SIX NEW GOVERNORS

Were Inducted Into Office Last Monday, Half Democrats.

POLITICAL CHANGES

John A. Dix First Democrat In New York In 18 Years.

Six new Governors, four of them representing different political parties than their predecessors, were inaugurated in the United States Monday. In three of the states the changes represent gains to the Democratic ranks, the fourth, Nevada, by inaugurating Tasker L. Oddie, now has its first Republican Chief Executive in nearly a score of years.

Following are the states in which new Chief Executives took their offices:

New York—John A. Dix (Dem.), succeeds Horace White (Rep.).

Wisconsin—F. E. McGovern (Rep.), succeeds James Davidson (Rep.).

Michigan—Chas. Osborne (Rep.), succeeds Fred M. Warner (Rep.).

Wyoming—Joseph Carey (Dem.), succeeds B. B. Brooks (Rep.).

Idaho—James H. Hawley (Dem.), succeeds J. H. Brady (Rep.).

Nevada—Tasker L. Oddie (Rep.), succeeds D. C. Dickerson (Dem.).

Governor Dix, the first Democratic Governor in New York in 18 years, took his oath of office amid a brilliant gathering, the great assembly chamber at the Capitol building at Albany being filled with notables. The inauguration of Gov. Osborne, on the other hand, was marked by extreme simplicity. He had appointed no military staff and assumed his position in the parlor of the executive suite before only friends and relatives.

In the states where the advent of the new Governor was marked by a change in the political complexion the tendency to make the inauguration a celebration which was more marked. Republicans from the mountains of Nevada, many of whom were compelled to endure a journey involving long trips by carriages and on horseback, flocked from all portions of the state to witness a Republican take the reins in the highest office in the state.

LITTLE CEREMONY

When Four Judges of Court Of Appeals Take Oath

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 2.—The process of changing Chief Justices and the swearing in four new members of the Court of Appeals this morning were accompanied by as little ceremony as is possible for such an occasion.

Judges Settle, Lassing and Nunn, who were re-elected, and Judge Shackelford Miller, of Louisville, who succeeded Judge Henry S. Barker, were all sworn in in open court by Clerk Napier Adams, and Judge Hobson, who succeeds to the chief justiceship because he has been longer on the bench than any of the other judges, was inducted into office without any pomp or ceremony whatever.

NATIVE OF CHRISTIAN

Dies In Paducah After Brief Illness.

Mrs. M. F. Ashbrook, formerly of Christian county, died Monday at her home in Paducah, after a brief illness, of pneumonia, aged 73 years. She was the widow of Jeff Ashbrook, who died nearly thirty years ago. She was a member of the Christian church. The Ashbrooks moved from Christian to McCracken county many years ago.

BIG FIRE IN LITTLE ROCK

Property to Value of $1,000,000 Goes Up in Smoke.

OTHER NEW YEAR FIRES

Granville, N. Y., Hard Hit For Lack of Water Supply.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 3.—Fire, originating in the Hollenberg Musical Company's building, destroyed the entire block of business houses here this morning, the loss of the buildings and stock and goods amounting to $1,000,000.

The burned buildings were owned by Gov. Donaghey, the Fulk estate and the Elizabeth Shall estate. No casualties occurred.

WATER SUPPLY FAILED.

Troy, N. Y., Jan. 4.—The business section of Granville, N. Y., a village of 5,000 inhabitants about fifty miles north of this city, was swept by fire early yesterday with a loss of $300,000. The absolute failure of the water supply at the critical moment owing to a stoppage of the intake pipe at the reservoir which supplies the village gave the flames full sway.

FOUGHT WITH BICKETS.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 4.—Fire, which started from sparks from a chimney here Monday night caused an estimated loss of $100,000 in the wholesale district.

The hotel seemed doomed, but bucket brigades saved it. The temperature was two degrees above zero.

BIG SANDY RAILROAD.

Engineer, Conductor And Four Other Victims.

Ashland, Ky., Jan. 3.—A wreck on the Miller's Creek branch of the Big Sandy railroad last night resulted in the death of six persons, engineer, conductor and four others. The bodies were brought to Louisa and Ashland this morning.

The dead are: William Akers, brakeman, Cattelburg; John Worley, conductor, Louisa; L. G. Pinson, Van Lear; F. E. Fugate, Van Lear; Lemuel Mills, Van Lear; L. A. Smeltzer, Ironton, O.

The train was in charge of Conductor Worley, and ran into loaded cars on the main line. The property loss to the company is enormous. The line is operated by the Consolidated Coal Company and runs between Miller's Creek, three miles above Paintsville, and Van Lear. A crew had left the cars on the main line track into which the train crashed.

TWO MET DEATH.

Nitroglycerin Set Off With Deathly Effect.

Irvine, Ky., Jan. 3.—Two persons were killed and another probably fatally injured by the explosion of a can of nitroglycerin at the home of Mrs. Joseph Winstead, one mile from Irvine, last Saturday night. The dead are:

Elbert Winstead, aged 15 years.

Sam Spivey, aged 35 years.

Mrs. Joseph Winstead, mother of the dead boy, was so badly hurt by the explosion that her death is expected.

The Winstead boy found an old can containing something and set it by the fire to thaw. Soon after the high explosive let go with a deafening report that was heard for miles around. The Winstead boy and Spivey were instantly killed.

The house was demolished by the explosion and caught fire from the stove, which was blown to pieces.

ANARCHISTS IN LAST FIGHT

Bloody Battle to The Death In The Heart of London.

FOUGHT LIKE BEASTS.

The Desperate Gang Finally Wiped Out by The Aid of Fire.

London, January 4.—Battling to the grim end against desperate odds "Peter the Painter" and "Dutch Fritz," reputed anarchists, went to death yesterday shouting defiance to the laws of England.

It is believed four companions perished with them in the flames that consumed their den in Sydney Street, not far from the heart of London.

This afternoon only the charred bodies of the two desperadoes, wanted for the assassination of three policemen two weeks ago, had been recovered.

When their house had been riddled with bullets from the guns of police and soldiers and set on fire, the trapped men clambered to the roof and there made their last stand firing at the crowds below and jeering their assailants until the upper supports of the building gave way and the outlaws were swallowed up in the seething flames.

Such a battle between officers of the law and criminals seldom has been waged. Discovered in their hiding place, the handful of terrorists stood off the two half companies of Scots Guards from the tower of London, several detachments of armed police, a battery of horse artillery with three machine guns and a gatling gun and a fire brigade until their home was fired.

BEN WATT,

Kentucky Editor Catches on in Oklahoma.

Oklahoma, City, Okla., Jan. 4.—The old adage, "You can't keep a squirrel on the ground," was fully exemplified here when Governor-elect Lee Cruise, himself an expatriated Kentuckian, announced the appointment of Ben Watt, an erstwhile Kentuckian, to the responsible office of executive clerk, one of the choicest places at his disposal. This is a constitutional office, with a fixed term and good salary attached.

Ben Watt, who is an old Bowling Green, Ky., boy, came to Oklahoma several years ago to accept a place on the New-State Tribune, Gov. Haskell's paper in this city. He quickly made good, and retires from the managing editorship of the paper to assume his new State office.

NO WATER

And a Clarksville Residence Was Burned.

Clarksville, Tenn., January 4.—Flames destroyed the home of Mrs. Sam Hyman on Robb Avenue, in this city, Monday at noon. The building and all of the contents except a piano and a few furnishings were totally destroyed, and it is said were only partially covered by insurance. The firemen were unable to render any effective assistance owing to an absence of water, the hydrant nearest the house being entirely useless, while the supply of hose was insufficient to connect another hydrant more removed.

Gov. T. Oddie.

The new Governor of Nevada is named T. Oddie. When the governors hold their next national meeting, the Nevada executive will no doubt find himself warming up to the governors of North and South Carolina.

IN TYPICAL WESTERN STYLE

A Passenger Train Is Held Up Near Ogden And Robbed

KILLED TWO PORTERS.

No Passengers Escaped The Hold-up, The Loss Being $2,000.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 4.—Southern Pacific train No. 1, the Overland Limited, west-bound, was held-up by two masked bandits at an early hour yesterday morning at Reese, nine miles west of Ogden. One negro porter, William Davis, was shot and instantly killed, and another porter, A. W. Taylor, was mortally wounded. A passenger was slightly wounded. One hundred passengers on the train were relieved of their valuables. The robbers did not attempt to enter the express car, but devoted their entire attention to the Pullmans, where they made a rich haul among the California-bound passengers, holding the train for more than an hour.

The train proceeded westward. No passengers escaped the robbers, and the trainmen also lost their jewelry and money.

The money loss among the passengers was from $2,000 to $2,500.

EARTHQUAKE COMING

Tremors Noticed at Mobile For Nearly Two Weeks.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 2.—Almost continuous trembling of the seismograph at the Spring Hill college here has caused Prof. C. Ruhlmann to issue a warning of a great seismic upheaval, which he says is sure to come in the immediate future. Constantly increasing tremors have been recorded at Spring Hill college since Dec. 23, the tendency being south to north and these, says the scientists, forecast a disturbance of great intensity and wide range at no distant date. From the tremors it is believed that the center of the disturbance is about 2,000 miles to the south.

Another Big Horse Sale.

The announcement that the Kentucky Sales Company, Lexington, Ky., will hold their spring sale of saddle horses February 13 to 18, will meet with favorable and ready response from the leading saddle horse breeders from every section. It would be well to write early for space in their catalogue.—Farmers Home Journal.
