UNCOMMON WISDOM.

Some Hopkinsville People Profit By Neighbor's Experience.

It's a wise man who profits by the experience of his friends and neighbors. Here is a chance to do it and every man, woman or child in Hopkinsville who knows the misery of a bad back, the nervousness and restlessness caused by kidney complaint or the annoyance of urinary disorders, will show uncommon wisdom to profit by this citizen's advice.

J. W. Pritchett retired grocer of 752 East 7th St., says: My back has given me a great deal of trouble. The pain was not continually severe, but came on by intermittent spells, which were sometimes very painful especially after over-exertion of any kind. Being constantly on the outlook for something to relieve me, I happened to read of Doan's Kidney Pills, and was so impressed with the testimonials as to their worth, that I procured a box at Thomas & Trahern's drug store. The pills benefited me in every way and I hope that my endorsement will be the means of extending relief to some other sufferer.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Mill u'n Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Excursion Rates Twice a Month.

Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas offer the greatest inducements for persons desiring to own their homes. Cheap land, producing almost anything that can be grown anywhere, mild climate, good schools, good water, healthful surroundings, and a growing country are some of the advantages.

Unexcelled for raising fruits and vegetables for early markets. Land that can be bought for $5 to $10 per acre can be made to yield $100 to $200 per acre in orchard and truck farm.

First and third Tuesdays of each month we sell homeseeker's tickets from Memphis and Cairo at one fare plus $2 for the round trip.

April 4th and 18th special low round trip rates—less than one way fare—$15 and less from Memphis and Cairo to points in Texas. Low rates in proportion from points East of Memphis and Cairo.

Literature descriptive of above country and information about rates will be mailed upon request.

CRY OF WOLF! WOLF!

THRILLING STORY OF A CYCLIST'S TERRIBLE RIDE.

Ignores Hasty, But Timely Warning, and Has to Ride for His Life—Overtaken But Is Saved.

There were obvious signs of thunder when I set out to spend the evening with my friend at S—. A bright harvest moon shone down, lighting the road before me. Away, almost on the horizon, a heavy bank of clouds growled ominously and at frequent intervals. Riding steadily, I was at length brought to a standstill by the road branching off in opposite directions. My memory of the way up to this point had held me good. But now I hesitated, doubtful which of the two roads I should take. Whilst in this dilemma, I noticed the figure of a man approaching.

"Is this the road to S—?" I asked. Without heeding, the man hurried on. I repeated my question. This time he heard, and, half turning, nodded his head.

"What is the matter?" I shouted. "Wolf—escaped—from menagerie at G—" he gasped, in a terrified voice, and vanished round the corner.

Laughing to myself at his cowardice, I mounted my machine and was soon gliding along the quiet lane. Strangely, up to the present, I had felt no alarm at the thought of a wolf roaming the country. But presently I began to experience a distinct sensation of nervousness.

By now a heavy bank of clouds obscured the moon. The darkness was intense. Still I rode on, making good progress, my path at times lit up by dazzling flashes of lightning.

Suddenly my lamp went out. Dismounting, I struck a match, and had just succeeded in kindling the wick, when a strange noise fell upon my ears. I listened intently.

The regular pit-pat of some approaching animal sounded clearly in the dark stillness. That instant, a flash of lightning lit up the road. I looked! I gasped! In the brilliant glare a gray-brown object was visible, rushing headlong towards me.

"WOLF—ESCAPED—FROM MENAGERIE," HE GASPED.

"The wolf!" I shrieked, and, springing on my bicycle, fled, filled with mad panic.

How I kept my balance I cannot say. The mortal dread of what would happen should I fall seemed to sap the strength from my limbs. Once I thought I had out-distanced the creature. I glanced behind, as another flash turned darkness into day.

Pit, pat, with red tongue lapping and swinging from side to side, I saw the brute, clinging tenaciously to the chase.

By now my knees ached intolerably, my breath came in sobs, and I felt as if my chest would burst. Then, just as despair had overwhelmed me, I saw the lights of a farmhouse not 20 yards ahead.

I pulled up abruptly. A moment later my fists beat wildly against the door. Suddenly a dark object bounded towards me. My mind reeled, and I collapsed on the doorstep, unconscious!

When I came to my senses I found myself seated in a big arm-chair. Bending over me, a broad smile overmantling his face, stood the master of the house.

"Where is the wolf?" I asked, feebly. "Wolf!" he laughed. "Why, there is the terrible wolf, sleeping peacefully at your feet! It was our old sheep-dog all the time. He mistook you for my son. Well, well, he gave you a little exercise!"

System to Prevent Railway Collisions. An interesting change was recently made in the signaling system of New Zealand's railway, which, it is thought, will make collisions impossible. It is called the "tablet system," the essential point being that no engineer is allowed to leave a station without a tablet in his possession, and the machines are so made that it is impossible for two of the tablets to be out at the same time. It is claimed by railroad experts that under this system two trains cannot be on the same section at once, so that the danger of collisions is entirely done away with.
