STUPID SHEEP.

They Are About the Most Senseless of All Animals.
A Colorado ranchman declares that no animal that walks is as big a fool as a sheep.
"We have to watch them every minute, and if vigilance is relaxed for an instant the entire flock is likely to practically commit suicide. In handling most animals some degree of self help or intelligence can be relied on to aid the owner in saving their lives, but sheep seem to set deliberately to work to kill themselves.
"If caught in a storm on the plains they will drift before the wind and die of cold and exposure rather than move a hundred yards to windward to obtain shelter in their corral. To drive sheep against the wind is absolutely impossible. I once lost over 1,000 head because I could not drive them to a corral not 200 feet away.
"In the corral they are still more foolish. If a storm comes up they all move 'down wind' until stopped by the fence. Then commences the proceeding so much dreaded by sheepmen known as 'piling.' The sheep will climb over each other's backs until they are heaped up ten feet high. Of course all those at the bottom are smothered. Not one has sense enough to seek shelter under the lee of the fence, as a horse or dog would do.
"Again, if a sheep gets into a quicksand its fate teaches nothing to those that come immediately after, but the whole flock will follow its leader to destruction. No more exasperatingly stupid animal than a sheep walks."
—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A CHINESE STORY.

The Noted Liar Who Had a Fairly Competent Spouse.
A noted liar once told a friend that he had at home three precious things—a bullock which could run 500 miles a day, a fowl which crowed at the beginning of each watch, day and night, and a dog that could read books. The friend intimated that he would lose no time in seeing these marvels with his own eyes. The man did not expect this, as his house was somewhat distant, so he went home and told his wife that he had got caught at last and that tomorrow the man would arrive and he would be disgraced.
"Never mind," said the spouse. "Leave that to me. It will be all right, only you must keep out of sight."
Next morning the visitor arrived and, being met by the mistress, asked where her husband was.
"He has gone to Pekin," she replied. "When will he be back?"
"In eight or nine days."
"Why, how can he be so quick?"
"He has gone off on our fast bullock and so can do it easily."
"I hear you have also a wonderful fowl," said the visitor. And, behold, as he was speaking a small cock crew.
"That's it," said the wife. "He crows at the beginning of each watch and also when a visitor arrives."
"I would also like to see the learned dog," he said.
"Ah," said she, "I am sorry; but you see, we are very poor, and so he keeps a school in the city."
—Scrap Book.

Left Him In Doubt.
A certain young artist in New York who is on terms of comparative intimacy with the janitor of the apartment house wherein he maintains his studio is in some doubt whether the said janitor is a cynic or something of an art critic, or both.
"One day while doing a bit of repair work in the studio," says the painter, "Mike scrutinized a bit of my work with ominous solemnity. When I indicated a portrait of myself the blow fell. Said I:
"The paint on this is badly cracked, which spoils the likeness."
"With no more expression in his countenance than is to be seen in the face of a representative of Buddha Mike replied:
"Not at all, sir."
Training Canaries.
In the canary breeding establishments of Germany only the male birds are valued, because the females never sing. The method of training the birds to sing is to put them in a room where there is an automatic whistle, which they all strive to imitate. The breeder listens to the efforts of the birds and picks out the most apt pupils, which are then placed in another room for further instruction. These are the best singers and ultimately fetch high prices.
