J. T. WALL & CO.

BYRON NIXON'S WILL PROBATED.

Document Was a Letter to His Brother in This City.

SEVERAL BEQUESTS:

Writing Proven in Court By Several Witnesses.

A letter written by the late J. Byron Nixon to his brother, W. H. Nixon, of this city, was probated as the will of said deceased in the county court Saturday. The letter was written in Los Angeles, Cal., and bears the date of January 2, 1906. Thos. H. Ennis, Joe P. P'Pool and W. H. Nixon proved the writing to be that of the late J. B. Nixon. The document stated in part that the writer desired W. H. Nixon to have all his personal property, jewelry, clothing and money. That he had on that date returned to the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, a policy of $6,000 to have W. H. Nixon made beneficiary. Also that he had returned to the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of New York, a policy of $2,000 for the same purpose. That two policies had been sent to the New York Life Insurance Company, (amounts not given), to have his sister, Eva Nixon, made beneficiary. On these policies it was stated that his sister was to receive $120 a year as long as she lives, but should she not live twenty-five years, after his death, the amount must be paid to some one. Deceased had applied for a policy in the New York Life Insurance Company for $5,000, stating that if same was granted "and I die, I want my brother, J. C. Nixon, to have one-third of this policy, brother Even Nixon one-third, and brother Aaron's wife, Willie V. Townes, one-third." Then the following paragraph appears: "This letter to take the place of a letter to you, dated March, 1904, in regard to the disposition of my estate." The communication ended as follows: "My trip here was hurried, owing to illness of the lady I am engaged to, and since my arrival she has died. This is why I am making these policies over to you at this time. I will be in Hopkinsville Jan. 15, and will go to Pensacola about Feb. 1."

The Pythian Knights.

The local lodge Knights of Pythias attended the services to men only at the Methodist church Sunday night in a body and the line-up was the longest that has been seen in the city for a long time by any one order. Each man in line wore a beautiful carnation, either white, red or pink, with the compliments of their brother Knight, Mr. T. L. Metcalfe, who is one of the most popular members of the order. At the next meeting of the lodge a vote of thanks will be extended Mr Metcalfe for his thoughtful courtesy.

New Manager.

Mr. Thomas Ennis is wearing a broad smile. A bouncing big boy arrived at his house last Sunday afternoon and has taken charge of everybody in the home. The little fellow is decidedly in favor of home rule and the manager of the Opera House is inclined to turn the business over to him.

Fatal Fire.

Lotta Glenn, fifteen years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Glenn, of Daviess county, was burned to death Sunday, her dress catching fire from an open grate.

"Why Smith Left Home"

The U. D. C. entertainment at the Opera House, Friday night, Feb. 16, will draw one of the biggest crowds of the season. The cast of the play is made up of the strongest local talent in the city.

IN DEATH STRUGGLE

Poor Old Tom Hopkins Fought Hard For His Life.

SMOKING WHEN SEIZED.

Story of the Murder As it Occurred in the Darkness of Midnight.

Evidence is accumulating that poor old Tom Hopkins was brutally murdered and his body placed on the L. & N. Railroad track, where it was cut to pieces last Thursday night.

The post mortem examination ordered by County Attorney Duffy on information from Officers Duke and Claxton and Dr. T. W. Blakey, L. & N. physician, after an inquest had been held returning a verdict of accidental death, which changed the whole aspect of things. Dr. Andrew Sargent positively asserted that at least three knife wounds were found on his body, besides numerous cuts made by some sharp instrument, possibly an iron pin.

Subsequent examination of the scene of the murder throws additional light on the murder. Late Wednesday night Hopkins was seen near the Mcme Mills talking to some negroes about taking him to Walter O'Neal's. They disappeared together. The negroes are known. Less than two hours later the old man's mutilated corpse was found. The wounds on his body show that he was seized from behind and reaching over his right shoulder—the old man was short of stature—a knife was raked across his throat, which did not make a deep cut, and a vicious stab was made into his throat and the knife turned round. The jugular vein was not cut and the muscular old Irishman dropped his pipe from his mouth and a scuffle ensued. This struggle carried them to the bottom of an embankment of several feet where the cob pipe still filled with half burned tobacco was picked up. Finally the old man was brought to his knees by the blows on his head. A place on the ground plainly showed the imprint of the cloth over his knee. Then while on his knees or lying prostrate on the ground, the deep lunge was made into his side, making a hole one inch in diameter, four inches to the left of the navel.

Then the old man was dragged up the embankment like a hog and placed upon the railroad track. The place where he was dragged was plainly shown on the bank. The old man may not have been entirely dead when hit by the train, but he was undoubtedly helpless and dying, unable to even crawl out of danger. Dr. Sargent was not sure from the wounds made by the rails whether they were made before or after death. The lacerations were bright red, but the chemicals used may have caused the bright appearance of the wounds. Whether he was dead or merely beaten into insensibility the work was completed in the dead hours of midnight, and the old man's body scattered along the railroad in "San Domingo," one of the most unsavory negro settlements in the county.

The order for $6 which he tried to have cashed the evening before was not found in his pocket. If it had been cashed, the money was gone. This is an important point in the case.

The murder could hardly have been carried out with more brutality. The old man was harmless as a child. He was drinking some, just enough to make him happy and good natured. At 10 o'clock he was singing a jolly song on Ninth street, the last man on earth who would think of suicide. The theory of suicide is ridiculous and not to be considered seriously.

It was murder, bloody, brutal, fiendish murder. It is to be hoped that Gov. Beckham will offer a reward for the apprehension of the fiends who committed the crime. Because Hopkins was old and friendless, is no reason why the crime should be treated lightly.

NEW SCHEDULE.
Hopkinsville Accommodation Leaves Half an Hour Earlier.

A new time card on the L. & N. went into effect Sunday. Only one train out of this city is materially affected by the change. The Hopkinsville and Nashville accomodation now departs at 6:10 a. m., instead of 6:40, or thirty minutes earlier. This train reaches Nashville at 8:55 a. m. Returning, the accomodation leaves Nashville at 5:45 p. m. and reaches Hopkinsville at 8:55 p. m. No. 53, the St. Louis Fast Mail, South bound passes here at 5:47 a. m., meeting no. 92, North bound, at this point. There was a change made in the schedule of Nos. 51 and 52.

A new train has been added between Erin and Nashville, thus giving three trains each morning into Nashville from here and three returning each afternoon. The new train leaves Guthrie at 8:30 a. m., and reaches Nashville at 10:05. This train stops regularly at Springfield, and on signal for passengers to and from Nashville at Cedar Hill, Greenbrier and Ridge Top.
