

Cumberland River Traffic.

The importance of traffic on the Cumberland river is evidenced by the announcement made by H. W. Butterff, manufacturer and capitalist, of Nashville, to the effect that a river depot will be built at the north end of the wharf in that city. This will give Nashville's river front a commanding appearance, an effect that has been largely produced by the building of the Illinois Central and Southern Railway passenger depot and freight sheds. The purpose of the river depot is to enable shippers to deliver their consignments to the steamboat companies at any time, instead of having to wait until the boat comes to the wharf, as they now have to do.—Livingston Banner.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth, stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed. Guaranteed to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by J. H. Orme, druggist, 50c.

One trouble with conceit is that it leads you to believe the doors of opportunity are too small for you.

Here's Good Advice.

O. S. Woolever, one of the best known merchants of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Cures every sore, wound, burn or abrasion. 25c. at J. H. Orme's drug store.

Coal is a queer commodity. When purchased, it not only goes to the buyer, but to the cellar, as well.

De Witt's Kidney and bladder Pills are unequalled for back ach, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A week's treatment for 25 cents. Sold by J. H. Orme.

TOTAL LOSS NO INSURANCE!

Is the oft repeated expression which tells its own tale of putting off till tomorrow that which should have been done today.

Neglecting to insure causes a loss of many millions of dollars every year to property owners. Don't be one of them, but get your insurance now.

I represent one of the strongest insurance offices in the land, and without question the oldest in the world, being established in 1710.

The Rule of Three.

Three things to govern—temper, tongue and conduct.
Three things to cultivate—courage, affection and gentleness.
Three things to commend—thrift, industry and promptness.
Three things to despise—cruelty, arrogant and ingratitude.
Three things to wish for—health, friends and contentment.
Three things to admire—dignity, gracefulness and intellectual power.
Three things to give—alms to the needy, comfort to the sad and appreciation to the worthy.

A Happy Family.

J. J. Mann, of Fordyce, Ark., writes: Use Carlsedt's German Liver Power for ten years, cured my wife of female troubles. Haven't had a doctor for six years, formerly paid two or three doctor bills a year. Would not be without it. Worth its weight in gold! Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 25c. Sold by all druggists.

No Corsets: No Squeezes for Lemons.

Des Moines, Ia., May 30.—The lemon, so long the target of the facetious, becomes the emblem of a newly organized society to be known as Crute No. 23, of the Illustrious Order of Lemons, which the young women students of Drake University who are promoting it declare it has a serious purpose in the social world. The society starts out with a membership of seventy-five. Each charter member is said to have made a solemn vow that corsets shall be tabooed, tight-fitting shoes discarded and that any man sufficiently presumptuous as to squeeze a member's hand or essay a hug, will be presented with a lemon. The officers of the society are: The grand exalted lemon, grand lemonade, lemon-pel, lemonseed and lemonsqueeze. The leaders of the Lemon Society claim their organization will spread to include every university and college town in the United States.

A Dangerous Deadlock.

That sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at J. H. Orme's drug store. 25c.

Wild Man Gets In Bad.

Danville, Ky., May 29.—While playing wild man at a side show in the recent Center College Carnival, Isaac Patterson, a negro, came near remaining in irons all night. The negro had been employed by the students to appear as a wild man and in order to carry out the deception was clad in skins and was ornamented with two enormous tusks. A pair of hand-cuffs and a stout log chain added to the appearance of ferocity.

In the excitement, the key to the bracelets was misplaced and for half an hour the side show was the scene of considerable commotion. "No mo' wild man fuh me," said Patterson when the key way finally found.

Letter From Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Calif., May 27. MESSRS. JENKINS AND CRIDER, Marion, Ky.
DEAR SIRS:—Enclosed you will find $1.00. I would have sent it sooner but didn't want to. Say, I am really glad that you fellows have gotten together, for it is a true saying that "in union there is strength," and it is a good thing for brethren to dwell in unity. My best wishes for both of you and the old paper. I don't care much about it but then I read everything in it when it comes.

I see that you still have cold weather. We don't have any of that all the year round. I meet a great many Kentuckians here, and in fact meet people from every nation, kindred and tribe on earth. Well I am just sending you the "mon" and best wishes.

Ancient Rome

is now merely a memory of the past. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the family liniment of the twentieth century. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Cuts, Sprains, Neuralgia etc., Mr. C. H. Runyon, Stanberry, Mo., writes: "I have used Snow Liniment for Rheumatism and all pain. I can't say enough in its praise. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Good Meetings at Tent.

A large audience assembled in the big gospel tent at Albany and B streets for the first of the Holiness meetings.

Rev. Ed. Ferguson, a former L. & N. conductor, preached a powerful sermon on "Ye Cannot Serve Two Masters." He is plain, forcible and eloquent. His services are in constant demand by the people whom he says are hungry for a full gospel as he preaches. A big aristocratic church in Atlantic City wanted him if he could only four days. Another at Trenton, N. J., and he is engaged for some of the biggest camp-meetings in the country. Not less than the preacher is the singer, Prof. Yates. He is alone in the country in his style of solo singing. He plays, sings and preaches at the same time. One cannot describe the effect he produces on an audience.

Services from day to day at 4 and 7:30 and at A. C. L. shops Thursday noon. As this meeting is by and for everybody, all are on equal footing.—Wayeross, Ga., Journal.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herren, Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Stimulation Without Irritation.

In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. It does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Joy.
Now comes the time when Little Bill Goes barefoot through the grasses And tries at night to wash his feet By walking through the grasses!

But mother drops to William's game And makes his bottom tingle— For getting dirt upon the bed, She spansks him with her shingle!

Oh, happy days, now gone for aye! What would I give to wander Barefooted down the paths of old Where I was tanned out yonder!

I'd take a flaking every night To feel my pulses tingle The way they used to in the days I felt my mother's shingle.

Now all is changed. She sleeps in death Out there where perfumes mingle, And I am left to bear the brunt Of Old Time's knotty shingle!

He is not kind as mother was, And all his blows are rousers— You cannot fool him with a book Tucked neatly in your trousers!

He spansks you where the goods are thin And never hears your wallings— I'd rather take a bunch of man's Than one of Old Time's whallings!

Frills.

When Love makes the world go round, Hymen is the ringmaster. Optimism is one way to have fun with yourself.

Says a philosopher, "There are no entirely good men; no entirely bad women." There are some women however, so entirely good that the rest don't count.

Our Willie boy was sick in bed. He had a pain—not in his head! He couldn't split the wood for me Or run an errand for his pa!

Our Willie boy was bad, indeed, When grandpa spoke of parsley-wood— But when the boys with ball and bat Began a game of "three-old-out," Our Willie's pain departed and fled And let him leave his downy bed!

Out on the lot I hear him yell— It's strange how soon the boy got well! Why is it that a married man all ways has to be a foot-warmer for his wife? Don't a woman ever have warm feet?

Many a rich man has lived like a poor man to die like a miser. If things fall to come your way, don't sit down on the curb and growl. Get up and go after 'em!

The apple of a young man's eye is sometimes a peach. I always patronize a deaf and dumb barber. This barber cost $5 and it's a safety that does the business with-out breathing chewing tobacco in my face.

No Chicago poet ever refers to a woman's eyes as being like the skies. Chicago's skies are too smoky.

Time will tell on a man—especially a high old time.

A nifty young lady named Byrd Was embraced by a bear "On my word," Said the girl with a shrug, "Breaking loose from his hug, 'Your manners are simply absurd!'"

The difference between comic opera and grand opera is that grand opera is sometimes comic.

The poor young man who marries a woman with money has much to learn about happiness. The poor young man who is wise will marry a poor young woman and support her to the best of his ability. If he does a good job, she will appreciate him and love him the more. The rich wife, always independent, will remain independent to the end of the chapter, if she doesn't lose her money. The mere fact that the man makes a good home for her doesn't mean anything to her; she had that before she married him and she can have that any time without his help. As a protector and provider this puts him out of the game, so to speak. The young man who doesn't want to be out of the game should leave rich girls for rich men and let them fight it out among themselves.

Sucker Time.

The ships that pass at night Are stalwart ships, I know, But those that pass by day Bear hope within their bow!

A small and anxious lad Rowed by another boy— And loudly do they shout: "Say, Jimmie, ship ahoy!"

Then out across the deep In shrill, beseeching terms, There falls upon the ear: "HAS YOUSE GOT ANY WORMS?"

New Cure for Jag.

The jail at Whiting is an old box building, that is seldom used. On July 4, however, a young man imbibed too freely of some tonic that not only toned him up, but made him unduly fractious, and the city marshal was compelled to gather him in and place him in this little-used jail. Just after they left him the most horrible cries of pain and shouts for help were heard issuing from the wooden box, but it was supposed that these were only the ravings of a drunken man who desired to attract attention. Some time later it was discovered that a nest of hornets had been disturbed by the prisoner's entrance and immediately commenced to punish him for disturbance of their peace, as well as for drunkenness. The treatment sobered him and the police justice deemed further penance unnecessary.—Holton (Kan.) Record.

Board of Trade Man Probably. When Bill wuz young he loved t' play. Fer keeps, th' game o' marbles, And now that he is rich I see— Unless this paper garbles— That he is still most fond of them. Th' Trybone sez—It beats th' band— That Bill hez got th' very best Eyeballian marbles in th' land!

OPTICAL ILLUSION.

NOT JUST WHAT HE WANTED.

Shivering Man Unable to Appreciate Humor of Situation.

A well-known New Hampshire man was a guest one winter night at a hotel about ten miles from Boston, famous for its game dinners, and a favorite stopping place of the football players prior to the big games.

He was awakened long past midnight during a wild storm, by his window being blown in, and his bed drenched with sleet and rain.

Shivering from his icy shower bath

He Brought Him Ice Water.

He lost no time in jumping to the bell, which he rang again and again.

After an irritating wait of ten minutes, a sleepy porter appeared with a pitcher in his hand.

"Why in the deuce didn't you get here quicker?" demanded the irate guest, with chattering teeth.

"Why, boss, I was getting a pitcher of ice water. I couldn't think of anything else anybody would want in the middle of the night but that."

ODD STONES AND GRAVES.

Peculiarities Existing in Various Parts of the World.

There is a curious old gravestone in Prestbury churchyard which records the fact that one woman at least in this country died a bachelior, says London Tit-Bits. Her name was Sarah Pickford, and the stone gravely informs the reader she was there interred "August ye 17, Anno Dom. 1793, and died a Bachelior in the 48th year of her age."

A stone in Westminster Abbey records the interment there of George Graham, who was the only workman that received the honor of being buried in Westminster Abbey. He was a scientific instrument maker, who in 1799 invented the dead-beat escapement in clocks. His funeral was attended by the Royal Society in a body.

In East Ham churchyard there is a tombstone placed crossways. The woman interred is said to have been born cross, lived cross, married a Mr. Cross, and died cross. How dying request was to be buried cross, and this was carried out.

As to more ancient graves, that of Noah is reported to be in the small town of Nakhichevan, near the foot of Mount Ararat and is sixty feet in length. Another tradition says that the grave is merely a niche in the wall of an abandoned fortress.

The supposed grave of Eve can be seen at Jeddah in a cemetery situated outside the city walls. More than 40,000 pilgrims visit the place yearly. According to the Arabs Eve was the tallest woman that ever died.

WOMAN'S SELF-SACRIFICE.

A Russian baroness, who wishes her identity to remain a secret, recently visited the hospital at Thonouse and saw a poor Swiss peasant girl brought in, terribly burned by a petrol lamp explosion. The baroness was told that unless new skin was grafted on the girl the case was hopeless.

The young baroness insisted that they should take nearly a square foot of her own skin to heal the sufferer. The operation was performed and the Swiss girl will now recover.

Ca' Adopts Puppies. G. M. J. Thomas, proprietor of a cafe in Decatur, Ala., has several young puppies which have been adopted by a tabble. The old cat seems to think as much of the puppies as though they were her own young. She sleeps in a box with them and plays with them as if they were her own.

Hogwallow News.

Washington Hoek's cow went dry very suddenly the other day. He now remembers that he killed a toad frog the day before.

So live that when you die and are planted under the sod anyone can stroll by and say "I wouldn't mind being buried there myself."

Luke Mathews visited the smoke house of an unknown man on the other side of Musket Ridge Thursday night and returned with two fine hams of meat. To ease his conscience he turned one of them over to the Hog Ford preacher.

Some miscreants who probably has a grudge against the government and our postmaster, crept into Hogwallow the other night and turned the postoffice around so that it faced the hog pen.
