DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
HENRY D. ALLEN,
OF UNION COUNTY.

In the Klondike country at this season of the year there is only three-quarters of an hour between sunset and sunrise.

The Fulton Leader is little, but very, very large for its size. Mott Ayres evidently believes any color will do, "so it's yellow."

The revised list shows that 14 American officers were killed and 47 wounded in the three days' operations about Santiago.

The Cristobal Colon, like the other Spanish ships, is a hopeless wreck and it is impossible to save enough to set afloat.

Commodore Sampson will probably surrender the remainder of his life kicking himself for holding "coast inspections" on Sunday.

A new Democratic candidate for Governor was discovered this week at the Lebanon convention. He is referred to as "Judge J. M. Wood," of Taylor county.

It is said Gen. Linares declares he will burn the town before he will surrender Santiago to the Americans. He now has only 11,000 men including Pando's reinforcement.

Only one candidate for examination for a medical certificate as a doctor of osteopathy was examined at Louisville Wednesday. She was a young woman.

A fence will be built around Camp Corbin to keep the recruits from deserting. Twenty or thirty men deserted Monday night, and probably 150 have left the camp since mobilization began.

Shafter and Sampson are said to be pulling at cross-purposes and refusing to co-operate with each other. This probably accounts for the statement that Miles will be in Cuba by Monday to take charge of the army.

Few people understand why Sampson, a captain, should have been placed over Commodore Schley in command of the naval forces around Cuba. And still fewer will understand why Sampson should have been promoted for a victory won by Schley.

Admiral Camara has passed into the Suez canal with his fleet of six or eight vessels, including one battleship. If he ever gets to the Philippines he will probably establish a base at some port other than Manila, but he will be hunted down and his fleet destroyed by the ships to be sent after him.

Two thousand cutters were shipped to Tampa on Friday to use in subsequent operations, and more will follow. Over in the Philippines the Spanish also have coraled their defenses with barbed wire, and so we have sent cutters to our army in the far-off South Seas. We, too, have sent barbed wire there to enable our forces to hold against the Spanish whatever places they will take. The Spanish disdain to use the machete, though they fear the weapon in the hands of the insurgents. They have however, no means at hand to overcome our use of barbed wire fences.

The Missouri State University at Columbia has sent a goodly number of its students to the front. Much enthusiasm prevails there over the large number of volunteers who have enlisted. Several days ago there was a meeting of the young ladies of Columbia who had decided to do something patriotic. They collaborated, and composed the following, which was forwarded to the Columbia troopers now at Chickamauga:

Fare ye well, intrepid heroes.
Haste to war with its alarms,
You'll return to find us heroes
Waiting here with yawning arms.
If the Spaniards do not plug you,
In the sanguinary fight,
Hasten back and we will hug you,
In wild spasms of delight.

WORSE THAN WAR.

The ocean horror at Cape Sable for a time causes the public to stop discussing even the war. It was the greatest disaster of the kind in modern times, more than 570 lives being lost in fifteen minutes. The details of the story are horrible in the extreme. Such a recital as this is almost beyond belief.

"Not a first-class cabin passenger was saved, the steerage passengers rushing pell-mell over them in their wild efforts to reach the small boats and the hastily improvised rafts. In many instances screaming women and children who were being hurried into boats were struck down by the panic-stricken mob or else picked up bodily and tossed overboard in the blackness. The struggle for life was terrific and ended only when the ship went down. Men in the act of being lowered into boats or onto rafts were brained with clubs or stabbed with knives or stilettes, and their places taken by the terror-stricken foreigners, who rushed like a herd of wild cattle from the steerage.

"Those who reached the boats bitterly fought off every attempt on the part of others to reach them. Men and women, and sometimes even children, who were struggling in the waves, and who would put up their hands appealingly upon the sides of the small boats pleading to be taken in, were struck back into the water or else their arms and hands were chopped off with hatchets or knives and their mutilated bodies pushed back into the depths.

"The stampede baffles description, and the awful struggle for life in the darkness and amid the waters grows in horror as each survivor adds his story."

The Chicago morning papers, eight in number, which suspended publication Friday, resumed Wednesday in four-page form. The places of the striking stereotypes are being gradually filled by non-union labor. The Record contains a long editorial explanation, from which this is taken: "The principle for which the newspaper publishers of Chicago are contending is fully recognized by the International Typographical Union, by the Chicago Typographical Union and by intelligent labor organizations everywhere. In brief, and its importance is so great that too much emphasis cannot be placed upon it, amounts to this: That hereafter no trade organization which attempts arbitrarily, without consultation or arbitration with the other parties necessary to the agreement, to regulate hours of work or rates of wages, shall be recognized in our business affairs."

Commodore Sampson has been directed to send his prisoners to the United States. Possibly the Harvard will bring some of them. The St. Louis is filled with wounded soldiers and cannot be used to convoy the Spanish soldiers. The enlisted men and the non-commissioned officers among the prisoners will be sent to Portsmouth, N. H., where they will be confined on Seavis Island, in the harbor. Orders for the immediate preparation of that place for the reception of the prisoners are going forward. The commissioned officers, from Admiral Cervera himself down to the ensigns, will be sent to Fort Warren, Boston harbor, where they will be turned over to the army for safe keeping.

A very large proportion of the 137 people who are visiting Canada as the "Kentucky Press Association" have no connection with the press. Some of them are lawyers, others are politicians and many of them are young fellows out for a pleasure trip at small expense. These outsiders are clever people no doubt, but they do not represent the editors of Kentucky, most of whom are at home at work.

It has been calculated that if a pound of thread made from spiders' webs were required it would occupy nearly 28,000 spiders a full year to furnish it.

POST-DISPATCH SNAP SHOTS.

Farmer Pingree's agricultural record is away above that of Farmer Leiters.

With so many expeditions the war management should now be more expeditious.

The patriotic brewer does not dodge the war tax. He shifts it to other patriots.

Spanish pride also goes before a fall, and the thud will be heard around the world.

Shelby County Republicans "deplore" the conduct of Uncle Filley. How very sad.

Gen. Blanco has been wounded in the thigh, and we shall presently have him on the hip.

Mr. Dingley should not be asked to explain the wheat drop. He is busy with other troubles.

Oklahoma is said to be literally a sea of grain. This is interesting to Mariner Joseph Leiter.

The watering places should cheer up. It is estimated that the sea is to last at least 7,000,000 years more.

Camara is to stay in Spain and will not go bean shooting in any direction.

Cuba having been discovered by Columbus should belong to Columbia whenever the Cubans desire annexation.

Don Carlos would cut a pretty figure in fighting the United States. He is one of several highly amusing Spaniards.

With 1000 women in session in Denver and a foreign war in progress at the same time, there is certainly no stagnation in this country.

If Maj. Amabito Jover has got out of Havana with $5,000,000 in gold coin, the Maj. is a lucky man. It is about the only great Spanish exploit of the war.

The American citizen who wrote for $30,000,000 of the new bonds without inclosing his check or any other equivalent, evidently thought that Uncle Samuel had great confidence in the people.

An "epidemic of elopements" on a day when 11 divorces were granted is not so remarkable a coincidence. Elope ments suggest hasty marriages, which may be easily followed by divorces.

Between Madagascar and the coast of India there are about 16,000 islands, only 600 of which are inhabited, but most of which are capable of supporting a population.
