

The Press.

R. C. WALKER, - Publisher.
WALTER WALKER, Manager.

ONE YEAR ONE DOLLAR

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce
M. F. POGUE
as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative of Crittenden and Livingston counties in the next general assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

We are authorized to announce
A. J. BENNETT,
a candidate to represent Crittenden and Livingston counties in the next General Assembly of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce
JOHN T. FRANKS,
a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff of Crittenden County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

Hon. V. Perkins, of Sebree, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for State Senator in this Senatorial district.

Representative Wheeler is in receipt of a large number of letters from Kentucky Democrats endorsing his views in regard to the plan of selecting a United States Senator by the primary plan.

It is announced that Senator Deboe will recommend ex-Governor Bradley for the Judgeship of the Eastern Federal court district of this State. Politics makes friends enemies, and enemies friends.

We will risk our reputation as a prophet on the prediction that Marion will have electric lights, water-works, and an ice plant within the next twelve months, provided always that the unforeseen does not happen.

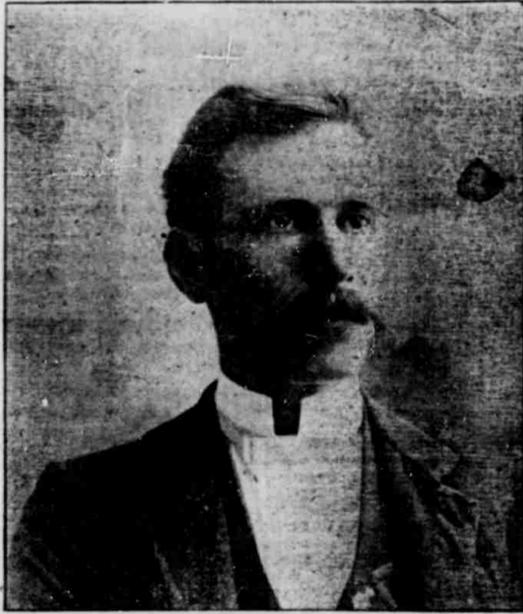

The death of England's great Queen is lamented throughout our country. No foreign ruler was ever so respected and honored by American citizens. When the news reached Washington that Victoria was no more, the great flag on the White House was lowered to half-mast, a mark of respect never before given a foreign ruler. During her long reign of sixty-three years her majesty has always managed to keep the relations between her kingdom and this republic on the friendliest footing. Victoria was a noble woman and a wise ruler.

We announce Mr. A. J. Bennett as a candidate for representative and we assure our readers that it is a pleasure to perform this task for such men as Mr. Bennett. He is one of the best known farmers of the Tolu section, and he is known as a man of strong convictions, good judgment, great firmness and undoubted probity. He is a loyal Democrat of long party service—one whom devotion to principle has been without hope or expectation of personal reward. He has a large acquaintance throughout both counties, and his candidacy will meet with the hearty endorsement of his many friends.

In this paper Mr. John T. Franks has a card announcing his candidacy for Sheriff. There are few men better known in Crittenden county than Mr. Franks; he served the county as sheriff four years and no man ever retired from office in the county with more friends. He is pleasant, affable and courteous in all his business transactions, honest in all his dealings, reliable in every promise or statement, competent for most any official work; it is not strange that he has hundreds of friends among those who know him best. Should his party honor him with the nomination, it will place its interests in the hands of a mighty strong man.

FOR SHERIFF.

JOHN T. FRANKS ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR SHERIFF OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY.

As I am physically unable to leave here for a few days, I deem it but justice to myself and friends to address you through the columns of the Crittenden Press. Some time ago I was solicited by a number of friends to announce myself a candidate for the office of sheriff, and being inclined to serve the people of old Crittenden, as well as to gratify the wishes of my friends, I consented to make the race and hereby announce myself a candidate, subject to the action of the Republican party. I desire to thank you for the trust you have placed in me in the past, and I hope my record as an officer has been such as will commend me to your favorable consideration. If honored with the office I promise a faithful discharge of the duties of same without fear or favor. Hoping to be able to see you all personally within the next few weeks, and again thanking you, I am,

Very truly yours,
JOHN T. FRANKS.
Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 21, 1901.

THE GLORIOUS REIGN

Of Queen Victoria is Over, and a King Now Rules.

Victoria, Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of India, died at Osborne House, on the Isle of Wight, at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, surrounded by her children and grandchildren. She was of the House of Hanover; was in the eighty-second year of her age and had reigned sixty-three years.

The end came peacefully and without pain. Never was there so much sorrowing in England. The funeral will take place at Windsor probably on Saturday next, and the remains will be interred at Frogmore, where rest those of the Prince Consort. The funeral will be elaborate and one of the greatest events of a century, both in England and the continent.

Upon receipt of the news of the Queen's death, President McKinley dispatched a message of condolence. Secretary of State Hay sent a similar message, to be conveyed through Ambassador Choate. The flag on the Executive Mansion was at half-mast—an unusual proceeding—and Congress adopted suitable resolutions.

Bryan, Harrison and other noted statesmen of America have expressed the deepest sympathy and speak in terms of praise of the good old Queen's noble works.

Albert Edward, Prince of Wales has been proclaimed King under the title of Edward VII. Parliament was convened and its members took the oath of allegiance to the new sovereign. Details of the illness of the Queen will be found on the third page of this week's paper.

Ex-Gov. Mount Dies Suddenly.

Ex-Governor Mount, of Indiana died suddenly at 6 o'clock Thursday evening, Jan. 17th, in Indianapolis, just twenty-four hours after retiring from the governorship of the State. The ex-governor was a victim of apoplexy.

CLEVELAND

Makes a Savage Attack Upon the Policy of McKinley.

New York, Jan. 18.—The speech of ex-President Cleveland at the banquet of the Holland society, last night, is being much discussed here today. His strong stand against the policy of President McKinley has created considerable surprise in view of the failure of Mr. Cleveland to make known his views prior to the election. However, the address of the ex-President is being adopted by democrats generally, as expressing their views. It is regarded as a bid for leadership in the party. Many different views are expressed as to the wisdom of following Cleveland's lead, and well posted party men say that he can never again become a party leader, no matter how well he accords with his party; men who supported Bryan are saying that Cleveland has simply stated what the Nebraska said was the chief issue of the campaign and upon which Cleveland would not support Bryan. They say that it was Cleveland's duty to have made his speech before the election, when it might have availed something.

Cleveland's speech, while not lengthy, was a powerful arraignment of McKinley's policy of imperialism. He also denounced England's war on the Boers in bitter terms.

Masters of Men.

The Saturday Evening Post announces for early publication a twelve-page serial story of love and adventure by Morgan Robertson. Masters of Men is a powerful tale of the new navy. The central figures in the story are a rich orphan, who has entered the navy as an apprentice, and a young ensign fresh from the Naval Academy. The author leads his two heroes through a maze of adventures by land and sea. This romance may fairly be called the best work of the best writer of sea stories in the country.

JOHN K. HENDRICK

Makes Correction About the Fusion Ticket in Livingston.

A dispatch from Paducah to the Louisville Times in reference to an alleged fusion ticket in Livingston county, was published as a matter of news in the Press last week. The publication calls for a letter from Hon. John K. Hendrick, which we publish below. No diagram is needed to explain the meaning of the letter, and no footnotes are necessary to elucidate the intention of the author. John Hendricks is a Democrat.

SMITHLAND, KY., Jan. 22, 1901.
EDITOR PRESS: My attention has been called to a paragraph in the last issue of your paper, to the effect that my friends in this county would "fuse" with the discontented element to defeat the Democratic nominees.

There is not a word of truth in the statement. I AM A DEMOCRAT. I will vote for the nominees of the late primary, from top to bottom, and every Democratic friend of mine in the county will do likewise, so far as I know, or have reason to believe.

If there is any disaffection in the party, in the county, I am not aware of the fact; and I feel confident that no independent ticket will be put in the field; if there should be I will do my utmost to bring about its overwhelming defeat. In the list published by you as probable candidates, there is not a solitary Democrat, but if they were all Democrats, it would make no difference with me, they could not get my vote against the nominees. Please make this correction.
Yours, etc.,
JOHN K. HENDRICK.

J. A. GRAVES.

When one has inherited a faith as Mr. Graves has inherited Democracy, is instructed in it, and cultivates it from youth to manhood, that faith becomes the root and fibre, the tree and flower of intellectual life; it develops into an inspiration of noblest endeavors. All the "days of the years of his life" Gussie Graves has been quietly but intensely interested in the welfare of the Democratic party. In Dycusburg precinct, where he resides, he is the very watch and ward against the encroachments of other parties. During every campaign he is on the alert to organize and hold the Democratic voters ready and instant with telling ballots.

Appreciating this attribute of faithfulness his friends are tendering him their support as their representative in the Kentucky legislature. He enters the race before the primary convention only at the strong solicitation of his friends. The dignity of his nature would not permit him to enter the race unless there was an almost demanding call; having entered upon a canvass loyalty to his friends and his cause will induce him to win for himself the nomination of his party, if it is to be won by fairest means, and having won to stand faithfully by the principles of the party he shall represent. Never a Knight of chivalry rode with truer faith or more valiant heart than Gussie Graves will ride to consult with the good Democrats of his district. His friends want him to meet and greet and win for his support at the polls every Democrat in Crittenden and Livingston counties. Be assured no truer Democrat lives. None other could take your trust with cleaner hands or guard it with greater faithfulness than Gussie Graves.

ONE WHO KNOWS.

Positively relieves the cough and cures the worst cold in 10 hours.

Williams Comedy Company

IN REPERTOIRE.

Opera House Beginning Monday Evening Jan. 7

And continuing through the week.

A Company of eighteen artists, presenting the best Dramatic Comedies of the day. Continuous performance—no long between acts.

This company has been playing in Kentucky for several weeks and has been successfully entertaining large audiences at Hopkins, Madisonville, Earlington and Henderson.

MATINEE Saturday afternoon. "Little Lord Fauntleroy" be presented.

POPULAR PRICES.

Princeton Missionary Rally.

Will be held at Princeton, Ky., February 7 and 8, 1891, beginning at 10 a. m. February 7.

The following is the programme: 10:00 A. M.—The Gospel mission; Matt 28, 19 and 20. Its design and perpetuity. T. C. Peters and S. K. Breeding.

10:40, a. m.—What are we doing in the foreign missionary field. W. F. Hugard and N. Whitley.

11:15—Sermon by T. L. Crandell 1:30 p. m.—Afternoon Session.

2:00 p. m.—What are we doing for domestic missions. W. C. Haynes, G. W. Pangborn.

3:00 p. m.—How can we secure the best co-operation and support of our people in mission work. J. B. Seay and T. V. Joiner.

7:00 p. m.—A missionary sermon by T. V. Joiner.

SECOND DAY.

9:30 a. m.—Opening exercises.

9:45 a. m.—The claim of missions upon our pastors. W. R. Smith, R. T. McConnell.

10:00 a. m.—The pastor at the missionary collections. E. D. Boggs, J. W. Crowe.

10:30 a. m.—The layman and the collections for missions. R. H. Roe, N. Utley.

11:00 a. m.—Sermon, B. A. Cundiff 1:30 p. m.—Five minute voluntary talks on business.

2:30 p. m.—Prayer services for the success of the cause of missions.

7:00 p. m.—Sermon, T. C. Carter.

Illinois Central R. R. OF INTEREST TO STOCKHOLDERS.

Free Transportation to Attend the Special Meeting at Chicago.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY. NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.

Public notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad Company will be held at the Company's office in Chicago, Illinois, on Saturday, January 26, 1901, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

To permit personal attendance at this meeting, there will be issued, to each holder of one or more shares of the Capital Stock of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, as registered on the books of the Company, a ticket enabling him, or her, to travel free over the Company's Lines from the station on the Illinois Central Railroad nearest to his or her registered address to Chicago and return, such ticket to be good for the journey to Chicago only during the four days immediately preceding, and the day of the meeting, and for the return journey from Chicago only on the day of the meeting, and the four days immediately following, when properly countersigned and stamped during business hours—that is to say, between 9 a. m. and 5:00 p. m.—in the office of the Assistant Secretary, Mr. W. G. Bruen, in Chicago. Such ticket may be obtained by any registered holder of stock on application, in writing, to the President of the Company in Chicago. Each application must state the full name and address of the Stockholder exactly as given in his or her Certificate of Stock, together with the number and date of such Certificate. No more than one person will be carried free in respect to any one holding of stock as registered on the books of the Company.

For the purposes of this meeting the Stock Transfer Books will be closed at three o'clock p. m. on Thursday, Dec. 20, 1900, and remain closed until the morning of Monday, January 7, 1901.

A. G. HACKSTAFF, Secretary.

Wanted.

Three or four young board during school at very reasonable rates. Comfortable room. John W. Sklar.

Notice.

All persons indebted to the firm of Clark & Kevil will please and settle their accounts with me as I have charge of the business of the firm. [Please do not settle with the firm.] David B. Kevil.

Notice.

I must close up all of my business, and all parties owing me must call and settle without delay. I hope this notice will be sufficient warning. If you are indebted to me, come in and arrange at once. Thanking you for favors, I am,
Yours truly,
J. R. Summers
Jan. 1, 1901.

Notice.

All persons indebted to the firm of W. B. Binkley are requested to call and settle the money and must make collections without delay. A to the wise is sufficient.
W. B. Binkley
View, Ky., Jan. 1, 1901.

STRAYED—From my farm Crittenden Springs, about 3 weeks ago, one mouse colored milk will weigh between 700 and 800 lbs. Will pay a liberal reward for return. Any information be thankfully received.
R. W. White

The cel and Pianos, are sold on monthly payments or a 10% discount for cash. For sale C. Haynes grocery store, 1st west of Pierce & Son's. Call see one and get prices.

A. J. CHITTENDEN.

Stray Notice.

Taken up as stray on Nov. 2, 1900, one pale red cow, short horn and unmarked. Seemingly 5 years old.

J. B. McKinley,
Jan. 7, 1900. Gladstone.

Farm---Saw-Mill.

I have a small farm near Hopkins, Ky., to exchange for saw-mill, engine and boiler. House of 4 rooms, good outbuilding. Farm all fenced. W. N. Davis
Lola, Ky.