

GARCIA

Is Still Threatening To Cause Trouble.

Gone Off To Consult With Gomez in Santa Clara.

Santiago, Cuba, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Gen. Garcia has left this province and has gone to join Gen. Gomez in Santa Clara province. He is still very much disgruntled and the Cubans may continue their guerilla warfare after the peace with Spain has been concluded.

Secretary Day to Retire.

The President's Ideas Discussed.

Washington, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—According to a close personal friend of President McKinley the President expects the permanent possession of Manila and the island of Luzon by the United States to be one of the fruits of the war. He is said, on similar authority, to expect the Cuban question to resolve itself into a protectorate, with a view to ultimate annexation.

It is said to be the intention of Secretary Day to retire from public office immediately after the restoration of peace, and to devote himself to the practice of law in Canton. He will probably be one of the peace commissioners.

SENT HOME ON SICK LEAVE.

CAPT. CHARLES E. CLARK, U. S. N.

This daring navigator and fighter, who is the captain of the first-class battleship Oregon, brought that ship from San Francisco over 13,000 miles of sea, every inch of which was beset with danger, and has now joined Admiral Sampson's fleet. He is a native of Vermont, 34 years of age, and has seen active service in all parts of the world. For four years he was lighthouse inspector at Chicago.

Missouri Democrats With Texas On Territorial Expansion.

Springfield, Mo., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Congressman Richard P. Bland's friends say he and other Missouri leaders are in accord with ex-Gov. Stone on the question of territorial expansion.

The action of the Democratic convention in Texas changed some of them and even those opposed to expansion are now willing to compromise on acquiring Porto Rico and other territory in the "Western hemisphere."

Seventeen Spaniards Killed In a Fight Saturday.

Madrid, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—An official dispatch from Porto Rico says the Americans Saturday seized the Customs House in the village of Fajardo, which place was without a garrison.

An American column, the dispatch also says, supported by artillery, advanced on Guayama. The Spaniards made a brave defense, but were forced to withdraw to Alturas. Seventeen of the Spaniards were killed.

THIS IS TOUGH.

The Third Kentucky Turned Down at Last.

The Fifth Illinois Slipped Back Into Grant's Brigade at the Last Moment.

Newport News, Va., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—The Fifth Illinois infantry, after being repeatedly delayed in moving from Chickamauga and finally thrown out of the Third brigade of the First division First army corps, is rejoicing at the expense of the misfortune of the Third Kentucky infantry. The Illinois regiment slips back into the Third brigade and thus displaces Col. Smith's command.

Since the arrival here of the Third Kentucky, the regiment has become infected with mumps and measles. So prevalent have these diseases become in the regiment that one company has been reduced to twenty-five effectives. Fearing that the crew of the vessel and the entire regiment might become infected, Gen. Grant issued an order Saturday whereby the Fifth Illinois sails and the Third Kentucky remains behind for the time being, at least.

BODIES TO BE EXHUMED.

And Brought Home for Final Interment.

Washington, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Secretary Alger has decided to have the bodies of all the men who died or were killed at Santiago brought to this country. He has cabled to Santiago giving orders to that effect.

This will be done as soon as the heated term is past. It may be that in order to avoid risks the bodies of the men who died with fever will not be brought up for some months, but there will be no delay in the other cases. In the meantime Secretary Alger has given orders that the temporary headboards now marking the graves be replaced with better ones, so that identification may be complete.

When the bodies of the soldiers arrive here they will be turned over to relatives or interred in the National cemetery.

GRACEY GLEANINGS.

A Fine Rain Sunday Evening Helps the Crops.

Gracey, Ky., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—This section was blessed with a fine rain yesterday evening that gave the finishing touches to the finest corn crop ever grown in this part of the country.

Mr. J. N. Hooser, of Hopkinsville, has moved to this place and will fill a position with J. P. Meacham, the liveryman.

All of the wheat in this neighborhood has been threshed, but nobody is in a hurry to sell. The farmers have profited by their experience of late years, and will hold for better prices.

GEN. WHEELER'S COMING

Old War Horse Sails From Santiago—Transports are Arriving.

Santiago, Aug. 8.—Gen. Wheeler sailed on the Miami. Seven hundred and fifty men, of Gen. Kent's division, the Sixth Infantry, will sail to-day by the Vigilancia. The Alcante, the first Spanish transport, arrived yesterday afternoon, and Gen. Shafter expects to begin shipping the Spanish prisoners of war by her to-day.

Death of Mrs. Mayes.

Princeton, Ky., Aug. 8.—Mrs. Mayes, wife of A. C. Mayes, one of the best known and most prominent citizens of Princeton, in business here for forty years, died very suddenly Saturday morning.

BY THE NECK.

Saturday Was a Good Day for Lynching.

Two Men Hung and a Mob Hot on the Trail of Another.

Palestine, Texas, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Dan Ogg, colored, was mobbed last night by a mob of 100 men for the crime of attempted assault on a young lady.

TWO SIMILAR CASES.

One Was Hung, the Other Will be if Caught.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 8.—The ten-year-old daughter of J. M. C. Howell, a prominent citizen, was outraged Saturday night by a negro brute, who subsequently cut her throat, severed her fingers and otherwise butchered her. The negro was pursued by police and deputy sheriffs.

Memphis, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Rich Thurmond, a negro who attempted outrage upon a white girl in Ripley, Miss., was captured at a point about forty miles distant, yesterday evening and was conveyed to the scene of his crime by special train, escorted by about two hundred people, who desired to be in at his summary execution.

SAVED HER FATHER

At the Expense of Her Own Liberty.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 8.—Miss Mattie Markham, a pretty white woman, twenty-two years, planned a successful jail delivery here last night and is now herself a prisoner at police headquarters. Miss Markham's intention was to liberate her father, George W. Markham, a Woodford county farmer being held to the grand jury on the charge of stealing hemp. She was assisted in the undertaking by Newt. Moscow, who was arrested with her father on the same charge, but had been released on bond. Moscow is also locked up. Markham is at large, as is also Walter Whitman, under indictment for robbery. Miss Markham took to her father yesterday a rope wrapped around her waist beneath her clothing, and Moscow, who also paid a visit to the jail took with him a large file. The men were in the hospital department in the third story and had little trouble reaching the ground.

The girl admits planning and executing the delivery. She says her father was the only support of the family and she desired to liberate him. Markham is 60 years old and wears a sandy moustache, is six feet tall and weighs 160 pounds. He left in his shirt sleeves.

Offer 10,000 Bottles.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—A large firm on the Rhine has offered, through the United States Embassy, to send 10,000 bottles of their mineral waters to the sick American soldiers. The water is said to be valuable in yellow fever cases.

A Mexican Silver Mine.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—A new smelter in Juarez, Mexico, across the Rio Grande from this city, began operation with about 200 car loads of silver ore.

Edgar Brown no Better.

Crofton, Ky., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Edgar Brown continues so low that his physician has now given up all hope of his recovery. His death is a question of a very short time.

Died of Fever.

Ashville, N. C., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Brig. Gen. John Spaland died here to-day of fever contracted at Chickamauga.

DOVE

Of Peace Still Hovers Over Us.

Spain's Acceptance Is Now Being Transmitted.

Washington, August 8.—(Special.)—The Spanish reply to the peace proposal has not been received by the French Ambassador, M. Cambon, up to 9:30 this morning. The delay in translating into cipher in Paris is causing the hitch.

It is understood that Spain has accepted unconditionally, but capitalists are trying to saddle the Cuban debt on us.

Madrid, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—The Cabinet council terminated last night after having completely approved the reply to the United States, which accepts the American conditions.

The government is fully convinced that the note will be satisfactory to the Washington government, and that a suspension of hostilities will be its immediate consequence.

It is reported that Duke Almodovar de Rio, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Monsignor Merry Del Val, Spanish Ambassador to the Vatican, will be selected to represent Spain in the negotiations.

The Reply Leaves Paris— Is Cabled to M. Cambon.

Paris, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—The Spanish Ambassador here cabled the reply to M. Cambon at Washington this morning just before noon. It will have to be translated into English before it is delivered to President McKinley.

In Four Columns the Americans Are Moving on San Juan.

Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 7.—(Special.)—In four columns the American forces now are moving forward, intending to drive all of the Spanish forces on the island into San Juan and to bottle them up there.

Gen. Schwan has started for Mayaguez, by way of Yuaco and San German, while Gen. Henry is proceeding direct to Arecibo, where his forces will be joined by those under Gen. Schwan. Gen. Wilson is advancing upon Coamo, while Gen. Brooke is pushing forward toward Cayey and Arroyo.

Glad to Get Away. More Soldiers Start Home.

Santiago, Cuba, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Five transports left this morning for home.

KNOCKED DOWN.

And Severely Hurt by a Flying Brake.

Crofton, Ky., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Bud Knight, a section hand on the Mannington section of the L. & N., was hit by a "brake shoe" Saturday night and severely hurt. The piece flew off and struck him on the hip and knocked him down. He is laid up, but will recover.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Three Men Killed on a Connecticut Railroad.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Three trainmen on the New Haven and Hartford Railroad were killed this morning in an accident at Canton Junction.

Hobson is going to visit Cervera at Annapolis. The navy did the business.