NOT ASLEEP.

L. & N. Preparing to Show Them a Thing or Two.

A Madisonville dispatch says: "The interurban train service between Earlington and Madisonville, and Earlington and Nortonville, which was forecasted some weeks since, is to be inaugurated as we speak as the necessary arrangements can be made. This is gathered from interviews with officials of the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

These officials say four or five additional telegraph offices will be put in along the line between Madisonville and Nortonville in order to handle this frequent additional train service by a practical block system all along the line. Perhaps six additional operators will be required to handle this traffic and the already very numerous passenger, freight and coal trains that now keep the rails hot on this section of the L. & N.

In addition to the regular stops now made it is understood the new trains will stop at Victoria, Hecla, South Diamond, Chesley and other points as the traffic may demand. Connections will be made at Nortonville with all trains on the Illinois Central.

The service as planned will begin at 7:15 a. m. and cease at 6:55 p. m. Trains will be run each way at intervals of about an hour and three quarters. This service is in addition to the regular passenger service now in effect between these points, which will not be interfered with.

Just what effect the installation of this service will have upon the proposed electric interurban road remains to be seen.

Of the twenty youths slaughtered, twelve were high school players. Eleven were boys of seventeen and under and three were seasoned college men, presumably fit for the rigors of the game. The list of severely injured will reach over 150, which exceeds all previous records by a score or more.

The first death on record of a feminine football player occurred during the season, the victim being Miss Bernadette Decker, eighteen years old, daughter of a leading politician of Cumberland, Md. In a rough scrimmage among girls of her school she received injuries that developed into acute peritonitis.

ROBERT T. ANDERSON.

Information Sought In Regard to Noted Teacher and Baptist Minister.

DIED HERE IN 1854.

His Work As Instructor of the Deaf Attracted National Attention.

Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, of Washington D. C., the inventor of the telephone has for many years been greatly interested in the education of the deaf and is preparing a series of sketches regarding the formation of the schools for the deaf in the United States. This series of articles is being published in the "Association Review," a magazine published in the interest of the teaching of speech to the deaf.

Dr. Bell desires to include in his series of articles a sketch of the school of the Rev. Robert T. Anderson, who occupied a unique position in the teaching of the deaf in this state.

Mr. Anderson was a native of Caroline Co., Va., and in 1818 removed to Kentucky. He probably knew something of the school of John Braidwood a young, Scotchman, and the Rev. John Kirkpatrick, who were in 1818 conducting a school for the deaf near Richmond, Va.

Mr. Anderson on moving to Kentucky lived for a while in Glasgow, and while there attempted to educate the deaf son of a friend. His effort was so far successful that when he moved to Christian Co., about 1840, he opened a department for the deaf in his school, and had about thirty deaf pupils, between 1840 and 1854.

These pupils were Henry Waggoner, Octavius Willis, Newton, Trotter, George, Wm. and Hiram Thornton, and Lucy Ann Hughes (the last five from Mo.) Jacob Todhunter, Robert King, Henrietta Spert, Nancy Hambleton, Ann Eliza Angel, of New Orleans, La., Frances Roberts, of Mobile, Ala., Henry Lusher and David Banks, of Memphis, Tenn., Bob Lawyer, now living at Weaver, Store, Tenn., Benjamin Silkey, Moses Vanmeter, Jackson Holmes, Andrew Moore, Wm. Williams, Miss. Jennie Walker, Eustacia Stewart, Missouri Randall, Tenn.

The following handbill of the school was found in Carroll County, Missouri, at the home of Newton Trotter, who left Mr. Anderson's school in May, 1846:

MCGINTY, PR. Clarksville, Tenn.

Miss Mary S. Breckinridge, of Danville, has been here for several days gathering information regarding Mr. Anderson's work with the deaf, and any one who can furnish her any information, newspaper clippings or any letters of Mr. Anderson will confer a favor by communicating with her at Danville, Ky., or information may be forwarded to this office.

PREPARING SUIT.

Effort to be Made to Break Will.

The late Thomas E. Moss, of Paducah, who died several months ago at Manila, P. I., wrote his will in October, 1904, and his signature was witnessed by James Caldwell, of Paducah, and Col. W. R. Howell, of this city. Mr. Moss left a good estate, but nothing was bequeathed to his oldest son, Jesse Moss, and suit will be filed to break the will on the grounds that his father's ill health mentally incapacitated him before the document was executed, and that he was influenced to leave the property to other relatives.

Was Playing Chess.

Dr. Thomas E. Moss who has just arrived in Manila, Philippine Islands, to assume his duties in the constabulary department, in a letter to Dr. Frank Boyd, gives the exact details of the death of his father, Major Thomas E. Moss, of this city, which have never been known here before. Major Moss died about three months ago, while on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Mary Moss Wheat. Dr. Moss was on his way to the Philippines, when the news of his father's death reached here. Major Moss dropped dead while playing chess with a friend, Captain Wheat.—Paducah News Democrat.
