ANOTHER VICTIM CLAIMED

Seventh Death From Cholera at New York.

New York, July 20.—Another death from Asiatic cholera occurred at the Swinburne Island hospital station of the New York quarantine station today. The victim was Kiushehe Pettinichia, 32 years old, who arrived here on the steamer Molthe.

Notwithstanding this additional death, making the count seven at this port, Health Officer Alvah H. Doty issued a statement tonight, in which he said the situation was satisfactory. No further cases of the disease have developed among the detained immigrants and the one suspicious case which was discovered this morning proved not to be cholera.

She Was Smothering.

Rockford, Ala.—Mrs. M. C. Paschal, of this place says: "I was taken with nervous prostration, and had headache, backache, pains in right side, and smothering spells. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women? Cardui has a record of over fifty years in relieving such troubles, and will certainly benefit you. It prevents those frequent headaches, and keeps you up, out of bed, feeling fresh and happy. Try Cardui.

Down on Jews.

Mayor E. S. Helburn, of Middleboro, who, in compliance with the express wish of Judge O'Rear was defeated for the Republican nomination for the Lieutenant Governorship, is a citizen of Jewish birth, who by ability, has made a conspicuous place for himself in the affections and confidence of the people of the Eleventh district. As his defeat followed the announcement to the convention that if nominated, he would give his whole-hearted support to every plank in the Republican platform, it is to be assured that some other reason than Judge O'Rear's belief in the efficacy of prohibition as a political nostrum, was the cause of the Helburn sacrifice.—Louisville Times.

Kentucky Rock Asphalt.

Several months ago, General T. Coleman du Pont, who is building the mammoth highway through Delaware as a present to his people promised Col. M. H. Crump, of this city, that he would make a thorough test of rock asphalt of this section on his model road. Correspondence has passed between the two gentlemen, and it is altogether likely that an engineer representing Gen. du Pont will visit this section shortly with a view to making a personal inspection of this wonderful road-building product.

SUIT AGAINST T. C.

Clarksville Merchant Files Suit Here Against Company.

Sam Levey, of Clarksville, filed suit here Thursday against the Tennessee Central railroad company for $1,999.99 damages. Plaintiff alleges that on July 4 he purchased a round trip ticket from Clarksville to Hopkinsville and that the conductor refused to honor the return part of the ticket, forcibly ejecting him from the train at a point about two miles South of this city and that he had to walk back here. He further states that he is a merchant and had the key to his store in his pocket and that his wife and son were forced to stay in the store all night and guard same, being unable to lock up the house.
