FIRST SALE OF SEASON

Tobacco Association Made Sale of 17 Hogsheads Thursday.

SATISFACTORY PRICES.

Sale Made Several Weeks Earlier Than That of Last Year.

S. G. Buckner, local salesman, made the first sale of Association tobacco last Thursday. The sale was a light one and is about six weeks in advance of the first sale last season. Seventeen hds. were disposed of at satisfactory prices. W. S. Mathews & Co. and the American Snuff Company were the purchasers.

Now that the season has opened the farmers belonging to the Association may soon expect their products to be disposed of as soon as practicable. Everything is now in readiness and buyers are expected to be wanting the weed right along soon.

The Association priziers have been instructed to use the greatest care in sorting and prizing, that no complaints may be made when the market is at its best. The unusually early sale and the prices obtained augur well for the planters in disposing of the crop now on hand.

Let everybody get busy and let the year 1908 open up in earnest. Things generally have been in a dormant state long enough. The farmers will soon have favorable weather for beginning operations. The merchants are arranging to start East to make their purchases of spring goods and it is time for everybody to begin hustling.

For bargains in real estate call on J. F. ELLIS.

MOVED TO TOWN.

Hon. R. C. Crenshaw is Now One of Us.

The citizens will be glad to learn that Hon. R. C. Crenshaw, ex-State Senator and assistant Commissioner of Agriculture, has moved to the city to make it his permanent home. He has leased the cottage of Mrs. Garnett on East Eighteenth street and is already moving his household effects from Pee Dee. We extend a hearty welcome to Senator Crenshaw and are glad to announce that he has determined to make his future home in the best town in the Commonwealth.

Elegantly Entertained.

Mrs. McAlvin Mabry, formerly Miss Willie Major, and husband left Wednesday morning for their home near Bardwell, Ky., after having enjoyed some of Christian county's royal hospitality.

A six o'clock dinner was given at Mr. and Mrs. John Young's. Miss Gussie, a schoolmate, presided over the sumptuous and elegant repast, and in her natural, sweet and noble manner, saw that every one was well supplied; and afterward invited them into her parlor, where they were charmed by the songs and music of her talented sister, Mrs. Era Garber.

They were also very elegantly entertained by Mesdames E. C. and J. M. Major.

The community, though bereft of one of its most charming and lovable girls, congratulate her upon her noble selection and wish both of them God's best blessings.

A FRIEND.
