

SCHOOL DISMISSES

On Account of Typhoid Fever in Georgetown.

Georgetown, Ky., Dec. 4.—Jack Covington, aged eighteen, a student in Georgetown College, died here yesterday of typhoid fever. His sister was with him when he died.

The body was shipped to his home at Hazlehurst, Miss., this morning. The college has been dismissed until January 5 on account of the epidemic of typhoid fever raging here.

There are said to be 125 cases of typhoid in town, though there have been but few deaths.

"Generally debilitated for years, Had sick headaches, lacked ambition, was worn out and all run down, Burdock Blood Bitters made me a well woman."—Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Moosup, Conn.

Class Honors.

The girl graduate who carries off the honors of her class deserves all the good things that can be said of her, and can afford to laugh at the bad jokes that are made at her expense. She has worked hard and studied hard, and the honors that have come to her are well worth the winning.—Baltimore American.

OUTSIDE THE STATE

Pooled Tobacco May Be Sold.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 4.—The case of Owen O'Bannin vs. Commonwealth, from Owen county, was reversed by the Court of Appeals. O'Bannin pooled his tobacco with the Burley Association, but the contract permitted the shipping of tobacco to Cincinnati.

It was shipped there, and while there O'Bannin sold it. He was indicted for so doing and fined $216, under the Crecelius law. The court holds O'Bannin guiltless because the sale was made out of the State.

Purer Air.

The injury to commerce and the amenities of life, to say nothing as to the lowering of the vitality of the people, would surely justify some combination of bounties and penalties to aid in attaining to a higher standard of purity in the air which we breathe.—Lancet.

Idaho Actor's Wardrobe.

Tommy Post, one of the many stage folk living at the house on Grove street burned recently, was the heaviest loser of the actors stopping there. He lost a nightshirt and a red bandana handkerchief, and the leg of one of his trousers was water-soaked. He will take immediate steps to replenish his wardrobe.—Idaho Statesman.

Not What They Seemed.
