Big Islands.
 The four largest islands on the globe (leaving Australia out of the reckoning, as an "island continent" rather than an island in the ordinary sense of the word) are: New Guinea, 323,000 square miles; Borneo, 284,000; Madagascar, 227,000, and Sumatra, 162,000. There are no other islands that even approximate the "Big Four." Great Britain, the next largest, having only 83,000 square miles.

Thackeray and Dickens.
 Thackeray was always very jealous of the popularity of the novels of Dickens. While from a literary standpoint Dickens does not eclipse Thackeray, yet his works have always been the bigger sellers of the two.

Charing Cross.
 Charing Cross, the center of London, derived its name from a cross which was erected in the village of Charing in memory of Eleanor, wife of Edward III.

NOT AT ALL TO HIS LIKING
Cornelius Husk Misunderstood Walter as Some Think the Germans Misunderstood the Nations.

Gen. Vincent B. Thompson was talking in Milwaukee about the war. "The Germans, in the first place," he said, "misunderstood the temper of the Belgians. They misunderstood, in the second place, the temper of the Russians, of the English and of the French. Actually, from all those nations, they expected a feeble resistance or none at all.

"The Germans, in a word, misjudged the allies as Cornelius Husk misjudged the metropolitan restaurant.

"Cornelius Husk, on his first visit to New York, entered a restaurant with timid, faltering steps. A waiter brought him a menu. Very red in the face, he studied it a long time. Finally, to help him out, the waiter said:

"Table d'hote, sir?"
 "What might table dote be?" old Corn Husk asked, feebly.
 "Course dinner, sir."
 "Don't want her, then," said Corn Husk. "Ye see, young feller, I'm from the kentry, I am, and I git enough coarse grub to hum."—Philadelphia Ledger.
