DELAY.

From The Severe Winter Weather, in Aviation Program.

Owing to heavy snow and extreme winter weather, flights for last week were abandoned, however I desire to announce that exhibition flights, for not less than three days, will be given just as soon as the weather becomes comfortable enough for spectators. Arrangements have been made whereby the Public School Library will receive a percentage of the gate receipts, and all tickets sold by them will be honored for any day whatever. The public will be notified by hand bills, posters and round the press previous to each flight.

NEW DRY GOODS FIRM

Will Open Its Doors to Public Friday, Jan. 12.

The O. G. Sprouse Co. has opened a dry goods store in the Cook building on Ninth street and will start business in this city on Friday, Jan. 12, with a big sale. They have purchased the Grand Leader stock and this have added $14,000 worth of the $75,000 stock of L. Lipman & Co., of Nashville. The O. G. Sprouse Co. have a reputation for offering rare bargains and they expect to keep this reputation up in Hopkinsville. They extend to every man, woman and child in Hopkinsville and vicinity a cordial invitation to be present at the opening of this great bargain store on Friday, Jan. 12. Don't forget the place, the Cook building, on Ninth street, near L. & N. depot. When you come to this sale bring a copy of the Kentuckian or one of the large bills with you, that you may be convinced they sell goods just as they are advertised.

New Year's Edition a Hummer.

The Evansville Courier's new year edition was a hummer, containing 64 pages of good reading matter and bright and attractive advertisements. An interesting account of that city's growth during the past year was given and there were illustrations of the many different fine buildings, factories and railroads completed at that place during the year, making an excellent review of Evansville's progress.

The Shakespeare Club met yesterday with Mrs. M. H. Tappin.

COLDEST WEATHER

Experienced Here Since December 14, 1901.

A cold wave of unusual intensity swept over this section Saturday night, the government thermometer registering 13 degrees below zero. Snow fell to a depth of six inches, adding to the discomfort. This was the coldest weather experienced here since Dec. 14, 1901, when the mercury was just 13 degrees below. On Jan. 7, 1911, the mercury went down to twelve below with a 14-inch snow fall, and on Jan. 12, 1910, the register was twelve below zero. There was a five-inch snow fall on that date. On January 17, 1899, the mercury went down to 17 degrees below zero, the lowest mark registered in probably forty years. The day before there was a heavy fall of snow.

Inspector's Order.

Howell, Ky., Jan. 8.

To Sub-Inspectors:— You are hereby instructed to make 4 breaks in each hoghead of tobacco inspected by you, consisting of from 4 to 8 bundles of each break, not over 8 under any circumstances, using your judgment as to the number of bundles given up to 8, and also seeing that each break is represented in sample. These instructions are sent to every sub-inspector and must be observed. Where you find an irregularly packed hoghead, which you are compelled to flag, you must build the sample yourself.

ORDINANCE ON SPITTING

City Council Decides That the Filthy Habit Must Be Stopped.

BUSY SESSION OF CITY DADS.

Dr. Harned Elected Health Officer and Dr. Reynolds City Physician.

The Council met in regular session Friday night with all members present and the Mayor presiding.

The question of Health Officer was settled by a general agreement to repeal the ordinance consolidating the offices of Health Officer and Physician and to divide the salary of $400 equally, returning to the old plan of two officers. Dr. W. E. Reynolds was then elected City Physician and the appointment of Dr. J. W. Harned as Health Officer by the Board of Health was ratified.

Dr. Harned as Health Officer submitted an excellent report for 1911 and made a number of recommendations, including the adoption of an anti-spitting ordinance.

Later in the evening such an ordinance was passed by unanimous vote, which was strongly supported by the Civic Improvement League. It provides a fine of $1 for spitting on sidewalks, stairways, and in the lobbies and on the floors of public buildings.

The bonds of Chief of Police Roper and Treasurer Geo. DeTreville were approved. The Mayor reported the approval of the bonds of all of the policemen in guaranty companies.

About $1,150 of accounts were paid, but by an accident the budget was overlooked. The Vincennes Bridge Co. was paid $700 for the new Second street bridge.

All of the committees named by the Mayor a month ago were re-appointed. Only one change was made, Councilman Dabney taking Councilman Draper's place as Chairman of the Street Committee. The Committee is still composed of Dabney, P'Pool and Draper.

The Finance Committee was instructed to settle the accounts of Tax Collector Higgins for 1910 and 1911, employing such clerical assistance as needed, and be prepared to report Jan. 20.

Councilman Draper was appointed a committee to trade the substitute horse for a saddle horse, for the mounted patrolman.

Mayor Meacham submitted his annual message, which appears in this issue.

The committee to check up the outgoing Treasurer's accounts was given further time. Some of the annual reports were submitted, but others were not ready, including that of the Chief of Police. The report will show cash collections of a little over $6,200 and a decrease in arrests over 1910. There were 101 fewer arrests for drunkenness in 1911 than in 1910.

SHE FOOLED HER PARENTS

Miss Hazel Roper Surprises Her Father By Announcement He Has a Son-in-law.

WAS MARRIED NOVEMBER 2

Dudley Tichenor, Now of Paducah The Happy Bridegroom.

Saturday afternoon about two o'clock Chief of Police Ellis Roper was treated to a genuine surprise. His daughter, Miss Hazel Roper, called him up over the phone, from the family residence and said:

"Papa, I guess I've fooled you long enough. I was married in Nashville Nov. 2."

It was not necessary to tell who the groom was, as Mr. Dudley Tichenor had been engaged to the young lady for a year or more and their marriage at any time would not have been a surprise. But the young people hit upon the romantic idea of having a secret wedding and so on Nov. 2 they went to Nashville and in the study of Rev. Edgar S. Folk were quietly married. They arranged to have the announcement kept out of the papers and for more than two months no one had been the wiser. Mrs. Tichenor did not even confide in her mother and there was no intimation that she was a bride until the news was broken to her father.

Mr. Tichenor was at the time in the employ of the Southern Express Company, but soon afterwards went to Paducah to accept a place in the I. C. Railroad office. He has been here once or twice since, including a visit of several days Christmas. He returned Saturday prepared to take his bride back with him to go to housekeeping in a flat, hence the necessity of making the marriage public.

There was no opposition to the wedding and the many friends of the young couple will wish them happiness. They returned to Paducah yesterday.

Mrs. Tichenor is a strikingly handsome young lady of a pronounced blonde type of beauty and is bright and charming. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mc H. Tichenor and is a moral, upright and promising young man.
