Billy Patterson was found dead in Louisville with his throat cut. The verdict was that he struck himself.

It would simplify things not to take Villa alive. There is sure to be a scrap over the question of executing him.

For the third time Birmingham will have the honor of entertaining the annual reunion of United Confederate Veterans May 16, 17 and 18.

Gov. Salvador Alvarado of the State of Yucatan, Mexico, has issued a decree prohibiting foreigners from acquiring title to real estate in Yucatan.

Ex-President Taft, whom some of us would have been glad to see on the Supreme Court bench, is out in an interview saying he does not regard L. D. Brandeis as a fit man for the Supreme Court.

Uncle Henry Gassaway Davis, who didn't loosen up much when we ran him and his bank account for Vice President, left from $10,000,000 to $30,000,000 to his widow and three children. Benefactions amounted to $175,000.

The Governor after all is to have the right to name a Tax Commission to investigation and report not later than October of this year. The resolution giving this power, which was introduced in the upper house by Senator Speer, passed both branches.

During the month of February in all of the markets of Kentucky the sale of tobacco was 10,313,403 pounds, which brought $737,246.97, an average of 7.14 cents per pound. The Burley average was 10.20, Dark tobacco 5.38 and Green River tobacco 5.33.

Judge Henderson at Princeton instructed the grand jury to indict the bridge players and some wag mailed summonses to many women who play for prizes, creating much excitement. When the Judge heard of the joke he instructed the grand jury to indict the jokers if they could be found.

Keith E. Dairymple, heir to a fortune of $400,000, who has been missing for eight years, and for whom a nation-wide search has been made, has returned to his former home at Port Allegheny, Pa. The appearance of Dairymple will put an end to the proceedings brought to have him declared legally dead, which were to have been heard on April 6. He was found in a Missouri hospital by a friend of the family and sent home. He is 23 years old and other heirs did not kill a fattened calf when the prodigal returned.

Meaning of the Crescent.

The Turkish crescent, although now regarded as essentially Mohammedan in significance, was, it appears, of Christian origin. A crescent moon was the emblem of the Byzantine empire and of the Eastern church. The Turks adopted it as a badge of triumph after the capture of Constantinople in 1453. With reference to the crescent, the story of the origin of the crescent-shaped Vienna roll is worth recalling. It arose in the sixteenth century, when the Turks were besieging Vienna. Failing to carry it by assault, they began to mine the walls. At that period the city's bakehouses were in the walls under the fortifications, and when the mines were almost through the sound of the work was heard in the underground bakehouses and an alarm was given. To celebrate this event the bakers of Vienna adopted the Turkish emblem as the form in which to mold and bake their bread.

NO EXCITEMENT IN LONDON

American Lighted Cigarette and Waited for Something to Happen—Had No Monocle.

"So you are just back from London?" "Arrived last week." "Did you have any exciting experiences over there?" "None worth speaking about." "But what did you do when Zepplins arrived?" "Oh, I—er—lighted a cigarette and waited for something to happen." "Umph! Sheer bravado!" "Of course. I had to do something to make those bally Britishers think I wasn't frightened, and had no monocle to adjust."

Remembered His Grudge. "Were you still at loggerheads with your rich uncle when he died?" "Yes. The old gentleman never got over his animosity toward me." "Ahem! Did he remember you when he made his will?" "It's quite likely. He didn't leave me a cent."

Quite an Effort. "Did I understand you to say that Dubson is a deep thinker?" "No. He's a hard thinker." "What's the difference?" "There's a great deal. Any sort of thinking is hard to Dubson."

Thrifty Candidate. "I understand Blabson was a candidate for office in the recent election." "Yes. He made a close race, too." "Why, he received only a few hundred votes." "True. And he spent only a few hundred dollars."

Where They Had Met. Judge—Have you ever met the prisoner at the bar? Witness—Of course I have, your honor. Judge—Why do you say "of course?" Witness—I'm a bartender.

Most Likely. "This jeweler's circular says flimsy jewelry must be worn with flimsy clothes." "How about the stage dances?" "I presume it means when the jewelry is not the principal part of the attire."

A Preserver. "How shall we preserve the forests?" said the worried woodsman. "Leave it to my wife," replied the town idler. "A woman who can preserve green tomatoes and watermelon rinds oughtn't to be baffled by a few trees."

Ray of Comfort. "Mrs. Fritters seems inconsolable since her husband's death." "I seriously doubt it." "Have you no heart?" "Of course, but black is very becoming to Mrs. Fritters."

DIPPY DUK

Woman's Greatest Trouble.

Big Sandy, Tenn.—Mrs. Lucy Cantrell, of this place, says: "Every two weeks, I had to go to bed and stay there several days. I suffered untold misery. Nothing seemed to help me, until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic. Although I had been afflicted with womanly weakness for seven years, Cardui helped me more than anything else ever did. It is surely the best tonic for women on earth." Weakness is woman's greatest trouble. Cardui is woman's greatest medicine, because it overcomes that weakness and brings back strength. In the past 50 years, Cardui helped over a million women. Try it for your trouble, today. Advertisement.
