The present crop of mosquitos is the largest in numbers and the largest in size of any of the insects that have ever appeared in this section.

Joseph P. Parrott, of Wichita, Kan., at Evansville Sunday married his old sweetheart of 40 years ago, Mrs. Nellie Riggs. Each is 50 years old.

Typhoid fever causes 18,000 deaths a year, but knowledge of the disease has reduced the mortality to 9 per cent as there are 200,000 cases every year in the United States.

George Fitch is dead but the Adams Newspaper Service is still supplying "Vest Pocket Essays" under his name, that were ground out before his career was cut short.

German aeroplanes, it is said are constantly flying over Serbian and Bulgarian territory from Orsova Hungary, to Adrianople. Each of them is loaded to its full capacity, according to the reports, with supplies for the Turks.

Secretary Daniels will recommend to Congress that the number of midshipmen in the naval academy be increased to capacity. That would mean the appointment of practically 300 more midshipmen than will be enrolled this fall, or about 1,200.

This has been a year for insects. Not only are the mosquitos worse than ever known, but caterpillars are devastating the trees to such an extent as to injure the beauty of the city. In many localities the pests have left the trees almost leafless and the tree worms pervade the yards and porches in such hordes as to drive the people indoors. This is the second crop this year and is like the sands of the sea in numbers. The infection is so general as to seriously threaten the existence of the younger trees and the time for stock flies is now at hand with misery for the animals.

Mrs. Lucetta Wing Patterson, wife of Dr. James K. Patterson, president emeritus of the State University of Kentucky, died at her residence on the university campus Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Patterson was born in Greenville, Ky., and was the daughter of Captain Charles E. Wing and met the young James K. Patterson when he was principal of the Presbyterian academy in Greenville, but at the time of their marriage, in 1859, he was professor of Latin and Greek in Stuart college (now Southwestern University at Clarksville, Tenn.). Two children were born to them but both are dead.

TALE AMUSED SENATOR HOAR

Noted Statesman Told With Glee of Southerner's Visit to Boston, Where People Ate Beans.

Senator Hoar used to tell with glee of a Southerner just home from New England who said to his friend, "You know those little white, round beans?" "Yes," replied the friend, "the kind we feed to our horses?" "The very same. Well, do you know, sir, that in Boston the enlightened citizens take those little white, round beans, boil them for three or four hours, mix them with molasses and I know not what other ingredients, bake them, and then—what do you suppose they do with the beans?" "They—"

They eat 'em, sir," interrupted the first Southerner impressively; "bless me, sir, they eat 'em!"—Christian Register.

Carelessness.
Mr. Flatbush—I see during some recent explorations at Pompeii an ancient kitchen was unearthed. In the fireplace there was a kettle on the grate, just as it was left 1,826 years ago by some cook residing in that city.

Hard to Get.
"Have plenty of trouble with cooks, I suppose?" "The cooks would be all right if I could only get the necessary supplies." "What do you mean?" "Well, last week I had a southern mammy who was a fine possum artist, and this week I got a Finnish cook who is strong on reindeer dishes."

Putting It Nicely.
Former Mistress—I would like to give you a good recommendation, Della, but my conscience compels me to state that you never get the meals on time. I wonder how I can put it in a nice sort of way. Della—Yes, might I say that OI got the meals the same as OI got me pay—Puck.

THE REASON.

She—Daisy married old Gotrox, but she was engaged to his son.
He—Yes, but Gotrox threatened to cut off his son's allowance if he married her.

Woody Decorations.
"I understand," said Uncle Bill Bottletop, "that the Turks are total abstainers."
"Yes."
"Well, maybe they are. But I can't see how any total abstainer could think up some of the designs they put in Turkish rugs."

A Cutting Remark.
"You have cut my hair too short," said the man to the barber. "Now cut it longer."
And the barber, being a man of many sides and much resource, did so. He cut it three minutes longer.

Astray.
"It is my intention to lead you on the way to righteousness," said the reformer.
"Stranger," replied Bronco Bob, "you're lost. If that's your destination your trail never would have led you through Crimson Gulch."

The More Important Service.
"You have charged me too much for this divorce," vociferated the opera singer.
"Madam," protested the lawyer; "consider the extra work you have made me do as press agent."

Effect of One Bottle.

Crandall, Tex.—"After my last spell of sickness," writes Mrs. Belle Teal of this city. "I remained very ill, and stayed in bed for 8 weeks. I couldn't get up all this time, and though my doctor came to see me every day, he didn't do me any good. I had taken but one bottle of Cardui when I was up going everywhere, and soon I was doing all my house work." Cardui helps when other medicines have failed, because it contains ingredients not found in any other medicine. Pure, safe, reliable, gentle-acting—Cardui is the ideal medicinal tonic for weak, sick women. Try it.—Advertisement.

Going Back Into History.
That somebody crossed Bering strait is certain. The Manchus would easily pass for Indians. There are peoples in the region north of Vladivostok that, given a haircut and a bath, could by no possible means be distinguished from tribes of our Pacific coast subjected to the same indignity. Clearly, either North America was peopled from Asia or else Asia was peopled from North America. There is absolutely no direct evidence to show which continent peopled the other.

TYPO CLOSED UP FOR NIGHT

Fake Substitute, Taken With Pains, Turned Upper Case Down Over on the Lower One.

A printer in the Eagle office tells this: In the old days, when a typo laid off he had to provide a substitute. A printer named Jenks, wanting a lay-off, was compelled to persuade a man who was not a printer to take his place at the case, explaining to him that he could be taken suddenly sick and get away from the office before the fraud was discovered.

Shortly after the fake substitute lined up before the case with its curious little boxes full of loose type, he was seized with fake pains. "What's the matter with you?" asked the foreman, coming to his side. "I don't know," said the fake printer. "I'm terribly sick. I can't work. You can see that. I'll have to close up for the night."

And he reached up and turned the upper case down over the lower one.—Wichita Eagle.

VAST.

Policeman—How can you be tired when you are doing nothing?
Beggar—I guess it's because there is so much of it to do.

Clerical Error.
"Although the count was flatly refused by Miss Scadson last year, he proposed again this year."
"Did he offer any explanation?"
"Yes. He claims it was due to a mistake of his secretary, who got Miss Scadson's name confused with the names of a number of other helresses to whom the count has not yet proposed."

Among the Wise Men.
"Are there any seats of learning hereabouts?" asked the visitor at Perkins' Corners.
"I s'pose you mean colleges," said the native. "We ain't got nothin' of that sort, but if you'll set fur a spell on a cracker box at Sam Bixley's store you kin learn all about the right way to run the government."

To Be Sure.
"It is true that a woman can offer up a better prayer at church when she is wearing a new hat than she could if she had on a last year's model!"
"I have no doubt she can offer up a more eloquent prayer of thanks."

A Superwoman.
"I understand Mrs. Prebson never devotes more than an hour to selecting a spring hat."
"An exceptional woman."
"Yes, indeed. But more surprising still, she never talks to anybody over the telephone longer than three or four minutes."

A Fan.
"Your friend has a remarkably strong voice. What a pity he hasn't some great message to deliver."
"Yes. It seems a shame for a man with vocal cords like his to wear them out in merely abusing the umpire."

One Way to Do It.
"No, sir," said Omar, "I never allow a lie to pass my lips."
"How do you manage it?" queried Helny. "Talk through your nose!"

His Sole Inspiration.
"What makes that man look so wise?"
"I don't know unless it's the quantity of sage tea he drinks."

Beneath Him.
Farmer—I'll give you $5 a month and your board!
Applicant—Aw, shucks! What do you think I am, a college graduate?

Did You Ever Stop to Consider

That an accident or sickness which destroys the use of arm or feet, or causes the loss of sight, is not only a physical calamity, but the most severe of all losses.

It Means the Wasting Away of An Estate Already Created.

the loss of any investment which is dependent upon the present or future earnings—in fact, the loss of the producing power, a disaster worse than death could bring.
