

LONG LOST

DINNER TO SOLDIERS
MAY YET RESULT IN REUNION OF SISTERS.

(By International News Service.)
New York, Feb. 28.—A "home" meal, replete with all the "trimmings," given by a Long Island family of two young soldiers of the Rainbow division then at Camp Mills may eventually lead to the happy reunion of two sisters.

Benjamin and Solomon Morris the brother soldiers, received an invitation to take dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan R. Maas. They accepted and during their visit made mention of the long separation of their mother and her sister. The boys have since gone to France.

Mrs. Rosa Morris of Oskaloosa, Ia., whose maiden name was Rosa Feldman, and whose husband's name is Jacob Morris, is the one who is conducting the search. Mrs. Morris, mother of the soldier brothers, knows only that her sister is married and that her name is now Mrs. Abram Gold. The two were separated in early childhood when their father moved West.

The dinner at the Maas home was given during Thanksgiving week. Since then Mr. Maas got in touch with relatives of the Morris family and is persistent in his belief that he will yet be of assistance in the reunion of the two sisters.

MISSIONARY REFUSES TO REGISTER—GOES TO JAIL.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 28.—Refusing to register under the selective service act, John Newport, a missionary Baptist minister, of Robbins, Scott County, Tenn., was sentenced to one month in the Scott County jail, ordered to pay the cost in the case, and required to register.

"I have read very much about the registration," he explained, "and made an honest effort to convince myself that I should register, but the more I tried to do this the more I was convinced that I should not. I hate to break the laws of our country, but the Apostle Paul says that we are not under the law but under grace."

GOES OVER THE TOP IN THRIFT STAMP SALES.

(By International News Service.)
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 28.—Because he has Route No. 13 and No. 13 is President Wilson's lucky number, Frank Wright a mail carrier here, went "over the top" in thrift stamp sales on February 13. He wrote a personal letter to the 450 families along his route calling their attention to the President's lucky number and urging them to buy as many stamps as possible on the hoodoo day. He sold $2,000 worth, his goal.

DEATH COMES TO VETERAN

Funeral at the Presbyterian Church Yesterday Afternoon at 2 O'clock.

Geo. B. Starling, one of the oldest and most familiar citizens of Hopkinsville and Christian county, died Thursday afternoon about three o'clock. He was 81 years of age and had been in failing health for many months. Early in the civil war he joined the Confederate army and went through the entire war, a brave and gallant soldier. Late in life he married Miss Mary McCarroll who survives him. He leaves no children.

The funeral was preached Friday at 2 p. m., by the Rev. Mr. Brevard, at the First Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

AUSTRALIANS KNIT TWO SOCKS AT ONCE.

(By International News Service.)
Chicago, Feb. 26.—Knitting two socks at once is something new.

The process comes from Australia, where the double knitting is producing 50,000 pairs of socks a month for British relief. A Miss Brown came to the United States to teach the method and it has been taken up by Chicago women.

They are selling directions for double knitting at the Red Cross headquarters in Evanston, the funds going to the Red Cross, so women who want to learn how to make a right and left sock at the same time may communicate with them.

IT IS DIFFERENT NOW WITH BOOZE MORE COSTLY.

(By International News Service.)
Chicago, Feb. 28.—"We don't sell much of anything now but beer at five cents a glass and there's very little treating," said a prominent liquor dealer here. "Men are not so careless about asking others to have a drink when they may call for one that will cost twenty or twenty-five cents."

Cheatless Days.

"Cheatless days" have also been suggested. But is not that too much to even hope for?—Jacksonville (Ill.) Journal.

MOTHERS TO BE

Should Read Mrs. Monahan's Letter Published by Her Permission.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, some days I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when seven months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONTYHAN, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

NEEDY GIRLS DISLIKE NAME "DOMESTIC," SAYS CHICAGO WOMAN.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—"There would not be so many jobs waiting for housemaids and cooks if we could call the girls by less menial names than servants," declared Mrs. Ophelia Myrman, of the Swedish National Employment Bureau of Chicago, replying to Mrs. Hilda M. Richards chief of the women's division of the United States Department of Labor, who stated in New York City that for every housemaid and cook wanting a job there were 100 families wanting her.

Mrs. Myrman asserted there were less girls to be had because of the decrease in immigration, but that there were many girls who have been stenographers and factory workers out of jobs who would be glad to take domestic jobs, if they would not feel they had become servants.

"Let some one find a better title for domestic service and you will find stenographers and such will be glad to take employment in kitchens and such," she asserted.

DISLIKED COCKTAIL BATH.

(By International News Service.)
Chicago, Feb. 28.—Because she was the victim of a cocktail shower bath, Mrs. Bessie M. McAvoy has obtained a divorce from Frank A. McAvoy.

"One day my husband came home intoxicated," Mrs. McAvoy said. "He began to mix a cocktail with a lot of ice in a shaker. As he mixed he danced and brushed over a large student lamp. While I was stooping to pick up the pieces he spilled the contents of the shaker down my back."

SERVICE BELT

You girls who have been left behind, aren't you proud of your sweethearts, your brothers and relatives who are engaged in fighting for their country and yours? Have you taken any pains to let the world know your feelings? It inspires others if they know that their friends are doing something and they are not. If you proclaim to the people that your dearest are fighting, it will arouse the spark of patriotism that is in every breast. One of the most novel methods of showing how proud you are of the boys is to wear the service belt, as shown in this photograph. Four stars decorate her belt, for a brother, relatives and a sweetheart.

MAKES DARING ESCAPE

Newspaper Woman Tells Thrilling Tale of Adventure.

Declares She Prefers Death to Life in World Controlled by Victorious Germans.

New York.—A thrilling tale of adventure within the German lines in Brussels, Louvain and Zebrugge, including an escape from Ostend in a sailboat while pursued by an airplane, was brought back by Miss B. Bennett Burleigh, a daring English newspaper woman, who went "over there" to see things as they are.

"I'd just want to die if we had to live in a world where the German was victorious," she said, her eyes blazing. "I've seen them and I know how they treat the women who come into their power. Everything you read about atrocities is true, and more than can ever be told. And it's going on in Belgium today."

Belgium is being systematically destroyed by the Germans, she declared. Food is scarce and in Bruges the Belgians have substituted rats and mice as their daily subsistence, she said.

"I went everywhere on foot," explained Miss Burleigh; "that's why they didn't suspect me. Whenever I met a German sentry I began picking flowers and they took me for a native."

"Later in the season I skirted the seacoast, retreating from town to town as the Germans came in. I stood on the bridge at Ostend and watched them march in. Then I took a nurse who was a friend of mine and an old man found us a sailboat by which we went by sea to Dunkirk. An airplane swooped down on us, but fortunately the British guns opened fire on it, so we were saved."

"There can be no peace until the Germans are beaten. They must be pushed out of Belgium before we talk of peace, else we shall have to do it all over again in fifteen years," she warned.

SORRY SHE DIVORCED HIM

Ex-Wife of Soldier Wants Decree Set Aside as Pay Checks and Insurance Loom.

St. Louis.—After divorcing her husband, Mrs. Margaret Lane learned that he was of a certain value she had not known of before. He joined the army and consequently was worth $45 a month to her and her two children while alive and $10,000 in case he is killed.

So Mrs. Lane went into the circuit court and asked Judge Grimm to set aside her divorce, saying her husband had sent a check for $45 from Fort Leavenworth. Also he did not know she had obtained a decree.

But not so fast. The courts of Missouri grind slowly and so Mrs. Lane will have to write a full confession to her husband and have him consent to the decree being set aside.

SAVES BOY'S LIFE; IS SUED

Youth's Claim for $50,000 Against Famous Surgeon, Not Allowed by Jury.

New York.—Fifteen years ago Dr. Edward Kellogg, a noted surgeon, performed an operation on William Perlman which saved the boy's life. Perlman, however, lost two toes as a result of the operation. Later he sued the surgeon for $50,000 damages.

A jury has just decided that Perlman, who is now twenty-two years old, is not entitled to damages.
