AMOSS CASE WILL GO TO THE JURY SOMETIME TO-DAY

Taking of Testimony Closed Tuesday And Argument Was Begun at 9 O'clock Yesterday.

R. S. Warfield Given a Good Character By Many Witnesses.

ORDER OF SPEAKING.
• John Kelly, Defense.
• County Attorney, John C. Duffy.
• Thos. P. Cook, Defense.
• Jas. C. Sims, Prosecution.
• W. T. Fowler, Defense.
• S. Y. Trimble, Prosecution.
• Chas. H. Bush, Defense.
• Com. Atty. Denny P. Smith.

The evidence in the trial of Dr. Amoss was completed shortly after noon Tuesday. Jno. W. Kelly, the attorney charged with being a night rider, was put on the stand and denied being a night rider, or that he was in the Hopkinsville raid as stated by Arthur and Carl Cooper. He said he was in the much talked of hunting camp between the rivers and did not hear of the raid until Sunday morning, when a paper was brought to the camp. He said he was in camp from Tuesday until Monday Dec. 9. Guy Dunning was not there while he was. Denied that he met Amoss and Dunning in Paducah when raid was discussed. Denied that he was in the raid or that Cooper saw him. Denied that he told Cooper he would be killed if he didn't quit running with soldiers. Said he saw a band of night riders, about 40, one night coming down Hill Street in Cadiz, was County Attorney. Didn't know whence they came nor where they went. In March 1908, Has no sympathy with night riders nor any man who will injure another's property. Did not investigate the raid, but held an investigation in regard to death of Gray, in my office. As soon as I obtained testimony brought it to Hopkinsville. Didn't hear Gray was killed until I got back to Cadiz and found out he had been carried home by masked men about 12 o'clock Saturday night. Never saw Amoss at Cadiz but once. Never met him at Gracey before these indictments. Have met him at Wallonia. Never saw him at Guthrie. The raiders should be punished.

Jno. L. Grayot, Smithland, Commonwealth's Attorney, testified that Sanford Hall's reputation was bad. Curtis Moorfield, Cadiz, said he saw Milton Oliver in Cadiz, March 1910. Attempted to relate a conversation held not competent.

Jno. T. King, Cadiz, lawyer, 30 years old, denied that he left Cadiz to take part in raid, never took night rider oath, was in Cadiz night of Dec. 6, attending meeting at Baptist church with Herman Cox. Went to John Kelly's home (my sister's) Kelly in camp. Didn't see men gathering. Heard of raid next morning. Heard of Gray's death Sunday afternoon. Saw undertaker Humble going to bury him. Never heard of Clancy McCool being wounded. Traveled 1906 and 1907 at night, never saw band of men riding at night. Knew of no night riders in Trigg county. Wouldn't know one if I saw him.

Judge C. H. Bush stated that he was not employed the day after the raid. Was never attorney for the night rider organization. He was employed to defend Dr. Amoss last May. Was here night of raid, but knew nothing of it until six o'clock next morning. A short time afterwards I refused to accept employment to prosecute these cases. Was employed to defend Geo. Powell when he was first tried.

DEFENSE CLOSED.
John King recalled said: I was in Hopkinsville last Friday and in the presence of G. E. Dalton I stated Herman Cox and I were at church that night and heard a lady say "I saw you all sitting there and wondered how far the boys were on the road." J. R. Quarles recalled said, I saw about 25 people coming in the direction of Hopkinsville. Once or twice I saw similar bands, going towards Wallonia. Perhaps two months before the raid. Don't know whether they lived in Cadiz or not. The second bunch I saw was nine o'clock, going towards Canton, about 30 or 40, traveling in a trot in front of the court house. Were masked. John Kelly was county attorney. Never saw them drilling on streets. Never knew Dr. Amoss.

Chas. M. Meacham testified to seeing Dr. Amoss in Hopkinsville, on Saturday night Dec. 7, to best of his knowledge and belief. Was talking to Ward Headley at corner of Ninth and Virginia streets when Dr. Amoss passed and he and Headley spoke to each other. Was after supper, witness was enroute to Hotel Latham to see Fire Marshal Ayres, who had just arrived. Had seen Headley that day in forenoon. Positive I saw Amoss. Rumor had been heard that he was shot. They said to each other "How are you Ward" and "How are you Dave."

J. F. Dixon said he lived at Howell and saw Dr. Amoss about 3 days after the raid, at Howell in his store, didn't talk to him. Howell is twelve miles from Hopkinsville and three miles from Rufus Rives, I am certain it was within a week. He passed sometimes going to Rives.

Mrs. Geo. White: Live at Cobb, Mrs. W. H. White was my aunt, was with her part of the time during her last illness from Dec. 2 to Dec. 11, 1907, was there Friday night Dec. 6. Saw Dr. Amoss there about dark, also next night about same hour. Dr. Hayden was there Saturday forenoon. Didn't see Dr. Amoss there until about dark.

PEMBROKE FIRE

Hollis Residence Destroyed by Flames Yesterday Afternoon.

Fire shortly after noon yesterday destroyed the Hollis residence in Pembroke. On account of the high wind the structure burned rapidly and it was soon reduced to ashes. The property belonged to Mrs. Wade and was insured. The loss is probably $1,500.

The fire spread from the Hollis residence until it burned three warehouses belonging to T. D. Jameson, containing a little tobacco, situated on Railroad street. The loss on these was about $2,000 with some insurance. The fire was under control at 3 o'clock.

ASYLUM PATIENTS.

Two Of Them Pass Away This Week.

W. P. Morgan died at the Asylum Tuesday, aged nineteen years. Tuberculosis was the cause of death. He was a son of Thomas C. Morgan, of Ohio county, and had been in the institution about three months. The body was shipped to Central City.

F. M. Mast died at the institution Monday of paralysis, aged 60 years. Deceased was for many years a traveling salesman and his home was at Bowling Green, where the remains were sent for interment.

EN ROUTE HOME

A Virginian Takes His Life At Middlesboro.

D. E. Spencer, one of the construction crew that worked on the L. & N. railroad near Pembroke some time ago, committed suicide at Middlesboro Monday by drinking laudanum. He held a receipt for dues in the Odd Fellows Lodge at Thaxton, Va., and a card was in his pocket from Fannie Yancey, a child of the family with whom he boarded at Pembroke. His body was buried at Middlesboro.

Rogers-Fourqurean.

Victor H. Rogers, a well known young business man of this city, and Miss Sallie Fourqurean, daughter of Mr. W. R. Fourqurean, of the Gracey neighborhood, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride. Rev. C. H. Gregston performed the ceremony.
