MILITARY SYSTEM.

The Way Germany Handles Her Reserves in Case of War.

Nobody who has visited Germany can fail to have been struck by the large official signboards at the entry to each town or village. These contain full information as to exactly which official in the community to apply to should the magic word "mobilize" be spoken.

Wherever the German reservist may chance to be when the order to mobilize is given—assuming, of course, that he is not out of the country—he has only got to ask the first inhabitant or walk to the end of the village and look at the directions on the signboard to find out his own particular place in the military scheme. He will see that he must go to Herr Schmidt, at 40 Schutzen street. Herr Schmidt will tell him exactly in which town he has to go in order to rejoin his own unit and, what is still more important, will give him the money and the railway pass to take him there.

Arrived at his destination, he will find his uniform, arms and accoutrements piled neatly in a heap, with a label bearing his name and regimental number on the top of the heap. He has only to put it on and take his place among the comrades with whom he did his military service some years ago.

This destination was arranged upon many years back, and the exact time schedule for marching and railway journeys was compiled long since.—Pearson's Weekly.

THE BASQUES.

An Interesting People Who Are a Puzzle Among Nations.

The Basque provinces lie in the north of Spain, and, although for centuries students have tried to trace the real origin of the people and find a key to their language, they have failed to do so.

All other known tongues spoken by the sons of men have been shown to possess a common origin, traceable to the Arabic and Semitic. But the Basque language has entirely resisted the philologist. In some aspects the vernacular shows traces of a Chinese admixture. In others it is clear that North American Indian terms are native to it. It also shows traces of barbaric languages spoken on the east coast of Africa.

The people themselves bear physiological traits found in those who speak the said tongues. The native name of Basqueland is Eskuara, and their motto is "Irunchat," or "Three In One." Nor is their political structure anything like that of any known political body, though they belong, of course, to Spain. Each Basque province is governed by a parliament composed of representatives—selected partly by election, partly by lot—among the householders of each country parish or town. Their laws are essentially peculiar to themselves and are conceived on no known code either of ancient or mediæval times. They are a puzzle among nations and number half a million all told.—New York World.

Paper Which is Waterproof.

In Japan there is a paper made which is impervious to water, being made of bamboo fibers and eucalyptus mixed with the fibers of the gampi and some other shrubs. The fibers are first torn apart, made dry, cleaned and scraped, boiled in a weak lye and thoroughly washed in water, after which they are beaten and then mixed with certain roots made into a viscous state. A solution containing resin, caoutchouc and camphor is also added. A sort of pulp is thus formed and then made into sheets, which are run through a calendaring machine heated to various temperatures. The result is that a paper is produced which is exceedingly tough, light and which may be washed. The Japanese use it for leather imitations and india rubber.—Pathfinder.

Northern Australia.

Australia's huge northern territory has a tropical, almost an equatorial, climate, and the heat is very enervating to Europeans. Its capital, Palmerston, contains more Chinese than Caucasians. The former are the ruling race and the employers; the whites are the servile and the employed. Large herds of buffaloes roam about the silent plains of this enormous territory, which would be a sportsman's paradise but for the wild natives, who are exceptionally fierce and treacherous and have killed a number of the hunters who came to hunt the buffaloes.

His Marathon Record.

"Colonel," asked the beautiful girl, "did you ever ride a horse ninety miles in three days?"
"No," replied the veteran of two wars, "but I once ran twenty miles in about thirty minutes, which, I think, was going some, considering the fact that the underbrush was thick, and I was in so much of a hurry that I forgot to throw away a knapsack that weighed nearly fifty pounds."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Counts Up.

"My dear," he said in a mildly reproachful tone, "I have no doubt at all that you are a good bargain hunter and that you always get really excellent bargains, but you get too many of them."—Chicago Post.

No Reason.

She—I think you might stop smoking when you heard me say I don't like it. He—That's no reason. I heard you say you didn't like to be kissed.—Boston Transcript.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION.

Chicago's Greatest Amusement Enters prize Completed at a Cost of $5,000,000.

None of Chicago's other marvelous achievements equal the great amusement enterprise it has just launched, RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION.

This exposition surpasses everything of its character since the original World's Fair. Five million dollars was expended to make it a crowning gem in Chicago's career of beautiful parks. Last season 7,500,000 persons visited the exposition. This year it will accommodate 10,000,000. Chicago would be incomplete without a visit there.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION surpasses Caesar's ancient Circus Maximus where 5,000 dancers entertained Rome. Five thousand dancers could be lost in any one of its courts, esplanades, causeways or wooded groves. That many show girls, trick riders, Indians and cowboys are used in its "Frontier Day Fetes" alone.

Twice as many are accommodated in the amphitheater where Mexican bull fights occur. Wild bulls and daring Toradors daily enact thrilling contests for life and death. A Spanish band of 100 pieces discourses national music. Many military bands render open air concerts. The industrial exhibit includes wireless telegraphy, flying machines, dirigible balloons, aeroplanes and other mechanical marvels.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION'S matchless attraction is "The Creation." This stupendous scenic spectacle, headed by the Exhibition of the Garden of Eden, is destined to attract world-wide attention. It is the product of the genius of E. McConnell, and his several world's fairs, and his several hundred artists.

The scene is the Valley of the Euphrates, where tradition locates the birthplace of man. The background of the production as man may conceive the great religious drama closely follows the Scriptures.

There is first a void, then darkness, dawn and light, separation of the earth and the waters, the beginning of life in the air and the waters, birds and fishes, creeping and crawling forms, celestial anthems of unseen spirit hosts, the creation of Adam and Eve, their temptation, transgression and expulsion by Angel Gabriel, who drives them forth with a flaming sword.

A great 25,000 pipe organ intones appropriate music. Its deep tubes produce thunder, and its flute-like notes the mimicry of forest small life. Flashes of lightning and angry storms are made by electrical and water effects. Space forbids an adequate description of this magnificent spectacle.

Another great novelty is "The Basin," an English panorama. Fifty horses attached to chaises raise over the highway to Coventry.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION'S "Court of Honor" has never been equaled in the Ancient Hanging Gardens of Babylon. Its center is a lagoon of crystal water, through which dash rivers of silver and gold fish. The lagoon sides are fringed with emerald fountains of stately Lombardy poplars. Cascade fountains play prismatic spray high overhead and cooling air is blown downward into the lagoon. Crystal facades and white pavilions gleam through the trees as a marble setting for the beautiful landscape.

Over Niagara Falls, retrogressing on a mammoth scale the famous waterfalls.

The inspiring strains of great bands, softer tones of orchestras, sounds of merriment from joyous throngs, swift waters and forestry, gay show-places, the whirl of aerial cars and flying machines, whistles of primitive vocalization of the "Ranch," chanting "rooting" anthems in the park, the silver river that flows to the river that flows to the park, and many part pleasing make RIVERVIEW a place of the world has.
