

Anderson's Millinery Opening

To-Morrow, Wednesday and Thursday.

The greatest performance yet given in Millinery. Greater in artistic beauty, in originality & greater in display of creative genius.

"APPROPRIATE GIFTS."

J. H. ANDERSON & CO.

OPENING THURSDAY, MARCH 24.

Means complete knowledge for the Spring and Summer Styles, and full confidence in your purchase from us.

New York Patterns and Ready-to-Wear Hats.

Celebrated Gage Hats, the Randa and Madam A. A. Wallman. Latest Styles always the Cheapest.

You Are Cordially Invited.

TEMPLE OF FASHION,

Miss S. B. Hooser, Prop.

No. 105 South Main Street.

"Just Dreams."

That's what a lady said the other day when selecting a tie for a gentleman friend of her brothers'.

The selection of the right thing in a tie is a very matter here just now.

ALL THE CORRECT

SHAPES

Of the Season.

Silks that are different from the common sort of Neckwear.

Come see some of the "Dreams," and we will sell a tie or two.

J. H. Anderson
ONE PRICE STORE

RIGID INSPECTION

Of Soldier Boys By Visiting Officers Saturday Night

Good Impression Made By The Officers and Men of Company D.

Company D. underwent a very rigid official inspection at the armory Saturday night. The inspection was conducted by Maj. Edgar W. Howe, of the Twenty-seventh infantry of the United States army, and Col. Noel Gaines, state inspector general. The inspection was held under the rules of the recent Dick bill passed by congress. Maj. Howe is from Fort Sheridan, near Chicago, and his report will be made to Maj. Gen. Bates. Col. Gaines' report will be made to the Governor.

Lieut. Col. Jouett Henry, Maj. E. B. Bassett and Adj. C. H. Tandy were present. Capt. Clifton Long was in command of the company.

Maj. Howe made a brief address to the men and explained the purposes of the inspection, which was very searching. Army blankets, knives and forks, personal appearance and clothing all came in for examination. The boys stood the inspection remarkably well.

FIFER-THOMPSON.

Youthful Mannington Couple Will be Married To-Day.

Mr. Henry T. Fifer and Miss Mary J. Thompson of near Mannington, will be married this morning. The Rev. W. F. Crick will perform the ceremony.

The groom is a popular farmer and is only seventeen years old.

His bride is a daughter of Mrs. Louise Thompson. She is only sixteen years of age.

UNION MEETING

At the Tabernacle to Begin in Ten Days.

Evangelist Ham Will Come With a Great Reputation—Noted Singer to Aid.

The union meeting at the Tabernacle will begin on Sunday, April 3, as heretofore announced. Rev. Mordecai Ham, the eloquent and widely known young evangelist, will do the preaching. He will be assisted by competent choir leaders and the music will be a leading feature of the meeting.

Wherever Mr. Ham has been his meetings have been attended by great results. He is a powerful pulpit orator and never fails to arouse great religious enthusiasm. All of the churches of the city will take part in the union meeting.

ILLNESS WAS BRIEF.

Mrs. Lucy Davenport a Victim of Pneumonia.

Mrs. Lucy Davenport, widow of the late John Davenport, died Friday at her home near Sinking Fork. She was ill only a few days and death was due to pneumonia. She was 73 years old and a member of the Methodist church. The body was interred in the family burying ground Saturday, funeral services being held at her late residence.

Sudden Death of Child.

The two-year-old son of Mr. Roy Cayce, Jr., of Beverly, died rather suddenly Saturday. About six months ago the little fellow was paralyzed but he appeared to be much improved and hopes were entertained that he would soon fully recover.

1904==T. M. JONES==1904

All Eyes Turned Toward the Beautiful New Stock.

New Black Silks, Jap. Silks, Fancy Silks for Waists and Suits, Black Dress Goods in all the New Weaves, Colored Dress Goods in all the New Weaves, Lovely Line New Dress Trimmings.

Wash Goods.

Scotch Suitings, Pin Suitings, Newport Suitings, Vaile Suitings, Dublin Suitings, Cambric Percples, Ginghams, Madras Cloth, Etc.

White Goods--the Largest and Best Assorted Stock in the city.

Fancy Goods and Notions--New Lace Collars, Belts, Ties, Waist Sets, Back Combs, Side Combs, Gloves, Laces, Embroideries, Art Ticking Lace Bed Sets, Lace Curtains, Table Linens, Napkins & Towels.

Gents' Shirts and Ties--Something New and Up-to-date in both lines. Call and see them.

New Carpets, Rugs, Mattings and Linoleums. My stock is complete in every line and prices right.

T. M. JONES,

Main St. - Hopkinsville, Ky.

EXPIRES ALONE.

Mrs. M. E. Ulrich, of Lafayette, Found Dead Friday Night.

Lying Where She Fell in Her Cow Pen, Victim of Heart Failure.

Mrs. M. Ellen Ulrich, of Lafayette, an old lady about 73 years of age, died suddenly one day last week. The exact time of her death is not known. She lived entirely alone and was first missed by her tenant who called at her house Friday morning and could obtain no response. As she was in the habit of absenting herself from home at times, the tenant thought nothing of it. When he returned that night and could still arouse no one he went to some of the neighbors to inquire for Mrs. Ulrich. Failing to find her, a searching party was organized and sometime in the night her dead body was found lying in the cow pen, near her house. There were no marks of violence on the body and the old lady had evidently died suddenly of heart disease. She had a cup in her hand and had evidently gone out to milk her cow. The cow was not in the pen and she could not have been killed by the animal. She had evidently been dead since Thursday night.

Mrs. Ulrich was a very eccentric widow, who lived on her own farm and was possessed of a good deal of property, including real estate in Louisville. She leaves three grown children. Her son Clarence Ulrich lives in Denver, Colo., and one daughter, Mrs. A. M. Gilliland, lives in Belle Aire, Ohio, a suburb of Wheeling, W. Va. Another married daughter lives in Chattanooga, Tenn. Her husband, from whom she separated 25 or 30 years ago, has long since died. She was a sister of Mr. W. E. Lacy.

The body was taken to Louisville and buried in Cave Hill Cemetery. Her mother died suddenly of heart trouble many years ago.

SHEPHERD-FREEMAN.

Well Known Farmer Weds Woman of This City.

Mr. J. W. Shepherd, a well known farmer living near the city, and Miss Buena Vista Freeman, of this place, were married Sunday morning. The Rev. W. F. Cashman officiated.

Not Far From Fairview.

Dr. D. H. Erkiletian, formerly of Weaver's Store, Tenn., has located on the Butler road, a few miles West of Fairview, where he will practice medicine.

AGENT SHOT

And I. C. Depot at Cerulean Robbed of $200.

Struggle in the Darkness Between the Agent and the Burglar.

The I. C. Depot at Cerulean Springs was robbed at an early hour Saturday morning and the agent, C. L. Layman, so badly injured that he was taken to Paducah and put in the I. C. Hospital. Mr. Layman gives this account of his struggle in the darkness.

"I sleep in the office at Cerulean Springs, which is in the I. C. depot and away from the town proper. I came back to the station about 1:30 o'clock this morning and went to bed in the front room. I had hardly laid down when I heard a noise in the back room. I jumped up and started for my revolver, which was in the rear room, when in the darkness I bumped into the robber. He fired once, striking me in the arm and then ran.

"As soon as I could strike a light I made an examination and found that he had forced an entrance to the money drawer and stolen $200. The room was badly disarranged and it may be that something else was taken, but of that I am not certain.

"I believe from the glance I had of the man that he was a negro. He had evidently been in the building some time."

As soon as possible Mr. Layman had his arm dressed and was transferred to Paducah for treatment. He is suffering great pain, his arm being badly swollen. The bullet, fired at close range, entered the biceps, above the elbow and flattened against the bone. It was removed with some trouble.

Route Agent Chas. Abbott, of Paducah, went to the scene Sunday to look after the matter.

The depot at Cerulean is remote from the town, in a lonely spot well suited for such a deed.

Mr. Layman was agent of the I. C. road and also of the American Express Company. It is not clear upon which the loss falls. It is probable that all of the funds of both companies on hand were taken.

STANLEY'S WALKOVER.

Has No Opposition For Re-election—Primary Called Off.

As no candidate announced for Congress against Hon. A. O. Stanley by noon Saturday, the nominations were closed and the primary will be called off. The District Committee will meet in this city next Saturday to declare Mr. Stanley the nominee.