ECHO OF DISTANT PAST.
 Covington, Tenn., Aug. 12th, 1916.
 President Ferrell's Boys,
 Hopkinsville, Ky.

Dear Sir:
 I read in this morning's Commercial Appeal, an account of the meeting of Major J. O. Ferrell's student boys at Hopkinsville, Ky., and as I once was a cadet at the K. M. I., near Frankfort, Ky., and one Major Ferrell taught my Latin class there from 1869 to 1871, I write to know if this is the same Major Ferrell and if he is still living? I never had a teacher who taught me more, and whom I loved and respected more. John R. Green and Charles L. Dade were cadets there with me, both of whom I remember with so much pleasure, especially Charley Dade. Are they still living? Thanking you in advance to reply, I am,
 Very truly yours,
 JOHN Y. PEETE.

FLACK-LYON

Lieut. Lawson B. Flack Secures War Bride at Eddyville.

The announcement of the marriage of Lieutenant Lawson B. Flack and Miss May Belle Lyon, which took place Saturday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock, came as a pleasant surprise to the many friends of the two popular young people. Lieutenant Flack is in the quartermaster department of the Third Regiment and came here on a short furlough from Fort Thomas. Only his family knew that he had come back home to be married.
 The wedding ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. B. Lyon, in Eddyville. Rev. Bailey, pastor of the Methodist church at Eddyville, pronounced the ceremony. The couple left for Fort Thomas immediately after the wedding. Only a few intimate friends attended the marriage.
 The bride is the popular and attractive daughter of the late General H. B. Lyon, for many years one of the prominent citizens in Lyon county. Lieutenant Flack is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Flack. He was elected city clerk last year, but had to leave his place to answer the call of the Kentucky National Guard. He is one of the most affable and popular young men in the city.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Flack, Mrs. Howell Tandy, Miss Nell Tandy and Lieutenant Alvan Clark attended the nuptials.

VEHICLE WAS OVERTURNED

Wife of Thomas Williamson Caught Under Buggy and Badly Bruised.

Mrs. Nora Williamson, wife of Mr. Thomas Williamson, was the victim of a painful accident Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, who reside on Jessup avenue, drove out to their farm about two miles west of the city. While Mr. Williamson had gone over in the field, the horse became frightened at some boys, and the buggy was overturned. Mrs. Williamson was caught under the top of the vehicle and dragged several yards. She sustained some very bad bruises, but no bones were broken. Medical attention was secured in a few minutes and she was resting well yesterday.

Why Endure Summer Colds?
 It isn't necessary to have a stuffed head, running nose. To cough your head off as it were. All you need to do is to use Dr. Bell's Pine Tar-Honey. The soothing and healing balsam opens the clogged air passages and in a short time you get relief and start on the road to recovery. Your nose stops running, you cough less and you know you are getting better. Get a bottle, use as directed. Keep what is left as a cough and cold insurance.—Advertisement.

B. P. O. E. RESOLUTIONS

On the Death of Judge J. T. Hanbery—His Passing Deplored.

Whereas the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Universe, who is the Supreme Judge of Life, has again visited Hopkinsville Lodge No. 545, B. P. O. E. and carried from us Our Brother, J. T. Hanbery, and whereas, Brother Hanbery embodied as an Elk the same lofty ideals that he exemplified in all walks of life, as an attorney, as a judge, and as a friend, and whereas our deceased brother, by Christian living and righteous views has left a lasting example of a life well lived, and whereas we feel that God has enriched this earth by permitting us to know him, and allowing him to be one of us during his visit to this earth, and whereas the people of Hopkinsville, and of Kentucky on the date of his Home Going, August 6th, 1916, felt that our City and State had lost a son who reflected honor and credit on the Commonwealth and city of his life, and whereas our Lodge feels that it has suffered a distinct loss by reason of our brother's death on account of his wisdom, purity and truth, his every act tempered with justice, and his every thought born of love, and peace, and right living—
 And whereas the undersigned were appointed as a committee to perpetuate the high esteem and love that the members of Hopkinsville Lodge No. 545, B. P. O. E. bore for him, by drafting suitable resolutions on his return to the God of this Earth who permitted him to visit us for a season. Now therefore be it resolved:

FIRST—That we are grateful for the good that he always exercised in every walk of life, and in our lodge. Never judging his fellow man harshly, and throwing the mantle of innocence about those in trouble until they were proven guilty beyond all reasonable doubt. Never condemning upon idle report his fellow man in his social life, but always requiring exact proof before he would condemn his fellow man as unworthy. Living a life of faith, of love, of trust, and believing the best of others, unless the proof of their unworthiness was positive and unmistakable.
SECOND—That we feel that the Supreme Judge of Life has given us a great blessing by permitting Brother Hanbery to be with us during the years gone by. That we as members have been improved in every way by knowing him, and associating with him, and that our lodge has been uplifted and helped in every way by reason of his life and influence.
THIRD—That his life as a worthy son of the parents who preceded him to the grave only a short time should be cherished and followed and emulated by all who knew him, and his example as a husband, constant, true, loving, is one that should be remembered forever in this community, and that his life proved that friendships were true and loyal and could be depended upon.

FOURTH—That all who knew him should endeavor to be prepared as he was, so that when the Angel of Death should visit them, that they could pray as he did, that they be gathered to their home above, and be relieved of earthly suffering.
FIFTH—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mrs. Nola Hanbery, his surviving widow, a copy be given the local papers for publication, and that a copy be spread upon the records of our lodge.
 Given under our hand on this, the 10th day of August, 1916.
 H. E. BROWN,
 JOHN STITES,
 T. C. UNDERWOOD,
 Committee.

Judge Chas. H. Bush.
 Governor Stanley is to be congratulated on the selection of Charles H. Bush, of Hopkinsville, as the successor on the circuit court bench to succeed the late John T. Hanbery, whose death, a few days ago, caused such wide-spread grief where he was known.
 Judge Bush is one of the leading lawyers of Western Kentucky. He has for years been associated as counsel in most of the important cases in that section. He is a man of deep learning, of unblemished character, and with a judicial mind that will admirably fit him for the position to which he has just been appointed. It was fortunate for the district that so good a man could see his way clear to accept the position.—Bowling Green Messenger.

DANGER IN DELAY
Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Hopkinsville People to Neglect.
 The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease often follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in this locality.
 J. W. Francis, Alleghre, Ky., says: "For sixteen or eighteen years kidney trouble clung to me. My back was lame in the morning, I felt languid and was subject to headaches and dizzy spells. Every cold I caught settled in my kidneys and at such times I had to get up at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me in a short time. I am feeling much better in every way."
 Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Francis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
