The Moguls easily won the Tuesday game from Paducah and played the second yesterday. The series is short one game. Evansville comes to-day for three games, taking up the rest of the week.

Monday.

No games on account of rain.

Tuesday.

Paducah's pitchers, Phelps and Nichols, were hit hard and both were wild, issuing nine passes. Johnson was effective except in one inning. Score: R. H. E. Hopkinsville..... 8 10 2 Paducah..... 3 6 5 Batteries—Johnson and Dayton; Phelps, Nichols and Warner. No other games.

Kentucky Educational Ass'n.

The Association has existed forty-one years and its highest membership previous to this year was not more than 800. This year the officers set a slogan of 2500, and now have about reached it. They will endeavor to have 5000 before the meeting closes at Louisville next week. Everybody should help in making that record.

Louisville is planning to give a grand floral parade on the afternoon of next Tuesday, the 25th., in honor of the Kentucky Educational Association. Parade will be five miles long, and will include three hundred automobiles, many carriages, floats and horses, gaily decorated. An educational division of the parade will include the old-time and the new type school, a real school farm, a Rowan County moonlight school and other interesting features.

A great meeting of school trustees will be held on Tuesday afternoon. Judge Henry S. Barker, of the State University will address the trustees, and many of them will make addresses during round table conferences. Five hundred school trustees are expected to be present.

An exhibit of articles made by school children of the State will be one of the features—sewing, embroidery, furniture, etc.

Besides many men and women of international fame, a child will address the Association—Lois Edmunds, a little girl aged twelve, known as "The Champion Bread-maker of Iowa."

The musical program alone is worth the trip. The Strollers, a noted male quartette of Chicago, will sing between the addresses. Also, Miss Lelia Patridge, of Richmond, has composed a school song, "The Song of the Leaders," which will be sung by the Association after a reading of same by the author. The Band of the Louisville Industrial School, and the Boys Choir of that school will render some fine music. The school children of Louisville will present a cantata, and there will be many other features.

David Starr Jordan, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Dr. P. P. Claxton, President Charles F. Thwing, and the others from different parts of America, are men who are sought by the National Educational Association, and it is seldom that any State Association can secure them. Everybody should hear them.

Each Congressional District will have its own headquarters. Also, the convention hall is to be divided into sections for each of those districts, with banners above them, showing which sections of the State are broadly interested in education.

JUNE WEDDINGS

Two More Brilliant Nuptial Events In Christian County.

The wedding of Miss Mary Sebastian Whitaker to Dr. Brice Presley Moffatt was a society event of unusual interest yesterday. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Whitaker, near Casky, and was witnessed by a large number of invited guests.

It was a porch wedding, the ceremony being pronounced on the veranda of the Whitaker home, which was decorated in pink and green. The guests were seated in the yard.

Miss Joe Carr played Lohengrin's wedding march before and Mendelssohn's march after the ceremony, which was pronounced by Rev. J. B. Eshman, of the C. P. church, assisted by Rev. J. L. Goodknight, of Lincoln, Ill., at four o'clock. The maid of honor was Miss Kathleen Garrott and the Matron of honor Mrs. Edna Perry, the bride's sister. The bridesmaids were Misses Narcissus McKee, Bessie Carter, Mary Thomas Garrott and Lula Simpson, of Tusculumbia, Ala. The groom's best man was Mr. J. W. Vick, of Illinois, and other attendants were Messrs. Garrett Hopson, Frank Boyd, Warren Dulin and Wm. Warfield.

Miss Emma Noe sang "Oh Promise Me."

Dr. and Mrs. Moffatt left on the evening train for a week's trip to Chicago. They received many handsome gifts.

Doctor Moffatt is a prominent and successful young doctor of Troy, Tenn. His bride is one of Christian county's most charming young ladies.

Chisholm-Lackey.

Mr. Lander J. Chisholm, of Earlinton, and Miss Ruby Lackey, of Pembroke, were married yesterday afternoon at five o'clock, in the Methodist Church in Pembroke.

The attendants were Miss Camille Lackey, the bride's sister, maid of honor, and Mr. Eldon Crutchfield best man; Miss Ruth Williams and Mr. Geo. Lackey; Miss Mary Kennedy, of Paducah, and Mr. Ed Morrison, of Earlinton.

The ushers were Walter Wood, Helena, Ark.; Will Morrison, Madisonville, Ross Wood and R. Y. Pendleton.

The young couple took the Dixie Flyer for a bridal tour to Chicago and the lakes, after which they will be at home in Earlinton, where the groom is engaged in the drug business. The bride is a sister of Dr. W. A. Lackey and Mr. Geo. E. Lackey, of this city, and is one of Pembroke's prettiest girls.

Rev. Mr. Hule was the officiating clergyman, assisted by Rev. A. R. Kasey.

Gardner-Tanner.

Mrs. E. G. Tanner, of Nashville, announces the marriage of her daughter, Lillian Estelle to Mr. Jesse D. Gardner, at home, at eight o'clock June 26, 1912. The bride-elect is a pretty and attractive young lady and has many friends here. She will be remembered as the maid of honor at Miss Kathleen Frances wedding last summer.

Lancaster-Broadbent.

Joe Lancaster and Miss Annie Broadbent, young people of near Wallonia, were married in this city Tuesday. Judge Knight performed the ceremony in the county clerk's office. Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster will make their future home in Paducah.

Tuberculosis Victim.

Author Lee Simpson, aged 26 years, died Tuesday night at his home near Larkin. Tuberculosis caused his death. He was a son of Mr. George Simpson and was married. The deceased had been in declining health for a year or more. The body will be interred in the family burying ground to-day.

TAFT ORGANIZES CONVENTION BY ELECTING ROOT CHAIRMAN

First Line-up Showed 558 For Root and 502 For McGovern, Field's Choice.

Roosevelt Shriekers Protested With Much Lung Power and Some Awful Threats, But to No Avail.

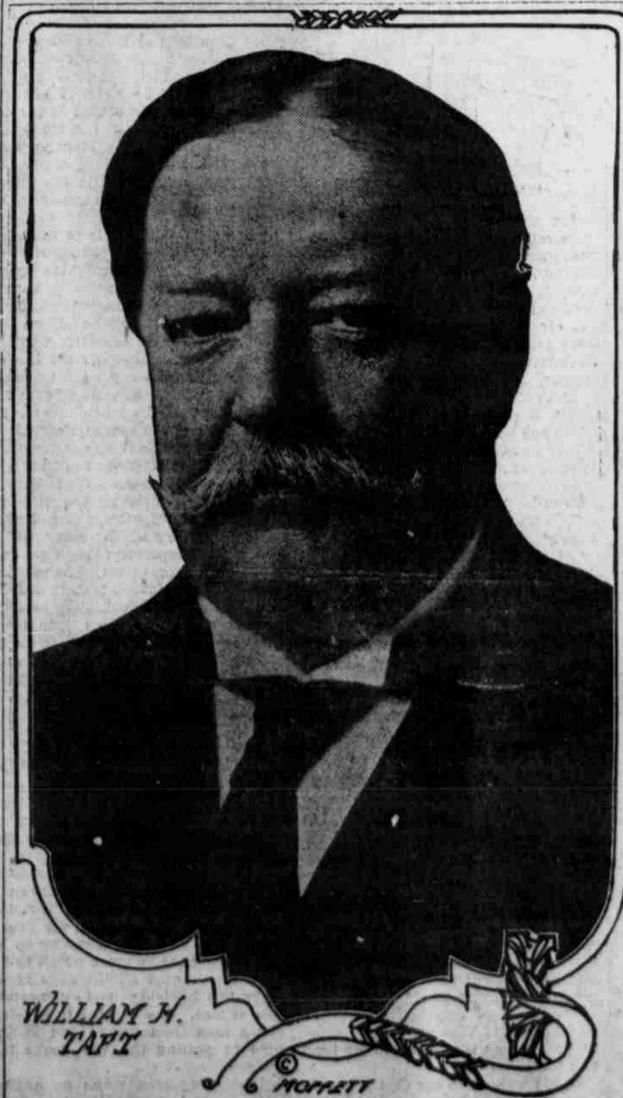

Chicago, June 19.—Against the threats, charges and bitter invective of the Roosevelt forces, Taft supporters in the republican national convention last night put through the first portion of their program by electing Senator Elihu Root, of New York, as temporary chairman. In spite of the fact that Victor Rosewater, chairman of the national committee, consistently ruled out of order every motion made by the Roosevelt forces, it required more than five hours to reach a vote on the temporary chairmanship.

Calling of the roll was beset with difficulties from the very first name on the list of delegates, but in the end, when the tumult had died away, Senator Root was found to have won by a vote of 558 to 502 for Gov. Francis E. McGovern, of Wisconsin, with 14 scattering votes and four not voting.

While Mr. Root was made chairman and managed to deliver his "keynote" speech, the fighting was renewed at 11 o'clock to-day when the motion of the Roosevelt leaders to substitute a new list of delegates for those seated in some of the contested cases heard before the national committee was taken up as the unfinished business. No committees were named last night and none will be until this motion to "purge" the convention of "fraudulent delegates," is disposed of. It was defeated on a point of order, but the Roosevelt forces declare that parliamentary practice will not be permitted to stand in their way to-day.

PROTECTION BY THE POLICE

Chicago, June 19.—The all day debate on correcting the roll is proceeding with police-men everywhere to keep the chairman free from molestation. There is much talk of a dark horse, but the President is standing pat.

President Taft, basing his claims for a renomination on the record of his administration, has the support of the party organization in many states, and of those Republicans who are opposed to what they consider the too radical ideas of Colonel Roosevelt, Senator Cummins and Senator La Follette.

CIRCUIT COURT COLORED

Cooper Weak's Loses The Damage Suit Growing Out of Accident.

In Circuit Court the suit of William Cooper Weak's, by his guardian, against the McDowell Construction Co. and the L. & N. Railroad, was tried and a verdict rendered for the defendants Tuesday. The plaintiff sustained an injury to his hand by the explosion of a dynamite cap. The suit was for $2,000 damages. In the case of W. R. Russell vs. C. J. Gee, a suit for $200 damages, the jury gave Russell $50. The plaintiff's buggy collided with defendant's automobile on the street. The defense was that the buggy backed into the automobile.

J. L. SHRODE

Is Elected President of The Kentucky Stationary Engineers.

The tenth annual convention of the Kentucky State Association of Stationary Engineers concluded its session at Owensboro by electing the following officers: J. L. Shrode of Hopkinsville, president; C. C. Carroll of Louisville, vice president; James R. Morris, of Hopkinsville, secretary; Ed Kochenrath, of Louisville, treasurer; T. R. Stratton, of Lexington, conductor; J. N. Draper, of Henderson, doorkeeper, and James R. Hopkins, of Louisville, state deputy. Hopkinsville was selected for the 1913 meeting.

Eleven Previous Conventions.

The record of republican national conventions and candidates held since the close of the civil war is as follows:

- Chicago, June 8, 1884—James G. Blaine, of Maine, and John A. Logan, of Illinois.
- Chicago, June 19, 1888—Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, and Levi P. Morton, of New York.
- Minneapolis, June 7, 1892—Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, and Levi P. Morton, of New York.
- St. Louis, June 7, 1896—William McKinley, of Ohio, and Garret A. Hobart, of New Jersey.
- Philadelphia, June 19, 1900—William McKinley, of Ohio, and Theodore Roosevelt, of New York.
- Chicago, June 21, 1904—Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, and Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana.
- Chicago, June 16, 1908—William H. Taft, of Ohio, and James S. Sherman, of New York.

Farmer Found Dead.

Trenton, Ky., June 18.—Cole Dickinson, a young bachelor farmer near town, was found dead in the woods not far from his home today. He left the home of his cousin, W. A. Dickinson, yesterday evening about 5 o'clock, saying he was going to the stable to curry the horses and never returned. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he came to his death by his own hands by taking Paris green, the drug poison being found near where he lay. Deceased had been in bad health for several years and he was very despondent.

Italy Ready For Peace.

London, June 19.—Italy has agreed to a conference of the powers for the settlement of the war with Turkey, according to a dispatch to the Daily Express from Rome. If Turkey is willing, an armistice will speedily be arranged.

Eskimo Woman Made Good.

When a woman in an enlightened country makes her way to a front rank in the industrial world, the fact soon becomes known and people are eager to learn something of the conditions that brought it about and of the character of the one who accomplished it. That a woman with a brown skin should also successfully compete with the men of her race is less generally understood. Out of the 260 Eskimos who owe reindeer in Alaska, two are women. One of these, Mary Arisrlook Andrewnk, has received the title of "Reindeer Queen of Alaska."

"Queen Mary" owns a herd of 1,303 deer which she manages with judgment and intelligence. According to the usual contract made with the government she is required to train three apprentices and to give each the customary number of deer. She has done better than this. She has trained and rewarded eight or ten apprentices, and at the present time has another under her care. She long since discarded the igloo, or native hut, half underground, in which she was born, and is now comfortably housed near Nome, in a cabin of logs. She speaks seven or eight Indian languages, and this has enabled her to be of considerable service as an interpreter.

Queen Mary has brought up a number of helpless children, and having none of her own, has not only cared for them physically, but has also given them a place in her heart. Surely, according to her light, "she hath done her part."—Christian Herald.
