James Garnett, of Columbia, Ky., is the new Grand Master of the Kentucky Grand Lodge of Masons.

Baron Komura arrived in Tokio the day the Peace treaty was officially promulgated.

Virgil Bowers, a negro murderer, was taken from the jail by a mob at London, Ky., and hanged.

The interned Russian ships at San Francisco and Manila have been released by the order of the Navy Department.

A $300,000 annex to Seelbach's new hotel will be built for apartments. The present hotel cost $850,000.

The National Tobacco Growers Convention met at Owensboro yesterday and the attendance was expected to reach 3,000.

The General Council of Louisville has authorized Mayor Charles F. Grainger to borrow $375,000 to meet the current expenses of the city.

J. T. S. Brown, Sr. one of the most widely-known whiskey dealers in the country, died Tuesday morning at his home in Louisville.

Miss Nellie Logan, of Omaha, Neb., has written to Bowling Green, offering to marry sexton Summer-ville, who resigned his position giving as a reason that he had no wife and could not get one. She says she is "an ever-willing young lady, who is anxiously waiting a reply."

The official fever report for Tuesday shows only six new cases and one death at New Orleans. Only 125 cases remain under treatment and the Emergency Hospital will be closed this week to yellow fever patients. Mississippi had 10 new cases and 1 death and is almost ready to report the epidemic at an end. Pensacola is not improved any. Tuesday there were 13 new cases and 5 deaths, making 62 to date.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Rheumatism

Is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches and pains,—inflamed joints and stiff muscles,—but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment acting through the blood, and the best is a course of the great medicine

Hood's Sarsaparilla which has permanently cured thousands of cases.

For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on Rheumatism, No. 7, C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

The motion to advance the hearing in the case of the State of Kentucky vs. James Howard, convicted of complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel, made in the Supreme Court of the United States last Tuesday, was denied by the court. The case already has an advanced place on the docket and will probably be heard in December in the regular order of business.

There have already been two lynchings in Kentucky this month. The failure of the courts to punish crime promptly and properly is the principal cause of the mob spirit in Kentucky. If the murderers of the Governors of the State can successfully escape hanging for five or six years, it is no wonder that people become more and more distrustful of the courts, often weak and inefficient.

The Filipino wife of Lieut. S. S. Burbank, of the Sixth Infantry, has been granted a divorce and the custody of their daughter, with monthly alimony. Lieut. Burbank is now being tried by court martial at Leavenworth, Kan., for deserting his wife. His engagement to a young woman of Leavenworth has been announced.

The formalities of dissolution have been completed and Norway and Sweden are now separate kingdoms. Prince Charles, of Denmark, will be invited to be king of Norway and will probably accept.

Sixty Weeks for $1.75.

The new subscriber to The Youth's Companion for 1906 who at once sends the subscription price, $1.75, will receive free all the remaining issues of the paper for 1905. These issues will contain nearly 50 complete stories, besides the opening chapters of Grace S. Richmond's serial, "The Churchills' Latch String," a sequel to her story of "The Second Violin," which appeared in the early weeks of this year. Madame Sembrich will contribute an article on "Sovereigns I Have Sung To," and there will be three stories by May Robert Clark under the title, "Tales of a Pawnee Hero."

These will give a foretaste of the good things in store for 1906, full illustrated Announcement of which will be sent to any address free with sample copies of the paper.

New subscribers will also receive a gift of The Companion's "Minute-men" Calendar for 1906, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
144 Berkeley Street, Boston, Mass.

Runaway.

Early Tuesday morning a horse, driven by Mr. Wainwright Lewis, ran away on Walnut street and came near causing serious injury to the driver and his friend who was with him in the buggy. Both were thrown from the buggy, and Lewis' head striking the pavement rendered him unconscious for awhile. The horse then made another dash and fell into an excavation made for sewer pipe, but got out out again without injury to himself or buggy.

Supplemental Registration days, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 30, October 31 and November 1. All voters in Hopkinsville, Pembroke, Crofton, Lafayette, Gracey and Fairview, prevented by sickness or absence from registering on October 3 may register by affidavit at the county clerk's office and qualify themselves to vote. Last chance.

CHILD'S CORPSE

Kept Packed in Sawdust For Three Weeks.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 16.—Three weeks ago the 12-year-old son of Allen Free, who lives in a shanty boat on the Illinois side of the river from here, died, and since that time the father has kept vigil over the body and refuses to allow it to be disturbed. The body has been packed in sawdust.

Free is supposed to be crazy. The Sheriff here will not take action in the matter until ordered to do so by the court. Free declares he will kill any one who attempts to rob him of his son as he expresses it.

It is thought that to-morrow County Judge Lightfoot will issue to the Sheriff the necessary orders, and as both the Sheriff and Free are known to be fearless, serious trouble is expected.

BARGAIN PRICE.

Husband Worth $2,000 Marked Down To $400.

Louisville, Oct. 15.—Mrs. John W. House of Marengo, Ind., has accepted $400 under the terms of a compromise for the death of her husband. Mrs. House sued H. B. McWilliams, a saloon-keeper, for $2,000 damages, alleging that he sold her husband liquor, and that after drinking it he went with a companion to Milltown, where they engaged in a fight, in which House received injuries which caused his death. Under the Indiana law a saloon-keeper is liable for damages when a man to whom he sells liquor is killed or injured as a direct or indirect result of the liquor.

FIVE O'CLOCK TEA.

At Which Mrs. Green and the Misses Campbell Were Hostesses.

Mrs. Jno. R. Green and the Misses Campbell gave a five o'clock tea Tuesday afternoon. They were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Q. C. Atkinson, of Clarksville, and Miss Cornelia Cowan, of Joliet, Ill.

The guests were invited to the frappe bowl by Mrs. Jouett Henry and Miss Lucy Edmunds, the frappe being served by Misses Mary Wallace and Addie Green. In the dining room, which was beautifully decorated, tea was poured by Mrs. Howell Tandy and chocolate by Mrs. Jas. H. Anderson.

As a result of the unusually warm autumn strawberries all over southern Indiana are yielding a remarkably heavy second crop. The berries are much better in size and quality than the first crop and if a heavy frost does not come the yield will be a record breaker.

LOCAL POINTERS.

A wedding in the near future is predicted to take place in Pembroke.

The young men of the city will give a ball at Maoyon's hall to-night. Lebeucher's band has been engaged. Agents wanted to sell a new book on Japanese War. Apply to Mrs. Margaret Wormald.

There's something big in the air, but we can't mention it just yet. It's the biggest thing yet talked of. Luther Gordon, col., died yesterday morning at his home on Cottage street as a result of typhoid fever. He was 21 years old.

The zephyrs whisper that one of Hopkinsville's fair maids is soon to be married to a young man of another city.

There seems to be a scarcity of turnips on the local market this fall. Very few have been seen in the city as yet.

It looked for a while as if Hopkinsville would be "up to snuff," but the American Snuff Co. seems to have sneezed itself away.

Six or eight men who will think and act for the development of the town will do more than a commercial club of forty or fifty members.

Horses are getting used to John Owsley's and Dr. Fierstein's snellpaardellooszooderspoorwegpitoltrij-tugs, which being translated from Hollandese, means automobiles.

Miss Ola Cayce, the popular book-keeper for J. H. Anderson & Co., who has been quite sick for several days, is much better and was at her place of business yesterday.

A business man said the other day, in speaking of the growth of the city: "What we are getting just comes to us because it can't be helped—we don't reach out after anything." That's about the size of it.

Dr. Wyatt, next Sunday night, will preach a special sermon to the Odd Fellows. This is one of the largest secret society in the city, and when the men of the three links file in they will take up a good portion of the auditorium.

Charlie Datillo has made arrangements to go to Vincennes, Ind., this week, where he will go into business. Charlie has been a citizen of Hopkinsville twelve years and is one of the cleverest Italians we have ever known.

Rev. A. Lichtenstein, who has embraced the christian religion, preached to a fair audience in the basement of the Methodist church Tuesday night. His discourse was mostly on the prophecies concerning the coming of Christ. He left the city yesterday.

Some people complain at the wretched condition of the streets and sidewalks since the sewer company began tearing the streets up. We had just as well begin now getting used to annoyances caused by the introduction of big enterprises. This is only a starter for Greater Hopkinsville.

All our merchants expect to do a big business this fall, and why shouldn't they? We have had one of the finest crop years (though wheat was a little short) ever known, the farmer is getting nearly double the old price for tobacco, everybody is getting out of debt and times are bound to be good.

All the pastors of the Christian churches in Cincinnati are holding evangelistic services in their own houses of worship. Rev. Joe D. Armistead is being assisted by Rev. H. D. Smith, who will not return to Hopkinsville for two weeks. Rev. Armistead had received four new members before Rev. Smith left here.

The officers and members of the Baptist Sunday School are preparing to celebrate the second Sunday in next month as "Rally Day." It will be the aim to have every person whose name is enrolled as a member of the school, present that day. Conveyances will be furnished to send after all members of the Home and Cradle-Roll departments who cannot conveniently come themselves. The large auditorium will be used and will be beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers and a lengthy and very interest program is being prepared for the occasion. The Baptist Sunday School has an enrolled membership of over 500.
