

MOTHER ONCE WAS AFRAID TO GO TO BED

Spasmodic Croup Often Kept
Mrs. Shepard Awake
All Night.

LITTLE MISS
KATHRYN E. SHEPARD
DANVILLE, PENNA.

No one but a mother knows the terrors of croup. In the hope that other mothers will find the same relief she experienced, Mrs. Benj. Shepard, 27 Spruce St., Danville, Pa., writes—

"I have used your Vick's VapoRub Salve, and would not be without it in my house. I have tried it for spasmodic croup and it acted like a charm. My little girl breathed easier in about ten minutes after I rubbed her throat and chest with VapoRub, and she went to sleep and never woke until morning. Other times I used to have to sit up all night with her, afraid to go to bed. So I will gladly recommend it to any mothers for croup."

You just apply Vick's VapoRub Salve over throat and chest, covering with a warm flannel cloth. The body heat releases antiseptic vapors that are inhaled with each breath, loosening the phlegm. A real "Bodyguard in the home" against all cold troubles. Three sizes, 25c, and up. At all druggists.

James E. Allen, Ernest Beheler and Robert L. Slade, of Lexington, have all enlisted for the aviation section of the signal corps. They will be sent to Fort Thomas at once.

Why not ELECT a Book-keeper?

Dye Patents.

The United States Government was asked to aid the American dye industry by confiscating all German patents, in a resolution adopted by the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers at their closing session at Springfield, Mass.

Refused to Eat.

Thomas Asha, Sinn Feiner leader, died in a Dublin hospital of starvation after he had gone on a hunger strike. He was serving a sentence of a year for a speech last July. He died shortly after he was taken to the hospital.

TO THE VOTERS.

Repeatedly I have been asked to state whether or not, if elected, I would do the book-keeping in connection with the city's business? In answering this, permit me to state that if I am one of the successful candidates for Commissioner, I pledge the citizens of Hopkinsville that I will do this work fully, and whenever the time comes that I fail to do said work, I will offer my resignation as such Commissioner. I have made a special study of office work for several years and shall take pleasure in making a record worthy of the city of Hopkinsville.

I take this opportunity also to state that rumor has it that "I am going to withdraw from the race." In answer to this, allow me to state that I am in the race to the last, and assure you that such rumors are but for the purpose of defeating the will of the voters. I am not a quitter and will be in the race when the polls are closed on Nov. 6, 1917. I shall run my race and my race only—no combinations.

Respectfully yours,

CHAS. O. PROWSE.

J. W. DOLLINS

Faamer Five Miles East of Town, Victim of Typhoid Fever.

Mr. J. Watt Dollins, a farmer living on the Kirkmansville road, died of typhoid fever Wednesday, aged about 50 years. He was a prominent and influential citizen and had many friends in the city and throughout the county. His funeral services were held yesterday morning and burial was in Riverside Cemetery.
