T. J. Blaine Passes Away at Home in City.

Thomas J. Blaine died rather suddenly yesterday morning at his home, Twelfth avenue, west. Mr. Blaine had been a sufferer from dropsy for some time and had been confined to his bed several weeks. The immediate cause of death was heart failure. He was 76 years old and is survived by his widow, a stepson and four daughters by a former marriage. The deceased was a member of the K. of P. Lodge and the interment will take place in Riverside Cemetery this morning with the honors of that order.

Funeral services will be held at his late residence at 9 o'clock this morning by Rev. M. A. Jenkins, pastor of the Baptist church, of which he was a member.

SEVENTEEN CONVERTS.

At the Baptist Tent on O'Neill Street.

The protracted meeting in the Baptist tent on O'Neill street will continue this week with Rev. Millard A. Jenkins doing the preaching. Evangelist J. W. Rose, who conducted the meeting for two weeks, has gone to LaFayette to hold a meeting, but the interest here was so great that Dr. Jenkins concluded to keep the meetings going another week himself, if the weather will permit.

Up to Sunday there had been 17 additions to the church, nearly all of them adults. There was no service held Sunday night at the tent, but 8 recent converts were baptized at the service held in the church. The meeting has been successful beyond expectations and large crowds have attended every night.

FOUNDERS' WEEK ODE.

Specially Written for the Big Philadelphia Celebration, by Frederick Phinney, Commemorating the City's 25th Birthday.

"Philadelphia Maneto," the new ode to the city, written especially for the Founders' Week celebration, was played for the first time last night. Prof. A. R. K. Brainard, the organist at Cooper Memorial M. E. Church, played it there during the services last night. The new ode was written by Frederick Phinney, and was dedicated to the people of Philadelphia. He took his title from the motto on the seal of the city. "Philadelphia Maneto" means "let brotherly love continue," and such is the spirit of the song.

During Founders' Week the song will be everywhere in evidence. It will be especially featured every morning during the presentation of the musical-historical drama entitled "Philadelphia," and to be presented every day on Franklin Field, at the University. It is expected that it will be taken up and become the one piece of patriotic music deemed particularly fitting upon all occasions during the week. It will be sung at all the churches as part of the various services which they will hold, and at all public gatherings where music is a feature.

It is being printed by the author, and will be widely distributed. The words are as follows:—

Philadelphia, thou art so fair,
Thou art the City of Brotherly Love;
Thy gates are open that all may share,
Life, light and happiness like that above.

—Evening Times.

Mr. Phinney will bring this famous organization to Hopkinsville, on Oct. 15, for matinee and night performance. The celebrated Phinney U. S. Band, with eight (8) Grand Opera singers. Popular prices will prevail, and we predict crowded houses for both performances. This will be the musical event of the entire season.

STANLEY SPEAKS TO BIG CROWD.

He Answered Wortham and Franks and Gets Much Applause.

HITS LAWLESSNESS.

Speech Reported in Full and Will Be Published in Its Entirety.

Congressman Stanley spoke yesterday at the Court House. He was introduced by Col. Jouett Henry and at once pitched into his opponent, John S. Wortham, who failed to be on hand for a joint discussion. He also paid his respects to E. T. Franks in vigorous style, after saying there was no difference between them in being opposed to lawlessness.

He declared that if the charge that he had incited lawlessness were true, he ought to be in prison instead of in Congress. He denounced the incendiary as a criminal of most despicable character, declared that the man who endorses and abets this lawlessness is worse than the ignorant and guilty wretch who wields the torch and declared that the trust magnate was worse still. Said he had denounced lawlessness with vigor, as the safety and prosperity of the people depended on the law. He spoke for nearly two hours and was cheered enthusiastically. His speech was taken down and will be published in full.

LIGHT SHOWERS

Came as Relief to Drouth Stricken Section.

The long drouth was broken Sunday night by rain which began falling about 6:30 o'clock and continued nearly all night. It was not a heavy rain, but much good will result from the showers. Sunday was a very warm day, but the temperature dropped about 45 degrees by yesterday morning and heavy wraps and light overcoats were in order all day yesterday. Light frost was predicted for last night, but little damage could result from frost now, as about all the tobacco has been cut and gardens have long since become bare. The forecast for today is partly cloudy and cooler.

SUNDAY SHOOTING.

Sylvester Dickinson Wounded With Bird Shot.

Sylvester Dickinson was shot, it is said, by Stephen Meriwether, near the L. & N. trestle, one mile south of the city, Sunday. The parties are colored. About two weeks ago Meriwether was shot in the foot near the same point and it is claimed that he accused Dickinson of having shot him. Dickinson was wounded in the breast with small shot and his injuries are not considered serious. Meriwether was arrested by Marshal Jackson, of Pembroke, and brought to jail here.

UNIFORM RANK K. OF P.

Fall Festival and Carnival Oct. 5th to 10th.

It is now an absolute fact that the Great Cosmopolitan Shows are coming. They will pay us a visit for one week, beginning Oct. 5th to 10th. The executive committee of the Uniform Rank closed contracts some time ago. We have had carnivals, street fairs, gala weeks and numerous other attractions to entertain our people, but never have we had the opportunity to secure such an elaborate affair as the Great Cosmopolitan Shows, managed by that world-renowned showman, Mr. J. R. Anderson. Should you stop to consider in detail the magnitude of this elaborate affair you would hardly believe your own convictions. Nevertheless it is universally known that the Great Cosmopolitan Shows has its own specific train of 36 cars, equal to a train of 40 ordinary cars, to transport it from town to town. They have their own electric light plant sufficient to supply them with 1,000 lights. This plant was built especially for this world famed aggregation. The Great Cosmopolitan Shows were well named as it is the grandest and most elaborate cosmopolitan attractions from all climes and quarters of the globe. The lady and gentleman wild animal trainers being especially imported from Germany for this show. This will without a doubt will be the largest and grandest show of its kind ever held in Hopkinsville. Mr. Sidney Belmont, who has been looking after the interest of the show prior to its arrival has promised us a show never before equaled in the history of our city. The Uniform Rank are congratulating themselves upon securing so high grade an attraction. Let every one boost for the boys, so as to encourage them to mightier deeds of valor than those done at Lexington a short time ago. The shows will be held at Mercer Park for one solid week, from Monday, Oct. 5 to Saturday night, Oct. 10th.

Romeo, a thoroughbred Shetland pony, 3 years old, will be given to the most popular child up to 15 years of age. Other interesting and novel features will be announced later. Let everybody boost for the Uniform Rank K. of P. boys and make this a holiday success.
