GOOD WORK

Being Done By The West Kentucky Orphans Home.

The work being done by the West Kentucky Orphans Home is attracting attention all over the State and its work is meeting with active opposition from the agents of the larger institution in Louisville. During the last two months the local Home, controlled by Rev. W. D. Humphreys, has received about 30 children from five or six different counties, and more than 20 of them have been provided with homes. The infant enterprise is doing a great work and it should be given a share of the state aid given to such work. Young as it is its operations compare favorably with that of the old established home in Louisville. Here is the record of the work done by this Orphans' Home during the last week:

On Monday a two days' old baby was received at Murray and brought into the Home.

On Thursday the baby was placed in a permanent home where it will be legally adopted and become heir to an estate.

On Friday a little boy was received at Hickman and placed with an aunt.

On Saturday two little boys were received at Hickman and brought into the Home.

CHILDREN THE WINNERS

Force The Old Time Spellers To Retire In Confusion.

DOROTHY ECKLES GETS PRIZE.

Contest Close And Exciting—W. T. Tandy Last Father To Fall.

The spelling Bee at the Tabernacle Friday night drew like a porous plaster and nearly $200 was cleared for the library fund.

Miss Dorothy Eckles, the bright little daughter of Mr. A. H. Eckles, won the $2.50 prize as the best speller.

The last of the "fathers" to sit down was Mr. W. T. Tandy, who spelled "blithe" with a "y" and still contends that it is spelled both ways.

Mr. Geo. E. Gary was the last to quit before Mr. Tandy. He spelled s-e-r-r-e, which is one of the forms authorized by Webster and he would have not retired if he had contended for a decision by the judges, but he gracefully withdrew.

The last children to retire were Sallie Mayes and Juanita Bartley. The latter became frustrated by bees crawling over her back and missed "civilian," a word she was quite familiar with. Sallie Mayes left one "n" out of cannon.

The following took part: FATHERS.

J. O. Cook, G. L. Campbell, T. C. Underwood, C. M. Meacham, W. T. Tandy, Rev. G. C. Abbit, L. E. Fowler, I. L. Smith, Dr. F. M. Brown, L. O. Brumfield, T. L. Morrow, Dr. C. H. Tandy, F. P. Renshaw, Dr. J. W. Harned, G. E. Gary, T. C. McReynolds, H. H. Abernathy, F. H. Mason, Judge Walter Knight, Substitutes—J. E. Gossett, S. F. Holloway, Dr. J. H. Rice, R. A. Cook.

Alvin Clark and Miss Eugenia Rawls were the judges.

Rev. H. D. Smith gave out the words, from the speller used in the public schools.

Miss Dorothy Eckles was retired in the early part of the evening having spelled the word "tenant" tent. Later, the judges decided that she had not missed, the dictionaries having a word spelled tenant meaning to hold. She was permitted to re-enter the contest.

Superintendent Davis A. Clark and Miss Lottie McDaniel, Principal of the Virginia Street School, desire to return thanks to those who assisted them, especially to Prof. F. H. Renshaw, who is over 80 years old, and staid in the contest for two hours.

The match was not concluded until 11:15, but nearly all of the 1,500 people present staid until the end.

Flanders "20" Delivery Car

Are you one of the merchants who have concluded that the day of the delivery car is here? Have you been convinced that to the enterprising dealer horse delivery is a thing of the past? We hope so. The deeper you go into the problem the more clearly you will see it.

Prestige and lowered costs have had their say and they are what count. Efficiency—that's the story. Whether you are a small dealer or large, the question is coming right up to you. Which shall it be—Horse or Automobile? Have you realized that on the face of it the case is all in favor of the automobile, not the horse? A car is faster, stronger and tireless. Settle the cost question and there is no argument.

We want you to consider this; you must consider it, for your competitor surely will. This isn't our belief alone. You merchants have told us the same story many times. "We need a delivery car, but where is the right car?"

The Flanders "20" is Ready

Today you have your answer. The Flanders "20" is the car. In it are combined handsome appearance, economy, and A1 service at a fair price. The Flanders "20" is everything a delivery car ought to be. You need it. And when you buy it you are going to be immensely satisfied.
