The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Fair and nuch colder Tuesday.

The local option workers are preparing for a vigorous campaign before the coming Legislature.

The Yale-Princeton football contest Saturday was won by Yale by the score of 17 to 0.

Hon. John G. Carlisle is very ill in a New York hospital and while he is in no immediate danger, his malady is one that is liable to result fatally, a kidney trouble.

Royal Vogel, a schoolboy, injured two weeks ago in a football game, died at Grand Rapids, O. A blood vessel in his head was ruptured and he was unconscious for thirteen days.

The defendants and witnesses from this county in the night rider damage suits in Federal court at Paducah, yesterday, were notified Sunday that they need not come, as the cases would be postponed.

Judge J. F. Gordon had a close call for circuit judge in the Fourth district. His majority is only 209.
His own county gave him 99 majority. He was saved by a Democratic gain of 255 votes in Crittenden county.

It is not often that there are two total eclipses in the same month.
There will be a second one for this month on the 27th. This time it will be the moon. The first one was the eclipse of the Republican party on Nov. 2.

In the football game of Virginia versus Georgetown University Saturday afternoon, at Washington, Archibald Christian, of Virginia, halfback, sustained serious injuries of the spine. He has slight hope of recovery.

The celebrated trial of Mme. Mar-gherita Steinheil, at Paris, ended with an acquittal after the jury had deliberated two hours. Mme.
Steinheil was charged with the murder of her husband and her stepmother.

Will James, a negro who partially confessed to the murder of Miss Annie Pelley, at Cairo, Ill., was hanged Tuesday night to the public arch in that city by a mob of 10,000 persons.
James' body was riddled by bullets and afterward burned at the scene of the murder.

Acting Governor Cox appointed A. D. Wells, County Judge of Menifee county, to succeed W. L. Craig, who resigned because of his election to the Legislature. Wells is the Democratic County Judge-elect and Governor Cox felt it would be the proper thing to name him for the place.

Fountain L. Thompson, of Cando, N. D., was appointed United States senator by Gov. Burke to fill out the unexpired term of Senator M. N.
Johnson, who died three weeks ago.
Thompson will make the third northern Democrat in the United States senate. The others being Shively, of Indiana, and Chamberlain, of Oregon. Although North Dakota is Republican, a Democratic governor was elected last fall.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is actively closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

A LOAFERS' PARADISE

Life of the Happy-go-lucky West Indian Negroes.

LAZY JOY FOR LITTLE WORK.

Six Months' Labor Enables Them to Loll in Indolence For a Year and a Half—Combing the Islands For Men
For the Sugar Plantations.

A happy-go-lucky, stand up and fall down, genial, inconsequential spirit announces the West Indian negroes in their labors and in their begging.
From the sweating toilers on the dock at Macoris loading sugar into the steamers, with their warning cry, "Bee-low!" to the men in the hold, to the grinning boys hauling their fishing boats up on the beach at Dominica, they live from day to day and take no thought of the morrow. A West Indian negro with $50 will live for a year and never do a stroke of work.

And why not? His living costs him only 9 cents a day. He has his little cabin for the occupancy. A mango tree grows in his yard, and he can pick plantains by the road at will. If he is too lazy to bake 5 cents will buy bread for the family for the day, and a few cents more will buy a dozen small fish and one large one. A single garment does for the women, and $5 will clothe the man for a year, while the pickaninnies run as God made them.

The West Indies are the paradise of the happy loafer. Every year the islands are combed from end to end for hands to work the great sugar plantations in Santo Domingo, and at that the negroes must often be practically kidnaped to get them on the boats.

In November of each year the sugar boats, little sloops and schooners that spend the remainder of the year trading among the islands get into the Santo Domingo negro trade. Their captains and supercargoes, when they have them, and the owners go up and down the islands telling the negroes that on a certain day the vessel will sail for Santo Domingo and take all who want to go to work on the sugar plantations.

Take the little island of St. Martin's for illustration. For a week the island is combed, and on the appointed day a dozen sloops and schooners are crowded into Marigot bay. The night before the negroes have begun to stream into the little town that sleeps through the year, waiting for this one day to bring it to life. Boards are laid across boxes, and rum and whisky are set out to arouse the negroes to the pitch that will carry them out to the vessels bound for the plantations.

All day the men stream into the town, traveling barefooted along the sandy roads, swept in by the sailors, singing their song of riches to be had for the asking. Ahead of the men walk their women, toting heavy boxes on their heads, while the men are dressed in their best, with a cocky straw hat perched on one ear, swinging a dandy cane and carrying their shoes in their hands. At the outskirts of the town they put on their shoes and swing nearly up to the open air bars on the beach.

The women lug the big boxes down to the beach and wall at being left alone until they, too, become filled with the excitement of the scene and urge their men folks on. The men hang back and laugh and drink and deny that they are going.

"Is you goin', Big Tawm?"
"Naw, Ah ain' goin'. Ah jus' come tuh see."

"Yas, yo' is goin', Big Tawm. Git in dat boat."

"Come on heah, boy. Ya ha!"

And all the time the rowboats, loaded to the gunwales, are plying back and forth between the shore and the sloops. By sundown the beach is swept clean and six little sloops and a schooner make sail and drift out of the harbor on a dying breeze, loaded down with a thousand black men and women, who will wake in the morning with a raging thirst. Then woe be to the captain who has not filled his water casks, for there is sure to be at least one body to be given to the sharks after the fight around the butts!

When the vessels drop anchor off Macoris the plantation foremen come off and look over the cargoes and pay the shipmasters $2.50 each for passage money for the negroes. Then the blacks are herded ashore and are credited with 30 cents a day for a month for working from sunrise to sunset in the cane fields. By that time the $2.50 passage money is paid back. Then they receive their 30 cents a day in cash for the next six months until the cutting and grinding season is over, when the sloops show up again and take them to their homes for $2.50 each, paid in advance.

The foremen collect from the plantation owners 63 cents a day each for pay for the black hands, but with their share of the money the negroes can live for a year and a half before they have to think of doing another day's work. And they do it. Year after year the trade is piled, and the islands are combed for men for the plantations, and year after year the negroes return home to eighteen months of lazy joy.—New York Tribune.

Groundhog.

Teacher was telling her class little stories in natural history, and she asked if any one could tell her what a groundhog was. Up went a little hand, waving frantically.

"Well, Carl, you may tell us what a groundhog is."

"Please, ma'am, it's sausage."—Everybody's Magazine.
