A NEW SONG.

"Mr. Johnson Turn Me Loose," By a Trio of Recruits.

Judge Leavell had some business on hand this morning.

Lewis Piper, col., a vagrant, was given the alternative of paying $31 or going to Bastille de Johnson for 31 days. He didn't have the change handy and is now making a musical appeal to Mr. Johnson.

Ernest Johnson was another colored gentleman of leisure who was same against the same and received the same sentence.

Ed. Cooper was number three of this interesting trio and as he was found with a concealed deadly weapon he got twenty-five days more than his friends and will pursue his geological experiments for fifty-six days.

One case of drunk and carrying concealed a deadly weapon was given a fine of $5 for one and $25 for the other offense, with costs in both cases. Satisfied.

RIPPED HIS BELLOWS.

Act of Some Unknown Miscreant at Pembroke.

A large bellows belonging to L. E. Tunks, who operates a blacksmith shop at Pembroke, was cut to pieces by some unknown party Tuesday night.

Mr. Tunks locked up his shop about night and on returning to work yesterday morning, found that his bellows had been ripped entirely around with a knife or some other sharp instrument. The party evidently crawled under the house and did the cutting through a crack in the floor. The bellows was as good as new and cost about twelve dollars.

IF YOU HAVE MARRIED

Since July 1, You Need a 50-Cent Stamp on Your License.

The effects of the war are far reaching and extend almost everywhere. It even affects the matrimonial business.

It has recently been decided that under the new revenue law a 50-cent stamp must be placed on all marriage bonds for licenses issued by the County Court Clerk. Before this decision was rendered the clerks issued quite a number of licenses. This raises the question of their validity, but to remove all doubt persons holding such licenses should come forward and stamp them. This must be done in person by the interested party.

A GAY WEEK.

Social Events Continue to Enliven Social Society.

Novel Entertainment Given by Miss Sadie Frankel Last Night.

This has been a week of ceaseless gaiety in Jewish society circles and one of the pleasantest and most enjoyable of the numerous entertainments was given by Miss Sadie Frankel last night, in honor of the visitors in the city.

The chief feature was a guessing contest based on the ability of the guests to represent by drawings the ideas contained in the popular songs of the day.

Each guest was given a slip of paper with the title of a song and was required to draw a picture representing it and the other guests were required to guess the songs from the pictures. Prizes were given to the most successful guessers. Some of the songs were illustrated by the following artists:

"Hearts Bowed Down," Joe Metz.

"Apple Blossoms," Ben Lowenstein.

"Only One Girl in This World for Me," Sam Frankel.

"Sweet Violets," Will Bamberger.

"Falling by the Wayside," Max Mendel.

"Can You Then Love Another?" Harry Lipstine.

"My Girl's a High Born Lady," Geo. Hart.

"Pictures Turned Against the Wall," Max Moayan.

Miss David was the winner of the first prize, guessing 21 out of 30 of the pictures.

Mr. J. M. Frankel got the second prize and Mr. M. D. Mendel the third. Miss Daisy Kleeman had the best picture from an artistic standpoint.

Refreshments were served of the most delicious character, the table being decorated with flowers and laden with the choice of edibles. About fifty guests were present.

TWENTY-ONE PASSED

Lieut. Johnson Musters in the Colored Recruits.

Hopes to Get Four More in Time to Go With the Others.

The following named colored men were enlisted for the Tenth United States cavalry, now stationed at Santiago, Cuba, to-day. These men will be sent at 11:16 p. m. to Fort McPherson, Ga., under charge of Clarence O'Neal, where they will be equipped and armed and later will be sent to join the regiment wherever it may be.

Willie Majors, William Richardson, Edward Ducker, Clarence E. O'Neal, John T. Thompson, Richard Hardin, Alex Sivel, Matt Campbell, Edward Wallace, Luther Drake, Albert Dade, Saint Leavell, Geo. McReynolds, Jas. Ricketts, Alphonso Alexander, Frank Mayes, Jr., Will Haughton, Geo. Dabney, John Norman, Forrest Hampton, Gardner Coleman.

The Regiment has just taken part in all of the battles before Santiago with great credit to all of its members. It is brigaded with the Rough Riders and 1st cavalry and opportunely arrived in time to take part in the first battle at La Guasima—and probably saved them at that time. It was also side by side with them when the charge was made on San Juan Hill and had eleven of the twenty-one officers with the Regiment killed or wounded there.
