"(a) Exceptions: Agents of publishers or dealers news stands and newsboys may return unsold copies provided unsold copies have not been in the possession of retail dealers, newsstands or newsboys.

"(b) Retailers, news stands or news boys, receiving papers too late for sale on account of delay in transportation may refund copies to the publisher.

"2. Discontinue giving copies to anybody except for office working copies or where required by law in the case of official advertising.

"(a) Exceptions: Copies may be given free to employees of newspapers of such is the present practice of the office. No free copies shall be given to relatives, stockholders or others not actually engaged in the publication of the paper.

"(b) Copies may be sent free to former employees who are in war service and copies may be sent free to camp libraries of institutions recognized by the government, such as the Y. M. C. A., K. of C., etc.

"(c) Copies may be sent free to the offices of the library of congress and state and other public libraries who will agree to bind or otherwise preserve the file of the paper.

"3.—Discontinue giving free copies to advertisers, except not more than one copy for checking purposes.

"(a) Exceptions: Any advertiser who customarily places advertising with the newspaper in at least four issues each week and any advertising agency from which the publisher receives advertising regularly may be put on the regular mailing list, to facilitate handling in the mailing room.

"(b) Copies must not be sent as a means of advertising the paper itself to advertising agencies from whom the publisher does not regularly receive business."

FOCH'S PLAN; NO REST FOR FOE

Washington, Aug. 8.—American army officials greeted with delight today news that the Franco-British forces have launched a smashing blow at the enemy on the wide front in the Picardy front.

The supreme commander has made it evident that he has the men and the means to keep up the aggressive battle for which American officers have been desirous.

The reputation of the great French strategist is that he is the advocate of attacking the enemy without rest. He is living up to that reputation today as never before and indications tonight were that he had scored another punishing surprise blow on the enemy already staggering under a thrust that swept him out of the Marne salient in two weeks.

As the situation is seen here, the enemy now faces alternative operations on at least two fronts. Pressure along the Vesle line is being maintained vigorously and even while the new drive was getting under way on the Albert-Mondidier line to the north, French, American and British troops were hammering away that made it virtually certain that the Aisne-Vesle triangle would be cleared of the enemy shortly as the allied line here carried forward to the Aisne or possibly across it.

Around Soissons the French are already in position to outflank the line north of the Aisne should occasion offer, or to swing north and east and menace the Germans in the Picardy salient in the flank and rear.

The enemy now faces the necessity of bolstering up his lines along the bottom of the Picardy salient without delay or undertaking immediately a great withdrawal there. If he withdraws troops from the Aisne-Vesle line, it is certain he will be forced back there and if he calls in the reserves from the north a British attack to flatten out the Flanders salient is almost a certainty.

Secretary Baker said today that the new program of the war department of five million men by next spring was recommended by the military section of the supreme war council at Versailles. From this was drawn the deduction that these highly trained military students of all the allied nations and the United States with the facts before them, have reached the conclusion that with such an American force coming on, the pooled resources on the western front were already sufficient to permit Gen. Foch to begin his effort to oust the enemy and destroy his military power. It was undoubtedly on this showing that the plan suggested of redoubling the American effort was promptly approved by President Wilson and every resource of the nation in men or money of supplies pledged to the great task.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

You are required to call at the County Assessor's office at once and give in your list of property for taxes, for we cannot list everybody the last day. I have from July 1, 1918, to Nov. 1, 1918 to list 14,000 taxpayers. Consequently everyone who can should come in now in order to save paying a penalty and avoid the rush.

SPEED DEMONS WILL CONTRIBUTE TO ENTERTAINMENT OF VISITORS

Automobile racing, one of the most exciting amusements in the field of sport, will be a big feature of the sixteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of September 9-14.

Saturday afternoon of fair week the "crack" drivers of the world will tear around the dirt track of the Fair's celebrated speedway, and will go after the greatest records the automobile world boasts at present.

From $500 to $1,000 in cash prizes will be hung up for each event, and the contestants will be a galaxy of stars selected by Kentucky State Fair Secretary Fount T. Kremer from the world's greatest drivers. The list available includes Eddie O'Donnell, the world's racing king; Dave Lewis, Pacific coast star on both track and speedway; two of the famous Chevrolet brothers, first foreigners to compete over the American speed courses; Barney Oldfield, dirt track veteran of the lot and rated as the "master driver" of the world; Earl Cooper, of the famous Stutz team; Andy Burke, George Clarke, "Wild Bill" Eudicott, Louis Dishrow, Fred Horey, present world's track champion; Sig Haugdahl, Ray Lamkin, Percy Ford, Jules Ellingboe, Leon Duray, Art Klein, Dave Koestia, Tom Milton, Al Streigle, Glen Breed, Cliff Toft, Eddie Hearn, Louis Le Cocq, and a score of others.

Automobile racing, under the guidance of the International Motor Contest Association, has become just as important a part of every big agricultural fair and exhibition for the development of high-speed motors as horse racing has been in the past to encourage the breeding of high-standard horses, and the exhibition of motors for farm and agricultural work at the various state and county fairs is now undergoing the same development which the standard-bred working horses underwent 29 years ago to develop the working mules for agriculture.

Three Cows and a Lily Equal Five Cows and No Lily

WE are offering you the Lily cream separator because the Lily is the machine we believe in. Its records and tests have convinced us that you can make more money from three cows and a Lily than with five cows and no Lily. That ought to interest you.

We believe in the sturdy, simple, sanitary design; the working of the few closely-grouped gears; the splash oiling system that doesn't fail; the one-adjustment feature which we will explain later.

Most of all we believe in the Lily bowl, which gets all the cream out of the milk, down to about one drop in each gallon. That's what counts.

Come in and see this good cream separator.
