

Ayer's

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral quiets tickling throats, hacking coughs, pain in the lungs. It relieves congestion, subdues inflammation. It heals, strengthens. Your doctor will explain this to you. He knows all about this cough medicine.

"We have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in our family for 25 years for throat and lung troubles, and we think no medicine equals it."

SEIBERT-CHATTEN.

An Elopement Made Unnecessary At Earlington.

Clarence Seibert, of Henderson, and Miss Kate Chatten, of Earlington, were planning an elopement, when the bride's father, Dr. E. A. Chatten, heard of it and consented for them to go to Madisonville and be married Monday. Rev. P. E. Gatlin performed the ceremony at Hotel Lucille. Dr. Chatten's present wife was Miss Lillie Waller, of this city. Mrs. Seibert is a daughter by a former wife. Mr. Seibert is an employe of the Henderson Journal.

Called Meeting.

A called meeting of the History and Literature Club will be held at Mrs. T. D. Armistead's next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

CADIZ MERCHANT.

A Victim of Typhoid Fever Tuesday Night.

Was a Leading Citizen of His County—Sister Lives Here.

Cadiz, Ky., Sept. 7.—Typhoid fever caused the death last night of M. H. Jagoe, one of this county's leading citizens and most successful merchants. He was forty-eight years of age and a member of the Methodist church. He came from Madisonville twenty years ago and by his industry had built up a large business. A widow and eight children survive him. Interment will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Miss Nancy Lee Jagoe, his eldest daughter, whose engagement to Prof. N. W. Bridges, of Lewisburg, Tenn., was recently announced, is very low from fever.

Mr. Jagoe was a brother of Mrs. Lucy Jagoe Ellis, of this city.

CUTTING THE WEED

Ten Per Cent of the Crop Ready For "Firing."

In some sections of the country the work of cutting tobacco has begun and the process of "firing" the weed is now in order.

The crop is hardly up to the average in quality and the acreage is not more than 60 per cent of the usual crop raised in this section.

NEW PASTOR

For the First Presbyterian Church of This City.

Dr. E. M. Bull Succeeds Rev. Francis Lee Goff, Resigned.

Rev. Edward H. Bull, of Frankfort, Ky., has accepted the call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of this city, extended some time ago. The new pastor is now here and his family will move to the city in about two months. Dr. Bull is a graduate of Center College and has held a pastorate until recently at Grant City, Mo. He ranks high among the ministers of his denomination. He succeeds Rev. Francis Lee Goff, who moved to Florida several months ago.

DAWSON MERCHANT

Victim of "Representative" of a Cincinnati Firm.

R. N. Oates, a grocer of Dawson Springs, has paid $50 for a bit of experience. In a letter to D. A. White & Co., of Cincinnati, he says that a man giving the name of H. B. Laws called on him August 29 and sold him five barrels of sugar, to be shipped from D. A. White & Co., and after the transaction presented a check for $50, signed in the firm name, which Mr. Oates indorsed and Laws had cashed, says a Dawson dispatch.

This check, like others circulated by the same fraud, was drawn on the Third National Bank of Cincinnati, and was protested for non-payment and returned to Dawson Springs and paid by Mr. Oates, who now wishes to know where H. B. Laws can be found.

LIVINGSTON RACES.

A Hot Finish in the Democratic Primary Election.

Smithland, Ky., Sept. 3.—One of the hottest elections ever held in this county was pulled off today. About 1,700 votes were cast, which was by far the largest ever polled in a Livingston Democratic primary. The winners were: Tom Evans, county judge; P. H. Bush, county clerk; T. E. Butler, county attorney; George Wilson, sheriff; L. E. Bridges, jailer; Foster Babb, school superintendent; Guy Gibbs, assessor, and J. O. Boyd for coroner. The nomination means an election of all on the ticket in November, as Livingston county is safe Democratic.

SAM MARLOW SUES.

L. & N. Made Defendant in Damage Suit.

Samuel Marlow on Wednesday filed suit against the L. & N. railroad company for $10,000 damages. Mr. Marlow lives near Lafayette. He states in his petition that on June 6 last he hired to Sells & Downs circus to assist in loading stock in Clarksville and that while enroute to this city on the morning of June 7 he was shoved from the moving train near Casky by one of the company's employes. He further alleges that he fell on his head and sustained many cuts and bruises and permanent injury to one eye.

SOLDIER BOYS

Are Living On the Fat of the Land at St. Louis.

Company D. Is Already a Favorite in the Drills and Dress Parades.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Company D left Hopkinsville at 9:30 Thursday night, and after an all night ride reached St. Louis at 7:30 Friday morning. Our special was switched from the L. & N. tracks to the "Wabash Shuttle," which took us directly to the grounds. The rain began to pour down just before we left the train, so the regiment did not make a very prepossessing appearance, loaded as we were with haversacks, canteens, blanket-rolls, etc., and over these our ponchos. We had to march about a mile and a half before we reached our camp and by that time the rain had stopped. We found plank floors already placed for our tents, and soon a few hours after arrival our camp was pitched.

We are camped on what is known as the West Point Camp Ground, and a better sight could hardly have been picked. The only complaint that could be made is that there is no good parade ground near. We have almost every convenience that soldiers could wish for. Shower baths are provided for officers and men. Barrels of ice water are placed at the head of every company street. We have cots to sleep on and straw to put in our bed sacks. The commissary department is also tip top. We have two good cooks and our commissary sergeant provides for us everything that he can get. The camp is well lighted by electricity, which prevents our having to use candles. So altogether we are well satisfied with our quarters.

The weather has been very pleasant so far, in fact the nights have been cold. It is so cold that the blankets do not suffice to keep us warm.

The Colonel has arranged the "daily routine" so that the men will have as much opportunity as possible to see the exposition. It is about as follows:

Reveille 6 a. m.
 Mess 6:20.
 Battalion drill 7 to 8.
 Cleaning camp 8:15 to 8:45.
 Guard mount 9:00.
 Officers and non-commissioned officers' school 9:45.
 Company drill 11 to 12.
 Mess 12:00.
 Dress parade 5:45 p. m.
 Tattoo 10:45.
 Taps 11:00.

From now on we shall have from one until five in the afternoon and from 7:30 until 10:30 at night.

Sergt. White was struck on the finger by a baseball while playing in the company street this morning. The hurt is not at all serious.

Private Hancock is on detached service with the regimental commissary department. He seems to have won quite a nice home.

Rev. Frank M. Thomas, of Louisville, the chaplain of the regiment, held services in the main street of the regiment last night. He made quite a beautiful talk. Private Hille led the singing. No comments needed.

Jabe Shryer and Sergeant Olvey, of Hopkinsville, visited the camp and messed with us today.

Private Ryan is on the sick list today.

We are proud to say that Company D presents about the best appearance in the regiment. Ours was the only company which was applauded at dress parade yesterday afternoon.

The majority of the boys had planned to have quite a good time yesterday, but their plans were of no avail. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning Col. Gaines, State inspector general, held an inspection of the equipment of the men. This being very unsatisfactory, the men were held in camp until every man could pass a satisfactory inspection: So the entire day was consumed in rubbing and polishing guns and side arms.

Today an order was issued from regimental headquarters, commanding every man to either wash his uniform or have it washed. The men presented rather a comical appearance today, going around with blankets strapped around them. Some of the boys made quite nice looking "girls." Private Summers and Sergt. Jackson distinguished themselves especially along this line. Sergt. White and Corporals Giles and Bassett were the only ones who had the forethought to bring their blue uniforms to wear in such an emergency.

Privates Ryan and Summers had quite an experience last night after "taps" on the "cooling board."

CLERK BOARD OF HEALTH

Of Jacksonville, Fla., Endorses Peruna.

C. D. TAYLOR.

C. D. Taylor, Clerk of the City Board of Health of Jacksonville, Fla., has occupied that position for the last ten years. In a recent letter to the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., he expresses his approval of their famous catarrh remedy Peruna in the following words:

"The health of the poor of a large city is always a question of vital interest not only to the city officials but to every citizen. It has been a source of much satisfaction to me to find that so large a number of working people in moderate circumstances have accepted Peruna as their family medicine. It has cured a large number of cases especially of catarrh of the head, lungs and stomach and building up the general health it cannot fail but prove a help and blessing to any community where it is generally adopted and used. I have found it an honest reliable remedy and am pleased to endorse it."—C. D. Taylor, Clerk, Board of Health.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Diseased Bladder and Kidneys for Twenty Years.

Dr. M. M. Fenner, Frodoia, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—I have been troubled with my bladder and kidneys for the last 20 years, having doctored with many different physicians in that time, with no results. I was told to try a bottle of Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure, which I did and which is the only medicine that ever gave me relief. I am 71 years old and am in the best of health today. I will heartily recommend Dr. Fenner's Remedy to any one suffering from their bladder or kidneys. Besides it is not a mean dose but pleasant to take.

POPULAR FAVORITE

Is Walter Edwards Who Comes Next Week.

Walter Edwards the leading man in the play "A Sign of the Four," at the Opera House Tuesday night, with the Vendome Stock Company last season and is a great favorite here. He has delighted Hopkinsville audiences several times by his fine acting. The play he is starring in this year has made a great hit in the large cities, and a really good show is promised for next week. It should bring out a large attendance.

LEGS CUT OFF

And Death Results 24 Hours Later.

W. H. Rutherford, conductor of freight train No. 97 on the L. & N., was run over by his train at Nortonville Saturday night and both legs cut off. He jumped for the ladder on the train as it was moving by and missed it. He was taken to Earlington and died 24 hours later. He was 25 years old and leaves a wife and child at Nebo.
