PRINCETON PRESBYTERY LAST WEEK

MET WITH THE PRINCETON CHURCH ON TUESDAY OCT. 9.

A Most Interesting and Beneficial Session Held—Fourteen Churches Were Represented.

MADISONVILLE NEXT YEAR.

October 9, 1906 Princeton Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church met pursuant to adjournment at Mt. Carmel church near White Plains, Hopkins county, Kentucky. The cannon ball does not stop off at White Plains, but Nortonville instead, this last place being described as "a saloon for each hundred inhabitants" and the saloons number four. From Nortonville we checked our own baggage and traveled in our own car "without the aid or consent of any other nation on earth."

Promptly at 7:30 p. m. Rev. G. L. Woodruff, retiring moderator, began his sermon, taking for his subject "Religious Convictions".

Rev. I. G. Joiner, a pioneer preacher, was elected moderator. His biography is thus characteristically summed up: Born seventy years ago on the last day of the week, last day of the month and last day of the year. He is the last one of the family (youngest) and is the last survivor. The following ministers were present: I. G. Joiner, G. L. Woodruff, J. L. Price, Jno. R. King, A. C. Biddle and W. T. Oakley. Two others sent excuses for absence, J. B. Lowry and O. C. Womac. R. A. Moore and T. C. Boucher were received under the care of the presbytery as candidates for the ministry and Elder H. N. Lamb was elected stated clerk.

The so-called union left the Presbytery without funds and so the first matter to be looked into was how to place Princeton presbytery upon a business and working basis. It was calculated that a pro rata of two dollars among the fourteen represented churches and several others known to be loyal. This proved the magic touch. Men good and true pledged their churches for the union, paying it into the treasury there and then themselves, taking their respective churches for reimbursement. Some were not prepared to do this. Then it was that Geo. W. Putnam said: "If any delegate is not prepared to pay this money now I will pay it and take his church for it." Needless to say that the money was raised and Cumberland Presbyterianism did not die.

Various committees were appointed to look after divers affairs. Among others was a committee on affairs whose duty it is to look after the churches which are jeopardized by the so-called union with the Presbyterian church, U. S. A. Rev.

HOLD PRESBYTERY AT MT. CARMEL

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIANS ENJOY INTERESTING MEETING.

Rev. I. G. Joiner Elected Moderator and Craneyville Selected For Next Meeting.

UNION QUESTION REVIEWED.

Princeton Presbytery, of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A. met in Princeton, Ky., Tuesday Oct. 9th 1906, at 7:30 p. m.

The opening sermon was preached by the retiring moderator, Rev. R. H. Anthony, from John 8:31,32 his theme was "How the truth makes us free." He clearly showed that narrowness and sectarianism was inconsistent with the eternal truth of God. Five congregations and two ministers were transferred from the Louisville Presbytery, of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A. to Princeton Presbytesy. Rev. E. H. Bull, of Hopkinsville, preached an able sermon Wednesday, 11 a. m. on the theme of "evangelism." He said this was the key-note of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., and showed the wonderful work done in that direction and the thousands brought to Christ through their means of evangelism. He pressed the importance of every church member being a soul winner. Wednesday afternoon was devoted to live topics pertaining to church work and embraces such topics as the "Presbyterian Brotherhood" men's organizations etc. Judge J. I. Landes, of Hopkinsville, made a fine speech on this line, good speeches were also made by Dr. R. L. Moore, of Marion, Ky., and Jas. West, of Hopkinsville, Ky. Rev. A. J. Thompson, of Kattawa, preached an excellent sermon on missions on Wednesday night. It was soul-stirring because of its fact and full of the Holy Ghost. He clearly showed that the mission of church was to go out and save the world. The work of the Presbytery was excellent. The reports of the committees were encouraging. The Presbytery was thoroughly organized in all departments for the purpose of saving souls and building up the church in all its enterprises. Fourteen congregations were represented and seven ordained ministers were present. A sweet spirit pervaded all the transaction of the Presbytery and every one present seemed to enjoy its session. Presbytery will hold its next meeting in Madisonville. It closed with a very sweet and impressive sacramental service.

John Sedberry, Claude Lamb and Clarence Franks, Mr. Nunn's charming daughters preside over his home and to those who know them it is unnecessary to add more to assure one of the pleasure one gets out of a visit there.

CHARLES MINNER KILLED BY WAGON

FALLS IN FRONT OF LOAD OF CORN AND SUSTAINS FATAL INJURIES.

Victim Was a Prominent Farmer of the Sheridan-Vicinity and Leaves a Family.

REMAINS BURIED SATURDAY

Chas. Minner, one of the best known and most substantial farmers in the Sheridan-Hurricane vicinity, was horribly crushed last Thursday by being run over and dragged by a wagon loaded with corn. He was driving down a hill and the front end gate burst out of his wagon and he slipped with the corn out under the heels of his team and as the wagon passed over him with locked hind wheel he was dragged and crushed beneath the heavy load. He was frightfully injured, his ribs being torn loose from the back bone. He displayed great nerve and arose and walked to the house, but the arrival of the physician revealed the fact that there was a very slim chance, if any, for his recovery. He lived about twenty-four hours. He leaves, besides his wife, who was a Miss Wooten, a daughter of James Wooten, four children. His mother, Mrs. Macinda Minner, died only a few weeks ago. The interment took place Saturday at Hurricane graveyard. Rev. E. D. Boggess preached the funeral. Mr. Minner was a christian gentleman and had been a member in good standing of the Methodist church at Hurricane for many years. His widow and orphans have the sympathy of The Press in their affliction.
