MISS STARLING'S LETTER.

granted us $4,000 for a school building and we hope to get more later, as we need it. So you see there is a big work ahead of me. It is practically pioneer work, as Miss Van Vrauken has been here only a year and she is the first regular teacher the school has ever had. The school is small, and our accommodations most inadequate but God helping me, I hope to make something out of it, that will give these girls of eastern Laos a fair chance.

I am sending you a picture of the tiger that was killed last year. Dr. Peoples is at the left holding Billman Palmer, who is crying from fear, Mr. Palmer is in the center and old Mr. McCeluskey (Mrs. Palmer's father) is holding little Mary P. Mr. McCeluskey came out three years ago on the death of his wife, and has been here ever since. He is nearly 80 years old, but a good carpenter, and makes himself very useful with that and gardening.

I have gotten behind in my letters so will not write more this time. LUCY STARLING.

FROST PREDICTED

Unseasonable Temperature Scheduled For This Week.

According to the bulletin issued by the weather bureau at Washington fair weather will predominate this week, with temperatures below the seasonal average generally East of the Rocky Mountains. Showers are due today in the middle Atlantic and New England states. "A change to considerably cooler weather," the bulletin continues, "will overspread the region east of the Mississippi valley Tuesday, and frosts are to occur the first part of the week in the Rocky mountain region, the northern plains states, the upper lake region, and Tuesday and Wednesday in the lower lake region, the upper Ohio valley and the interior of the north Atlantic states.

"The next disturbance to cross the country will appear in the far west Wednesday or Thursday and move to the middle west near the close of the week; it will be preceded by a general rise in temperature and be attended by local showers and thunderstorms."

Mothers' Day At Ninth Street Christian Church.

Mothers' Day was observed at the Ninth St. Christian church. The pastor preached on the topic "How Do We Best Honor Our Mothers?" Mrs. Foster adjusted the musical program of the morning service to the occasion with great skill and effect.

Next Lord's Day at this church will be a high day. Children's Day will be observed in the morning; and at night Rev. Carry E. Morgan, of Nashville, will preach to the class of 1912 of McLean College. Dr. Morgan is a man of distinction and power and a speaker of elegance and force. He will no doubt be greeted by a great audience next Sunday night.

FOLDING TENTS

And Leaving for Other Localities Is Order of the Day.

Judge Knight's order suppressing the disorderly houses northeast of the city, is being obeyed as fast as the women can move away. Several of them left Saturday and the houses have practically closed, as the keepers are arranging their affairs to quit business.

Special Patrolman Joe Wolfe and Cecil Armstrong are in charge of the suppression and made two arrests Friday night of men who discharged firearms in the vicinity. They were fined.

Judge Knight remains firm in his determination to remove the houses entirely.

MOTHERS' DAY

Appropriately Observed At First Presbyterian Church.

Rev. E. B. Landis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, preached an excellent sermon Sunday morning, in which he paid a glowing tribute to the mothers of our land. The sermon was listened to with close attention by the large congregation, a majority of which wore a white carnation, which is the chosen flower.

Mr. Landis also went up to Fairview and preached a "Mothers' Day" sermon in the afternoon.

OROZCO

Whipped In a Decisive Fight In Mexico.

After twelve hours fighting Sunday 300 miles south of the American border Orozco retreated from Conejos, Mexico, with an army of 5,000, leaving 500 dead and wounded behind, together with several guns and much ammunition. It is reported that the retreating rebels are surrounded and renewed fighting is expected.

Capt. C. H. Tandy and Capt. B. G. Nelson are two of the Kentucky officers now in the School of Instruction in military service at Ft. McPherson, Ga.

Roasted Victim Alive.

An almost unbelievably cruel happening has come to light at Hiroshima, Japan. There a man and his wife have been arrested for willfully cremating a live man. The prisoners were in charge of a crematorium, and while at work a faint voice coming out of a coffin begged for fresh air. The couple took no notice, however, and proceeded to apply fire, roasting the man alive.

Mark of Insincerity.

Beware of him who meets you with a friendly smile, and in the midst of a cordial salutation seeks to avoid your glance.

W. T. Radford has returned from New York where he had been in a preparatory school for several months and was examined April 30 for admission to West Point Military Academy. The result of his examination has not been made known, except as to the physical examination, which he passed without trouble.

THREE THINGS YOU NEED!

First—

"Kentuckian"

A virile, new newspaper with the interest of the entire community at heart. Issues of the day are handled without fear or favor. You will find in this paper an up-to-date department for each member of the family. Clean, honest, straightforward—it is a paper your family should not be without.

Second—

Technical World Magazine

is the one magazine that not only entertains in a fascinating manner, but which also instructs. It is the magazine for the busy business man, or for the person who wants to lull away a summer's afternoon, and be agreeably informed at the same time. It is profusely illustrated, and tells in a simple and interesting way of the discoveries of scientists, the achievements of inventors, the feats of engineers and explorers, and the opening of every new field of human endeavor. What Jack London says: "I have just chanced upon my first copy of TECHNICAL WORLD MAGAZINE. There isn't anything like it. I want more, and I cannot wait for them to come, so I am sending you herewith check for which please enter my subscription and send me immediately the last two years' back numbers."

Third—

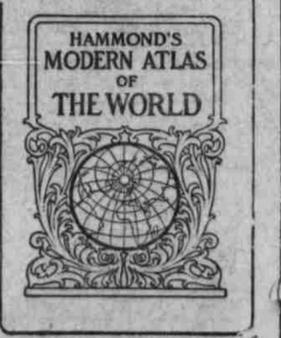

A Fine Atlas

This one is just off the press. This is the year to obtain a new atlas. The 1910 Census has just been completed, this atlas contains the official figures, 128 pages of 2 color maps brought right down to date—every map giving the results of the most recent surveys. All railroads are shown and named and maps of all large cities are included. There are 21 double page maps showing in detail portions of the U. S. and Canada. Dimensions 10 1/2 x 15 1/2. Bound in stiff linen—Silver Leaf Title—printed on heavy plate paper. Sells regularly for $3.00. A splendid gift.

ALL THREE Only $3.80

Special arrangement with Technical World Magazine and the publishers of this Atlas make this offer possible. But it is very strictly limited. You must act immediately.
