both are classed success, the latter more often than the former.

The wonderful success that has followed the men at the head of the Consolidated Alpine Gold and Silver Mining Co., of Evansville, is something likened unto the man that fell into the river and came up with a fish, but such is not the case. They have succeeded because they have worked day and night to carry it forward to that point when it would be classed among the successful business ventures of their native city. When they took hold of the property it had remained inactive for fifteen years; water had stood in the shaft and levels until the underground development failed to hold the same and it ran out of the mouth. Hundreds of people passed it by, may had wondered why somebody had not resurrected the old Alpine. Everybody familiar with its past history knew it had produced ore and plenty of it, but in the scramble for something new, the old was forgotten and neglected as is often the case. Finally, one day two men whose fathers had worked in the Alpine years ago, decided to unwater the old shaft and see what it contained. With limited means at their command, they commenced the dangerous and tedious task. Slowly, but surely the steady throb of the pump lowered the water's level until at last it was comparatively safe for a man to climb down its rickety timbers.

They saw unmistakable evidence of where the old time miners had removed vast quantities of ore just 156 feet from the surface. The smelter returns were consulted and it was found that $41,000.00 had been taken out of the east second level in silver alone, the vein without a doubt was a true fissure and was a monster in size, many places being 8 feet wide. They realized that with their limited capital it was of no use to them. Fire came one night and burned the old shaft house to the ground. Prior to this, however, Thomas A. Crow, a life long and personal friend of one of our sister city's fellow townsmen had interested himself in the property. As the result of their combined efforts, an Evansville company was organized and the property bought Feb. 21st, 1902. What they have accomplished in that short time is remarkable, the old shaft house has been replaced by a modern, substantial and convenient structure, the old shaft and levels cleaned out and retimbered from top to bottom, the old engine and hoist consigned to the scrap pile and in its place a 40 H. P. Atlas boiler and double cylinder hoist capable of sinking a thousand feet with ease installed. In just sixty days from the time the property was bought, the shaft house and shaft had been built and retimbered, machinery installed, steam raised, and the work of development commenced. Since this time day and night midst darkness and dawn, the work has progressed until the property is almost on a self sustaining basis. The vein has been followed down another hundred feet and east and west levels from the shaft are being driven.

The company are so satisfied with the showing, that they have recently installed another 40 H. P. boiler and a Norwalk air compressor with machine drills which involved a considerable outlay of money. However, with the added machinery, development work can be pushed at the rate of 150 per month instead of 35 or 40 as has been done in the past by hand; and as a consequence the ore bodies can be opened up and a production started in much quicker time, thus rapidly placing the property on a dividend paying basis.

That the Alpine has the ore, there is no longer any doubt; its ore bodies are proved to be large and rich, and with development will make handsome returns for all concerned. This section of the country has long been in need of just such a thing as the Alpine to furnish outside capital to its people, and when dividends commence to roll in to the extent of from $50,000 to $100,000 per year, it will mean that much more to our general circulation and will benefit all branches of society in like proportion.

Let everybody join in wishing success to the Alpine.

A great many of our fellow townsmen have bought stock in the Alpine. The high standing of the men at its head and the fact that the money realized from the sale of stock will be spent judiciously in developing the property, has caused Messrs. Walter F. Garrett & Co. to accept the agency for the company here and throughout the State. They will be pleased at any time to present the merits of the company to prospective investors.

The net profits of the Eks carnival at Owensboro were $1500.

Then you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25c. Samples free at R. C. Hardwick's drug store.

A PASTOR'S WIFE CURED OF PELVIC CATARRH.

She Suffered for Years and Felt Her Case Was Hopeless—Cured by Peruna.

Mrs. Anna B. Fleharty.

MRS. ANNA B. FLEHARTY, recent Superintendent of the W. C. T. U. headquarters, at Galesburg, Ill., was for ten years one of the leading women there. Her husband, when living, was first President of the Nebraska Wesleyan University, at Lincoln, Neb.

In a letter written from 401 Sixty-seventh street, W., Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Fleharty says the following in regard to Peruna:

"Having lived a very active life as wife and working partner of a busy minister, my health failed me a few years ago. I lost my husband about the same time, and gradually I seemed to lose health and spirit. My daughter is a confirmed invalid, and we both felt great need of an invigorator.

"One of my neighbors advised me to try Peruna. A bottle was immediately secured and a great change took place in my daughter's as well as in my own health. Our appetites improved very greatly, the digestion seemed much helped, and restful sleep soon improved us, so that we seemed like new women.

"I would not be without Peruna for ten times its cost."—Mrs. Anna B. Fleharty.

What used to be called female diseases by the medical profession is now called pelvic catarrh. It has been found by experience that catarrhal diseases of the pelvic organs are the cause of most cases of female disease.

Dr. Hartman was among the first of America's great physicians to make this discovery. For forty years he has been treating diseases peculiar to women, and long ago he reached the conclusion that a woman entirely free from catarrhal affection of these organs would not be subject to female disease. He therefore began using Peruna for these cases and found it so admirably adapted to their permanent cure that Peruna has now become the most famous remedy for female diseases ever known. Every where the women are using it and praising it. Peruna is not a palliative simply; it cures by removing the cause of female disease.

Dr. Hartman has probably cured more women of female ailments than any other living physician. He makes these cures simply by using and recommending Peruna.

Mrs. E. L. Brown, 329 Elliott street, Memphis, Tenn., writes:

"I suffered for several years with headache brought on by nervous prostration. I was also afflicted with insomnia. I would get up in the morning more weary than when I retired and I used to dread the approach of night. Peruna came into my home as a welcome guest, and within three short months I was like another woman. I have now enjoyed perfect health for over a year, and those who have suffered as I did will know how happy I am."—Mrs. E. L. Brown.

Mrs. Esther M. Milner, De Graff, Ohio, writes:

"I was a terrible sufferer from female weakness and had the headache continuously. I was not able to do my household work for myself and husband. I wrote you and described my condition as near as possible. You recommended Peruna. I took four bottles and was completely cured. I think Peruna a wonderful medicine."—Mrs. Esther M. Milner.

Congressman Thad. M. Mahon, of Chambersburg, Pa., writes:

"I take pleasure in commending your Peruna as a substantial tonic and a good catarrh remedy."—T. M. Mahon. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
