FOR CONGRESS,
HENRY D. ALLEN, OF UNION COUNTY.

After all the Kentuckians are likely to see service. Maj. Gen. Brooke has announced that he will take to Porto Rico the Third brigade, under Gen. Grant, consisting of the First and Third Kentucky and the Fifth Illinois.

Rear Admiral Sampson has reported to Washington the capture of Nipe, on the northern coast of Eastern Cuba. A Spanish cruiser defending the place was destroyed. Nipe is directly north of Santiago, and has a fine bay, and is thirty-miles from Holguin.

An official of the Quartermaster's Department with Shafter's army will be detailed by General Shafter to supervise the embarkation of the Spanish prisoners for Spain. According to the terms of the contract with the Spanish Transatlantic Company this will begin by the 25th instant, when the company will have five ships at Santiago.

Gen. Grant's effort to secure the Second regiment's transfer into the First army corps, displacing the Third Kentucky, was the chief topic of conversation yesterday among officers and men at Chickamauga. It is by no means certain that the Third regiment will not be left at the post and its place taken by the company with a longer "pull."

The Pennsylvania Railroad company has done the public great service by adopting aluminum for baggage checks. They are so much lighter and cleaner than the slabs commonly used by other railways that a lady can carry them in her purse and a man can stow them away in his waistcoat pocket without feeling the weight of the load.—Chicago Record.

Gen. Miles expects to reach Porto Rico Sunday at noon, but will await the arrival of the troops en route from Tampa, Charleston and Newport News before attempting to take San Juan. The assault on the place is expected to be made by land and sea the latter part of next week, unless there is a surrender without a fight.

Everything that may now be purchased at a Chicago department store will be placed on sale in "the Havana Fair," which it is likely will be opened before Christmas. The building of the great store will begin within a week after the fall of Havana. Chicago capital will run it, and Chicago people will be employed in the various departments. A Chicago architect is now making the plans for the great building, and the corporation which is to take the first step toward "Americanizing Cuba" is being formed in that city.

Great excitement has been caused in Santiago by a story brought in by Cubans that 4,000 Cuban insurgents, comprising Gen. Garcia's army for the Eastern Department of Cuba, were routed in a fierce engagement with a detachment of Spanish troops bound for Santiago to surrender yesterday. It is not known as yet whether Gen. Garcia was aware of the number of the enemy he was attacking. If he thought he had encountered a small force of Spaniards and could overpower them easily it was a grave mistake. There were at least five thousand Spaniards in the body, and they drove Garcia's men into full retreat a few hours after the battle began. No official confirmation has been received at Washington of the report. Such action on the part of the Cuban commander would be so totally foreign to all the usages of civilized warfare that the authorities here are reluctant to believe the report, and should it be confirmed it would bring about a total change in the relations between the American forces and Gen. Garcia, if not between them and all the Cuban insurgents on the island.

Vacation in Leaf Tobacco Trade.

There will be no public sales of leaf tobacco in the Louisville and Cincinnati markets from August 1st to August 15th. The Louisville Leaf Tobacco Exchange has decided upon a vacation during that time. The Cincinnati warehousemen refused to concede a similar vacation in their market, but nine of the principal buyers, representing nearly all the large manufacturers of the United States, have signed an agreement binding themselves not to attend any public sales at any of the Cincinnati Warehouses between the 1st and 15th of August. Hence, although, the Cincinnati warehouses have not agreed to it, they can hardly hold sales without the assistance of the buyers and it will be a practical suspension of sales. It is hoped that some such vacation during the summer will eventually be made one of the permanent rules of the trade at both markets.—Farmers' Home Journal.

Democratic Prospects Good.

Mr. George Jesse, private secretary to Congressman Clardy, has returned home from Washington to spend the summer. Mr. Jesse says the Democratic congressional committee is preparing to conduct a vigorous campaign this fall, and leading Democrats are hopeful of regaining a majority in the next house. At present all interest is centered in the war, but it is expected that peace negotiations will be at least under way by the time the campaign should open, and the Democrats are loading up some thirteen inch guns to fire into the Republican camp.—Messenger.

GARCIA'S LETTER.

The Cabinet Discusses It and Has Called Shafter Down.

He Will Be Ordered to Confer With the Cubans and Treat Them as Allies.

Washington, July 23.—The letter written by Gen. Garcia to Gen. Shafter was read at the cabinet meeting yesterday, and the subject of the Cubans in Cuba, consumed a large portion of the session this morning. One member of the cabinet made a long speech in regard to the conduct of the Cubans during the war and defending Gen. Garcia and his army.

The general opinion of the Cabinet was that the Cubans have misunderstood our feelings towards them.

It is therefore intended that hereafter the Cubans shall be invited to confer and their opinions asked on certain questions, and above all, it shall be shown to them that the United States is now, as always has been their friend, and is striving to do what is best for them.

Garcia's Letters to Shafter.

A dispatch from Santiago gives the following as being a letter sent by Gen. Garcia to Gen. Shafter:

"Sir—On May 12 the government of the republic of Cuba ordered me, as commander of the Cuban army in the east, to co-operate with the American army, following the plans and obeying the orders of its commander. I have done my best, sir, to fill the wishes of my government, and I have been until now one of your most faithful subordinates, honoring myself in carrying out your orders as far as my power has allowed me to do it.

"The city of Santiago surrendered to the American army, and news of that important event was given to me by persons entirely foreign to your staff. I have not been honored with a single word from yourself informing me about the negotiations for peace or the terms of the capitulation by the Spaniards. The important ceremony of the surrender of the Spanish army and the taking possession of the city by yourself took place later on, and I only knew of both events by public reports. I was neither honored, sir, with a kind word from you inviting myself or any officer of my staff to represent the Cuban government on that memorable occasion.

"Finally, I know that you have left in power at Santiago the same Spanish authorities that for three years I have fought as enemies of the independence of Cuba. I beg to say that these authorities have never been elected at Santiago by the residents of the city, but were appointed by royal decrees of the Queen of Spain.

"I would agree, sir, that the army under your command should have taken possession of the city, the garrison and forts. I would give my warm co-operation to any measure you may have deemed best under American military law, to hold the city for your army and to preserve public order until the time comes to fulfill the solemn pledge of the people of the United States to establish in Cuba a free and independent government." But when the question arises of appointing authorities in Santiago de Cuba, under the peculiar circumstances of our thirty-years' strife against Spanish rule, I cannot see but with the deepest regret that such authorities are not elected by the Cuban people, but are the same ones selected by the Queen of Spain, and hence are ministers to defend against the Cubans the Spanish sovereignty.

"A rumor, too absurd to be believed, General, ascribes the reason of your measures and of the orders forbidding my army to enter Santiago for fear of massacres and revenge against the Spaniards. Allow me, sir, to protest against even the shadow of such an idea. We are not savages, ignoring the rules of civilized warfare. We are a poor, ragged army, as ragged and as poor as was the army of your forefathers in their noble war for independence, but, as did the heroes of Saratoga and Yorktown, we respect too deeply our cause to disgrace it with barbarism and cowardice. "In view of all these reasons, I sincerely regret to be unable to fulfill any longer the orders of my government, and therefore I have tendered to-day to the Commander-in-Chief of the Cuban Army, Maj. Gen. Maximo Gomez, my resignation as commander of this section of our army.

"Awaiting his resolution, I withdraw my forces to the interior. "Very respectfully yours, "CALIXTO GARCIA."
