Why Hopkinsville Was Ousted From the K. I. T. League.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED.

Receiver Asked For to Wind Up the Affairs of the League.

A suit was filed Tuesday morning by John Feland, as one of the stockholders of the Hopkinsville Baseball association, against the Kentucky-Illinois-Tennessee league and its officers, Brown, Greaney and Gosnell, for $1,500 damages for the action of the officials in taking Hopkinsville out of the circuit without fault or without representation at the meeting July 9.

The petition cites at length the expense incurred and trouble undergone by Hopkinsville in getting together a team, and further calls attention to the fact that the city had met every obligation. It is further charged in the petition that the league is virtually on the edge of disruption and the court is asked to take charge and make disposition of its affairs. As soon as a process can be served the court will be asked to appoint a receiver for the league so that its affairs may be finally closed.

The officers recently tendered the association $213 in full settlement of the amount due from the guaranty fund, which tender was declined, as it was less than the amount deposited.

CANTRACT AWARDED

To New York Firm For Building the Capital.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 8.—the contract for construction of the new Kentucky Capitol was awarded by the State Commission to-night to the General Supply and Construction Company, of New York City. The contract price is $880,000, and a bond of $225,000 is to be executed for the completion of the work within two years from the date the contract is signed. The building is to be of stone from Bedford, Ind., quarries, with granite base. There were fifteen bidders for the general contract, and their bids ranged from that of the successful contractor up to $1,096,983, bid by Hennessey Brothers & Co., of Chicago, the same stone to be used. John Gill & Son, of Cleveland, O., were the next lowest bidders, they bidding $884,732. No Kentucky firm of contractors bid for the general contract. Sixty-two bids were made for portions of the work.

CAMPING OUT.

Party of Ladies and Gentlemen at Striped Bridge.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Keach, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones and daughter, Mrs. F. M. Brister, of Russellville, John W. Tully and Ray Willingham went to Striped Bridge yesterday to spend a week or ten days. They took along tents, bedding and a supply of provisions sufficient for the outing. The men carried their guns and the crowd expects to live principally on doves and squirrels. The fishing poles and tackle are for the use of the ladies, who will doubtless supply any want occasioned by the bad marksmanship of the hunters.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at Hotel Latham Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Drastic Proceedings Threatened Unless Quarantine Is Relaxed.

New Orleans, Aug. 9.—Owing to the onerous nature of the local quarantines established in Louisiana, the Board of Health of that state has threatened to take drastic action to secure their relaxation. A proclamation was issued yesterday by the board, requiring that certain intolerable restrictions on communication and transportation be removed, in default of which it will, if necessary, call on the Governor for troops to enforce the order. A number of new cases and new foci were discovered yesterday. The situation presents a less favorable aspect.

Following is the official summary of the yellow fever situation at 6 p. m., yesterday:

New cases.....	60
Total cases to date.....	616

SKYLARK CAPTURED.

Mysterious Change Artist Who Defied Detectives Taken By a Woman.

"Skylark Holmes," the man for whom thousands of readers of The Times have hunted night after night at Fontaine Ferry Park, was captured—and by a young woman, at that. The name of his fair captor is Miss Will A. Torpey, 2329 West Marketstreet.

It was an eventful evening. "Skylark" filled every promise he had made in yesterday's Times. He appeared on the stage of Hopkins' pavilion at the close of Capt. Bloom's "turn." The stage was darkened, the curtain lifted, there stood the same "Skylark" with whom The Times readers have become familiar in pictures.

Promptly at the close of the performance "Skylark mysteriously appeared on the grounds. The crowd turned forth from the theater to search for him. There was a buzz of excitement everywhere. Every young man seemed to feel himself suspected. About an hour and a half after the close of the theater a young woman in white dress and black hat was seen to approach a man seated by himself near the band stand. The young woman led her captive to the office of Manager William Reichmann, of the park. She had captured "Skylark" and was promptly paid $25 in gold.

"I was fairly and squarely captured," was "Skylark Holmes'" comment this morning. "Of course, I was glad that a lady captured me. She had learned her catch-words by heart and showed me my picture from The Times. After she had received her reward from Manager Reichmann she told me she had searched for me several evenings since I made my appearance at Fountain Ferry Park.

Wagon Train.

A train of eight wagons loaded with new mill machinery for Bumpus' Mills, in Stewart county, Tenn., not far from Lafayette, passed through the streets yesterday. The train attracted considerable attention.

Mr. Atfred Lewis, of New Orleans was in the city this week. He in the guest of Mr. Frank Quarles, on the Nashville pike.
