E. B. Clark & Co.,
The Hustling Grocers, have just received a car load of fruit jars. Special prices to merchants.

AT THE COURT HOUSE.
Two Marriages and a Divorce Suit—Orders by the County Court.

The following orders were entered on the record of the County Court yesterday:

Leland King appointed overseer of the Bennettstown road from Palmyra-road to Maleory's Spring.

On motion of County Clerk, John P. Prowse, John Wicks appointed a deputy clerk.

C. W. Gray appointed administrator of the estate of the late Albert Kelly with D. F. Crabtree and O. A. West as sureties.

J. W. P'Pool appointed administrator of the estate of the late J. D. P'Pool with W. P. Butler as surety.

Real Estate Transfer.
William Wallace yesterday sold to Dr. J. A. Gunn a lot on Second street for $100.

Wants a Divorce.
Mrs. Carrie Harned filed suit for divorce from Jacob Harned yesterday. She says that she was abandoned by the defendant without cause on her part.

Hearts Made Happy.
The tinsel and glare of the circus, the base drum and the tom-tom, red lemonade and the pea nut vender's eloquence all seem conducive to matrimonial aspirations in the hearts of the country colored people. Judge Cansler was called on to officiate at two weddings in the clerk's office yesterday.

The hearts made happy were those of John Sargent and Willie Durrett, Jesse Renshaw and Berdie Meacham.

Save Money.
Buy your vegetables, staple and fancy groceries at E. B. Clark & Co.'s Market House. Its the place to save money.

Behold!
That great Philanthropist T. M. EDMUNDSON, is still in the ring, for the enchantment of distressed humanity. He is dispensing at his old stand the following popular brands: Old Prentice, Early Times, Old Barber, Hackley, Melwood, McBrayer the best on earth for medical purposes. Come and see me all of you who are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest.

NEW POTATOES.
Fresh Saratoga chips at Miller's every day. Try them. Tele. 159.
