Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B.
Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters; it cured me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at all druggists.

Victim of Tuberculosis.

Miss Hanna Hogan died at the asylum Wednesday afternoon of tuberculosis, aged 39 years. She had been a patient here for six years. The body was shipped to Warren county for interment.

Old Soldier Tortured.

"For years I suffered unspeakable torture from indigestion, constipation and liver troubles," wrote A.K.
Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New life pills fixed me all right. They're simply great." Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c at all drug-and lugs from 5 1/2 to 7 1/2 cents.

The prices were satisfactory, and the grades offered were fair.

Death in Roaring Fire.

firebugs, but often severe burns are caused that make a quick need for sure cure for burns, wounds, bruises, boils, sores. It subdues inflammation. It kills pain. It soothes and heals. Drives off skin eruptions, ulcers or piles. Only 25c at all drug-

More than 500 delegates are in Clarksville in attendance upon the twenty-fourth annual convention of colored Baptists of Tennessee, which is in session in the Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist church in Clarksville.

Saves Two Lives.

"Neither my sister nor myself might be living today, if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery," writes A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "for we both had frightful coughs that no other remedy could help. We were told my sister had consumption.
She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of." For sore lungs, coughs, colds, hemorrhage, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough,—all bronchial troubles,—it's supreme. Trial bottle free. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Mrs. John Drew Better.

McLeansboro, Ill.—"About five years ago," says Mrs. John L. Drew, of this place, "I was afflicted with pains and irregularity every month.
I suffered continually, was weak and despondent, and unable to do my housework. I took Cardui, and in one month, I felt like a new woman and worked hard all summer. I am now in perfect health, and recommend Cardui to all suffering women." Every day, during the past 50 years, Cardui has been steadily forging ahead as a result of its proven value female troubles. It relieves headache, backache, womanly misery and puts fresh strength into weary bodies. Try it.

FATAL TERMINATION.

Little Lucian Johnson Dies of His Injuries.

Lucian Johnson, the little son of Mr. J. C. Johnson, who was injured in an accident here last Saturday while driving, died at 5 o'clock Friday morning in an Evansville sanitarium, where he underwent an operation Monday. The little fellow fell from a buggy and one of the wheels of the vehicle passed over his body causing internal injuries.

He was about ten years old, a very bright boy, and his parents have the sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement. The remains, accompanied by Mr. Johnson, arrived here Friday afternoon and the interment took place in Riverside cemetery.

negro lawyer and politician of Louisville, a leader of his race in civic other negro, who claims self-defense.

He was 55 years old.

THE COST

Of A Quarrel The Longest Strike on Record.

In Westmoreland County, Pa., the longest strike on record still drags on. A. S. Crapsey has just finished a complete investigation and makes a thrilling report in the August American Magazine.

It is a coal strike, and it has been going steadily on since March 10, 1910. On one side are the operators, and on the other side are the United Mine Workers of America. The operators are organized, but they object to the unionizing of the men.
The quarrel really started over that point. Then questions of pay, conditions of labor, and so on, became involved.

But it is the cost of the quarrel that is most interesting. Low. The United Mine Workers have actually paid out a million dollars in cash to the men who are on strike. The operators have spent half a million for extra police protection. Untold millions are the loss through limitation of output and increased expenses.

Twenty lives have been lost, and unspeakable suffering incurred.
Babies have been born in the open fields where the strikers have camped out. Sickness has abounded.
Drinking has increased. Moral degeneration has set in. Physical weakening of the men has taken place. It is a terrible story.

The war is coming to a close because the miners have exhausted their resources and must give up.
Mr. Crapsey, who writes in great fairness, says, in conclusion.

"No one could be with these men for any length of time without feeling for them a pathetic admiration."

Who Was There That You Knew?

In the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $50,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked from pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan tried to secure the collection—Ex-President Garfield and General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet with the help of the Review or Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs.
It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War for the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.
