YELLOW FEVER SITUATION CRITICAL.

New Orleans Death List Now Numbers Thirty-Four.

TWO DEATHS TUESDAY.

Over One Hundred and Fifty Suspects and Actual Cases Reported.

New Orleans, July 25.—To-night, in response to the request of the State Board of Health, the City Board of Health compiled the figures of suspicious and actual cases of yellow fever and deaths, and the figures, as issued by the State Board, shows: 154 cases and 32 deaths, making 34 to date.

Dr. Geo. B. Young, United States Marine Hospital Service, has been assigned to take charge of the inspection of trains, to co-operate with the States and localities which have instituted quarantines, and he will make his headquarters at Jackson, Miss.

Dr. Farrar Richardson, of the Marine Hospital service, has been detailed as an assistant to City Health Officer Kohnke in field work.

The Emergency Hospital on Du-maine street was equipped today and placed in charge of Dr. Hamilton P. Jones, who had charge of the isolation hospital in 1897. He has as his assistant Dr. L. J. Faget, a noted yellow fever authority, and a man conversant with the Italian characteristics.

The advisory board of the City Board of Health began active work to-day, and it will have immediate charge of the work of ferreting out the new foci of infection and carrying out the isolation and sanitation, should any develop. It will also have general supervision over the general campaign of education and the cleaning up of the city, screening of cisterns, houses, etc.

Surgeon White and surgeon Guite-ras, of the Marine Hospital Service, have completed plans for the establishment of the detention camps along the different railroad trunk lines, and have selected the physicians in charge who have already selected their staffs. The equipment is on the way.

BARBECUE ONLY A WEEK OFF.

A Feast in Store For All Who May Attend Gathering.

SPECIAL R. R. RATES.

Oratory and Reason Will Flow Freely For All Alike.

A week from to-day and all roads in this section of the country will lead to Gracey. The barbecue, under the auspices of the Tobacco Growers' Association, will attract every one who can possibly leave home on that day. Nearly a hundred carcasses will be barbecued in regular old Kentucky style and such a feast of good things has not been prepared for many and many a year. The invitation is general and the farmers who do not attend will miss something that will be of the greatest advantage to them. The list of speakers embraces some of our ablest and best informed men—Congressmen James, Stanley, Gaines and others. Men like Col. F. G. Ewing and Mr. C. P. Warfield, who have already given two years to the work of organizing the tobacco growers into a protective association, will be there and tell the planters how to secure the best prices for their tobacco and how to outwit the trusts.

It's up to the farmer now to protect himself, and if he fails he will prove recreant to the duty he owes to himself, his family and posterity.

This is not a thing involving only the present year. It is something that looks into years to come, and has assumed a shape that must be worked out for the good of all—for, when the farmer prospers so prospers everybody. Then let everybody turn out to the feast, enjoy the flow of oratory and gain information from those who have worked and planned for the good of the general public. Remember the day and date—Thursday, August 3.

AUTHORIZED INTERVIEW GIVEN OUT.

Intimation That Japan Will Make Demand For Indemnity.

LOOKS LIKE PEACE.

End of Hostilities Expected to Come With Conclusion of Conference.

New York, July 25.—That Japan will demand an indemnity of Russia in the negotiations for peace and that the war will be declared at an end at the conclusion of the negotiations at Portsmouth, N. H., next month, is the belief of Baron Komura, head of the Japanese peace delegation, who arrived here to-day, as voiced by Aimor Sato, who is the official spokesman for the Baron on this mission. Mr. Sato, in an interview, said:

"I am confident that peace will be successfully negotiated by the appointed delegations. The Japanese will be guided by moderation, and no excessive demands will be made, but the sentiment in Japan and Russia is for peace, and in the interests of humanity and propriety there must be peace.

"The cost to Japan, however, has been very great. On both sides the loss has been 570,000 men, Russia losing 370,000 of these. The war is costing Japan $1,000,000 a day, and there is a feeling that there ought to be an indemnity."

Asked as to the probability of an armistice, Mr. Sato said that probably would be among the first questions the plenipotentiaries would consider. Basing the form of the negotiations on previous negotiations Japan will make the demands for Russia's consideration, he said:

"The peace terms, while held in violation by those who know their text, were formulated by the Emperor of Japan and his council."

Mr. Sato was asked if, in the flush of victory, the Japanese people would not feel entitled to more than any treaty would allow. Mr. Sato said:

"The Japanese are not so gentle as to abide by any decision we may make, but they pay great respect to the offices of President Roosevelt, and his acts have done a great deal to emphasize the need for peace."
