THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1907.

We are authorized to announce R. H. THOMAS a candidate for Assessor, to fill out the unexpired term of J. Anthony Davidson, subject to the action of the Republican party. He endorses the local option law.

Mothers who teach their children have now gone back to the old-fashioned simplified spelling board, namely, the shingle.

"Trust your appetite," says a health magazine. That advice would be all right if we could induce the grocer to do a little more trusting.

"What's the matter with a woman when she refuses to talk back to her husband?" asks the Chicago Times.
Our guess is that she is either asleep or dead.

Be a producer. Employees are of two classes—those who produce and make money, and those who are on the expense side. The producer is never out of a job.

Ninety per cent. of a man's trouble mentally, morally, physically and financially is because he can not say "No." The measure of a man is his ability to use his backbone instead of his wishbone.

It takes two to make a quarrel.
Arguments and disputes raise Cain.
If you want the best of the matter keep your temper. Let the other fellow fret and stew. Stoop to conquer. Cut out thoughts of revenge and you will win the bout.

It is a plan of nature that the body and brain must have work or else man's life is miserable. The man with no occupation or cares, who lives on his income, and avoids responsibilities, is simply counting the days until he dies.

A St. Louis church has a penny bank, elocution lessons, an entertainment course, a millinery class, a class in English, a sewing school, a cooking class, a church book store, a reading room, a chorus class, a legal bureau, and medical attention. Presumably, it also has a pastor who preaches the gospel.

Hon. Eugene Graves was nominated by the Democrats as their candidate for the Legislature from Mc-Cracken county, to succeed Hon. L.
P. Head, Saturday afternoon. Mr.
Graves was nominated over Mr. Mat-McKinney, the only opposition. Mr.
Graves is a very popular young man, having served the county of Mc-Cracken two terms as county attorney. He will be elected at the November election by a big majority. He is a good Democrat and will make an able representative.—Princeton Leader.

Mr. Graves is a Crittenden Co. boy, having been reared at Dycus-burg. He is a brother of J. A.
Graves, of Dycusburg Canning Co., and nephew of Mrs. Emma Hayward, of this city.

The Record-Press congratulates him in winning the nomination which is equivalent to an election.

Will Butler in Panama

It will be a great surprise to many of our citizens to know that Will Butler is in Panama and has charge of the telephone system in the canal district. The position is one of great responsibility and requires not only experience, but an expert at the business to meet the Government's requirements, hence his selection.

Mr. Butler is a son of Rev. J. H.
Butler, of this city, and is not related to W. B. Butler of the Home Telephone Company office here.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen.

Eight shoats and two sows from my farm on Shady Grove road near George Baker's last Sunday week (March 24). Will pay for their return.
O. S. WOODSIDES.

CHURCH NOTES

The sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday was one appropriate to Easter day. The text was 1 Cor. 15-14 "If Christ be not risen from the dead, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain." This text presents the fundamental truth of Christianity. All faith and preaching rest upon the doctrine of the resurrection.

The sermon at night was of an expository character and was based on the first Psalm. The theme was "The Blessings of the Righteous Man."

The celebration of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.
Preparatory services will be held Friday night at 7 o'clock, and Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The members of the congregation are urged to attend these services, and all friends are cordially invited to come.

A Monogonarian.

Uncle Harvey Travis, of the Tribune vicinity, was in the city last week shaking hands with his many friends and visiting his son, Albert, the county jailer.

Uncle Harvey has passed fourscore and ten years, but notwithstanding this he is hale and hearty, and is indeed an interesting character to meet.

Notice.

All parties, who have tobacco sticks belonging to the factory at Shady Grove, are requested to return them and save cost.

SARAH L. MORSE.

Buys Handsome Lots.

Thos. H. Cochran has purchased of P. S. Maxwell, the lot next to his residence facing R. W. Wilson's on Main street, and will soon erect thereon a handsome home.

Mrs. M. E. Croft has also bought a lot adjoining and will also build a fine house in the near future. Let the good work go on.

Arm Amputated.

Miss Mary Millett, of Uniontown, whose arm was badly hurt in street car accident during the Confederate reunion at New Orleans in April 1906, submitted Saturday to amputation of the injured member. She is in a hospital in Louisville and friends here have been apprised that conditions are favorable for her early recovery.—Uniontown Telegram.

Miss Millett is a half sister of Dr.
R. J. Morris.

Dodds-Wolfe.

Mr. H. W. Wolfe, of Indianapolis, and Miss Maude Dodds, of Crider, were united in marriage at the bride's home Tuesday, April 2, 1907.

Mr. Wolfe is teacher of language in the University at Indianapolis.

Miss Dodds is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Janette Dodds, of Crider, and a niece of Mrs. T. C. Guess, of this city, and is a charming young lady. She has visited here frequently and has many friends in this city.

Birthday Party

Miss Irene Stone the little daughter of Mr and Mrs. Stone celebrated her 11th birthday Monday, about 30 of her friends attended many of them brought little tokens of remembrance.
Refreshments were served, childish games were played until the lowering sun wanted them. Irene is a sweet, and amiable child and much beloved by all who know her. She is a great help and comfort to her mother who does not enjoy the best of health.

Birthday Party.

Tuesday of last week Mrs. Dr.
Daughtrey entertained from 4:30 to 6 for her little piece Vira Shuttlesworth, in honor of her sixth birthday.

Several nice presents were received and nice refreshments of candies and fruits were served by Mildred Elgin Ruth Haynes. The little people all had a most pleasant time.

Those present were: Mary Weldon, Bernice Sutherland, Virginia Flan-ary, Lillie Dunn, Lena Guess, Ruth Flanary, Ruth Haynes, Mildred Elgin, Fannie Sums, Geneva Lamb, Jonnie Flanary, Jim Henry, Leslie Henry,

A Change in The Transfer Business.

The Marion Coal & Transfer Co., has absorbed the Sutherland Transfer Co., recently purchased by O. H.
Paris, and the two companies will hereafter be operated as the Marion Coal & Transfer Co. The grocery department will not be continued by the firm, it having been sold to Jas.
W. Paris, the father of O. H. Paris, he will probably continue the business at the same stand.
