CHAMPION'S CONFESSION

Calloway County Night Rider Turns State's Evidence.

TOOK BLOODY OATH.

Implicated Fifteen Men Not Already Under Arrest.

Murray, Ky., April 13.—Though built by careful hands and concealed under oaths of blood and pillage, the castle of the night riders is tumbling down in the Purchase. In the scenes played here today in the circuit court room could be seen the handwriting on the wall, which says that the night rider will be gone forever, and a score of farmers will be in prison before the law has finished its slow but certain work.

Beside the instructions to the grand jury today, which dealt verbally with the subject and declared for order and the enforcement of law, the confession of a member of the band who whipped Al Perry was a feature.

How He Joined.

Macon Champion is the man who made it, and it is in full as follows: "The affiant, Macon Champion, says that a few days before the raid on Al Perry I was at D. L. Thomas' store.—called me out and said: 'Let's join the night riders. There is a whole lot of fun attached to it.' He said that they were working on the road right below the store, and follow him down there; that he could put himself in and me, too.

"Then we all went down to the lane toward Buffalo, and—said that he would get over into the fence corner and get the man out to take us in,—told me to get down on my right knee, and got down, and he got down. He told me to hold up my right hand, and he took a piece of paper out of his coat pocket and read the oath to me. I cannot repeat the oath.

Would Behead Him.

"After giving the oath, which was to the effect that if I gave it away I would be killed, and ended 'so help me God,' he said to me if you do not understand the oath it means this—If you ever tell it that a clique of them would take my head."

Here he mentioned a number of

Hopkinsville Banker Weds
Trigg County Belle.

Bolivar Merchant and Planter
Died Tuesday.

Mr. Samuel W. Wade, bookkeeper of the First National Bank, of this city, and Miss Anna Patterson, of Trigg county, were married yesterday afternoon, at the bride's home five miles east of Cadiz. Mr. and Mrs. Wade reached the city last night and will board with Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Trice on South Main street. The bride is a niece of Mrs. John C. Quick and Mrs. James Carliss, this city, and has frequently visited here. Mr. Wade is one of the most trusted employees of the bank with which he has been connected for several years.

Mr. Samuel M. McKee, one of the leading citizens of the county, died at Bolivar Tuesday morning, aged 52 years. He was stricken with peritonitis four days before. Mr. McKee was a descendant of one of the pioneer families of Hopkinsville, being a nephew of the late H. J. Sharp, and a grandson of one of the city's most distinguished lawyers, Col. Fidelio C. Sharp. He leaves a wife and several children. The burial took place in Riverside cemetery yesterday afternoon.
